Owners Must Pay for Weeds.

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Senate today passed the bill introduced in the lower house by Assemblyman Thompson, and passed by that body, declaring noxious weeds growing on public streets to be a nuisance and empowering the superintendents of streets of municipalities to remove them when property owners fail to do so, the charge becoming a lien upon the lots affected.

CHAOTIC SUBSIDY.

Ships' Aid Bill in a Sorry Stress.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON (D. C.) Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The advocates of ship subsidy are "up in the air" tonight. It cannot well be foretold what will be the outcome on the bill now pending before the House, which measure is to be voted upon tomorrow afternoon.

The conflicting elements had their innings today, and it was very plain that there is strong opposition to the passage of the measure in its present form.

All sorts of amendments were proposed in the hope of counteracting any serious opposition, but instead of bringing the advocates of ship subsidy closer together, these amendments have served to widen the breach.

No two sections of the county seems to agree as to the general policy to be followed in the distribution of the subsidies contemplated.

Representative Burton of Ohio explained in no uncertain terms his opposition to the bill as it now stands, claiming that the country was too busy in the developments of our inland trade to give serious consideration to anything else.

He did not believe that the measure would tend to increase our foreign trade.

Representative Townsend of Michigan created a sensation by offering an amendment striking out the provision in the bill giving subsidies to vessels engaged in the Oriental trade.

PACIFICS OPPOSITION.

Should this amendment prevail, the entire Pacific Coast headed by the California delegation would do everything in its power to encompass the defeat of the bill.

Townsend dwelt at some length on the importance of developing the trade of this country with South America. He did not think it a good policy to confer subsidies on vessels piying between the Pacific Coast and the Orient.

Representative Kahn made an ineffectual effort today to have the three vessels of the Oceanic Steamship Company, the Ventura, Sonoma and Sierra, given part of the subsidy provided in the bill. He stated that the provision requiring that mails should be carried only in ships hereafter to be built was absolutely prohibitive.

Kahn called attention to the fact that any company that would build new ships would receive a subsidy of $482,000 per annum, while those at present carrying the mails to the Orient would get but $283,000.

KAHN DEFEATED.

The bill, however, did not seem to agree with Mr. Kahn and his amendment was defeated.

There has been no little criticism at the manner in which the bill has been handled in the House.

Representative Littauer, who has only recently been on the Committee of Merchant Marine and Fisheries, and has therefore not been able to give the matter serious consideration, has been practically in charge of the measure, supplanting Representative Grosvenor of Ohio, the chairman of the committee.

Littauer has demonstrated on more than one occasion that his knowledge of the pending measure is not any too extensive, and it is said that he has lost rather than gained votes for it.

If the bill is finally enacted it will be in such shape as to be scarcely recognizable, even by its closest supporters.

Smith (Iowa) presented an amendment requiring that every contract under the bill shall be awarded to the responsible bidder who will contract, under penalties prescribed by the Postmaster-General, for the highest running speed between the points named in the contract. This amendment was adopted.

The first amendment to the bill was offered by Littauer of New York, providing for a line of steamers of sixteen knots from the Gulf of Mexico to Brazil at a maximum compensation not exceeding $300,000 for a monthly service, or $600,000 for a fortnightly service. The amendment was adopted.

An amendment offered by Humphrey of Washington that no money appropriated by the bill shall be paid for any vessel directly or indirectly connected with any railroad company, was defeated on the theory that the bill was sufficiently safeguarded in that direction.

BOTHERS GIRL ON STREET.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Bessie Smith, 17 years old, on her way home from a business college last night, was accosted. It is charged, by John Morgan, who told the police on being arrested that he was from Los Angeles, Cal. Miss Smith testified that her mother had made application to the police department for protection for her daughter.

Two detectives were detailed to escort the girl to her home last night and were only a few feet behind her when Morgan stepped up and took her by the arm. The detectives then arrested the accoster. He was fined $75 and costs on a charge of disorderly conduct today.

DRANK DOPED VICHY; ROBBED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WHITE PLAINS (N. Y.) Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Edward Schubert, 23 years old, formerly a butler for William S. Gould, son of Charles A. Gould, the millionaire car coupler magnate of Port Chester, was sentenced today to Sing Sing prison for six years at hard labor for robbing the Gould residence of $2500 in valuables.

The prisoner put up the novel defense that he drank a glass of vichy that had been doped and that he had been made a tool of by other burglars. Dist.-Atty. Young showed documents to Judge Platt to prove that Schubert had served time in Sing Sing prison twice before for similar crimes.

It is reported that the burglar is a black sheep of a noble family in Germany.

CLAREMONT (N. H.) Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] William Welch, the oldest citizen of New Hampshire, the oldest member of the G.A.R., and the oldest Mason in the United States, died today at the home of his son in East Lempster. Welch was 106 years old on March 29 last. He was born in St. Andrews, N. B., in 1800. He joined a lodge of Odd Fellows in Calais, Me., just across the river from his home, in 1831, and the following year became a member of Sussex Lodge of the F. and A.M., of St. Stephens, N. B.

WRECKED SHIP SIGHTED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The Norwegian steamer Teilus, Capt. Berg, in this port from Nanaimo, B. C., reports that February 27, after weathering a gale that reached its height on the preceding night, she passed within a ship's length of a wreck, five miles off the mouth of the Coquille River on the Oregon coast.

"The wreck," says Capt. Berg, in his report, "appeared to be a capsized steam or gasoline schooner. She was about 100 feet long, and of great beam. The mast was floating beside her. We could not read her name, as she was lying bottom up. She was quite free of seawood or barnacles, so it looked as if she had not been long in the water. Her keel was damaged, as though she had struck bottom."

The fear is expressed in shipping circles that this wreck is the gasoline schooner Bessie K., Capt. Lazarevict, now due in this port from Bandon, Or., with 120,000 feet of lumber. The Bessie K. carried a crew of eight men.

NEW YORK IS SHORT.

Subtreasury Funds Are Missing.

Officials Admit Defalcation, but Attempt to Minimize Importance.

Building Is Closely Guarded, but Windows Show a Search for Money.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It became known today that a shortage exists in the New York subtreasury.

Charles H. Treat, treasurer of the United States, spent the night in the city. Though his visit could not be directly connected with the shortage and he could not be found, it is believed he is here to see that a careful investigation is made.

It is impossible for any outsider to gain access to the subtreasury building tonight, but almost every window in that structure was lighted, and evidences were plenty that a large force of men were at work. Whether Treat was there was not learned.

From inside sources the most that could be learned was that a shortage really does exist. By those who profess to have authoritative information it was said it will equal that recently discovered in Chicago when $173,000 in large bills was missed. Others said the shortage here amounts to only a trifling sum.

Secretary Shaw, when seen in Washington tonight, said he had heard nothing of any trouble in the New York subtreasury.

MAKES GUARDED ADMISSION.

One of the Secretary's assistants, however, frankly admitted that a careful investigation in the affairs of the New York subtreasury after the recent resignation of two employés had revealed a deficit amounting to several hundred dollars.

"The amount was so trifling," said Secretary Shaw's assistant, "that little attention was paid to it. There was some fear, however, that the full extent of wrongdoing had not appeared, and as some bad book-keeping methods were also revealed, it was decided that a thorough overhauling of the affairs of the subtreasury should be had. I do not know that Treat went to New York to attend to this matter. In fact, I am inclined to think, he is in New York in reference to an entirely different incident.

"As I understand the matter, there was no wrong intent on the part of those connected with the trifling shortage. A few hundred dollars were not turned in over night. The amount probably would have been made good the next day had not the irregularity been discovered. As it turned out, the money was turned over to Mr. Fish, and after explanation no prosecution was decided upon. I do not believe that any greater shortage has been discovered."

Hamilton Fish, assistant treasurer, who is in charge of the New York subtreasury, could not be found tonight, and no one would consent to speak for him in discussing the shortage reported from Washington.

A report, probably without foundation, was afloat that a conspiracy had been discovered, the object of which was to rob all the subtreasuries. This had it that a direct connection exists between the shortage in Chicago and the one in this city.

VOTE FOR FORFEIT OF VAST WATER RIGHTS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The long and spirited contest to secure cheaper water rates for San Francisco culminated in drastic action tonight, when the Board of Supervisors, after three hours of warm debate, adopted a resolution declaring the franchises and works of the Spring Valley Water Company—variously estimated to be worth $27,000,000 to $55,000,000, forfeited and escheated to the city and county of San Francisco for the public use and benefit.

Before the seized franchises and property, however, could actually be taken from the possession of the company, due process of law would have to issue from the courts, so that the adoption of the resolution takes the effect of a declaration on the part of the Board of Supervisors of an intention to institute legal action to deprive the Spring Valley Water Company of its property.

At a hearing before the Supervisors which was preliminary to the establishment of the legal water rates for the year beginning July 1, 1907, officers of the company testified that the company was still charging its patrons under the schedule of 1902, which is 25 per cent. higher than the schedule established by the Supervisors for 1906.

The latter schedule was, at tonight's meeting reëstablished, and the Supervisors, then, acting by authority of Section 1, Article XIV, of the Constitution of California, declared the forfeiture and escheatment.

The Spring Valley Water Company is now in the courts fighting the ordinance by which the 1906 schedule of rates was established.

THAW CRITICISES HIS PROSECUTOR IN NOTE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Harry K. Thaw enlivened an extremely dull session of his trial today by giving out a brief statement in which he accused Dist.-Atty Jerome of having made unprofessional remarks in court, asserted that his wife's testimony was absolutely true and in conclusion declared that Mrs. Thaw's "natural real goodness" was above the comprehension of the prosecuting officer.

It was just before adjournment and after many hours of expert testimony as to the meaning of extracts from eight letters written by the defendant, with relation to the sanity or insanity of the writer, that Thaw gave his statement to the reporters. It follows:

"With chances millions to one against her, after the catastrophe in 1901, it is wonderful that Mrs. H. K. Thaw prevailed in the cross-examination against the prosecution backed by blacklegs.

"Her testimony was absolute truth. Our evidence was of conversations. The cross-examination has proved the exact facts under oath.

"Mr. Jerome, finding his informants in a certain line fallifiers, concluded by more usual methods which is to his credit.

"Moreover, from some of his questions, and some of his unprofessional remarks in court, it appeared clearly that the natural and real goodness of the witness is above his comprehension."

Thaw began to prepare his statement yesterday afternoon. One of the newspaper tables adjoins the table occupied by his counsel, and a reporter sitting near the defendant read over the latter's shoulder the two opening paragraphs.

When the papers appeared yesterday with the extracts from his statement printed in display, Thaw was much chagrined.

Today, in court, he took the reporter to task. He said he had not intended to make the statement public until the end of the trial. He further asserted that many mistakes appeared in the portion of the statement that was published, and added that he might make a correction later.

Last night, in his cell in the Tombs, Thaw completed his statement, and today he handed the original draft to a reporter he has known for years and in whom he had confidence. He also handed the newspaper man a brown envelope.

"Seal up the statement in this envelope," said Thaw, "and write your name across the flap. I am going to have some typewritten copies made, and when they are completed I want you to compare them with the original and if they are all right they will be given out."

Daniel O'Reilly, one of Thaw's lawyers, said that he also had a copy of Thaw's statement, but would not give it out until the defendant directed him to do so.

Late this afternoon the typewritten copies suddenly appeared in court. Attention was at first attracted to them by Thaw handing a carbon copy to his newspaper friend and asking him to compare it with the original. Four or five copies lay on the counsel table in front of the defendant. One of the reporters reached over, picked up a copy and hastily left the courtroom. He was quickly followed by other reporters and so the statement was flashed into newspaper offices throughout the country, and Thaw then said he was content to have the statement released as a correction to the garbled statement which appeared this morning.

Clifford Hartridge of Thaw's counsel, and Delmas declared later they had no knowledge of the statement having been prepared or given out.

Dr. Britton D. Evans, the alienist, was in the witness chair all day, undergoing cross-examination by Dist.-Atty. Jerome. The prosecutor said he would probably keep Dr. Evans on the stand throughout tomorrow. This makes indefinite the time when the defense will rest.

Dr. Evans and Jerome spent the entire day in going over eight letters written by Thaw and cutting out some excerpts on which Dr. Evans based his belief that they were written by a person of unsound mind.

"Do you mean an insane person?" asked Jerome.

"Yes," replied the witness, "but not in the sense that the person might always remain insane."

This was the essence of the day's work. Jerome seemed as interested as the expert in searching out the phrases in the letters which might be construed as the writings of an insane man, and for the first time the jurors were permitted thoroughly to examine the photographic copies of the letter.

As the witness and the prosecutor pored tediously over the documents, the jurors were enabled to follow them closely. The District Attorney apparently wanted the letters to be thoroughly scrutinized and understood by the jury.

CHINESE IN TOILS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Thirteen Chinese sailors from the British steamship Como were arrested by policemen and immigration guards this afternoon at the Greenwich dock in an attempt to escape from the vessel, and were taken to the harbor station and from there across the bay to the County Jail. A complaint charging them with being illegally in the United States will be sworn out tomorrow against the Chinese by Charles Meehan, Chinese inspector in charge.

The Como reached this port the first of the week from New Zealand, and the officers have been having trouble with the Chinese since arriving.

CUTS OFF MILK SUPPLY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—A sudden cutting off of the entire milk supply of San Francisco is threatened as the result of a disagreement that has arisen between the Dairymen's Association, comprising practically all of the milk dealers of the city, and the Milk Wagon Drivers' Union. The latter body professes to be satisfied with the $90 a month wage and with the ten-hour day, but demands that the drivers be allowed to begin the day's work at 5 o'clock in the morning instead of at 3. The dealers say this would do away with the early delivery, which the public requires.

The position of the union is that unless its demand is acceded to by the dealers the drivers will go on strike the coming Saturday.

CHANCE SAVES LIVES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 28.—Train No 49, on the Baltimore and Ohio, running forty miles an hour, was wrecked tonight at Indian Creek, six miles from Connellsville, Pa. The engineer was killed and many passengers injured.

A long-distance telephone message to the Associated Press says it was one of the most remarkable accidents on record, in so far as only one person was killed.

BUSCH IS RECOVERING.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 28.—According to a telegram received today from a friend, Adolphus Busch, the millionaire brewer, who has been in Pasadena, Cal., recuperating from a severe illness, will arrive in Kansas City next Sunday and home the next day. The telegram states that Mr. Busch is in excellent spirits and has been greatly benefited by his trip.

WENDELL PHILIPPS GARRISON.

CATCH YAQUI WITH POISON.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

EL PASO (Tex.) Feb. 28.—News has been received here that a Yaqui Indian, who had just emptied a fifteen-pound can of cyanide of potassium into the municipal waterworks reservoir at Hermosillo, was caught in the act of emptying another can of the poison. He was ordered shot by the authorities and the sentence was carried out.

A new terror is added to the situation in the Sonora country, since the Yaquis have learned the deadly nature of the poison, which is so largely used in mining operations in that section, and so easily accessible to thieves and desperadoes.

OUTDOES MIDAS.

Eight Hundred Per Cent. Deal.

Experts Say Hill and Morgan Made Four Million Win Thirty-eight.

Hill Wanted to Take Next Turn on Interstate Commerce Grill.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] That James J. Hill and his associates in the control of the Northern Pacific Railroad acquired a profit of 850 per cent. on a stock allotment at the reorganization of that railroad is one of the astounding statements made by those who are interested in demanding a probe of the Hill-Morgan financiering of the Northern Pacific system.

Hill and his crowd have been getting annual dividends amounting to 50 per cent. of their investment of $4,000,000, made at the time of the reorganization.

Frank B. Kellogg, the special counsel who is conducting Federal investigation into Harriman's lines, is fully acquainted with the Northern Pacific, and is equipped to push the probe.

The inquiry derives local interest from the fact that approximately $36,000,000 worth of Northern Pacific stock is held in and around Philadelphia. Most of the stock is held in the Northwestern States, where greatest injury to stockholders has resulted from the organization.

Millions of acres of rich timber, mineral and wheat lands also came into the grip of the Hill-Morgan syndicate through the organization.

ALLEGES CAPITAL INFLATION.

In the Harriman inquiry both Interstate Commerce Commissioners and Attorneys Kellogg and Severance, in the examination of Otto Kuhn of Kuhn, Loeb & Co. devoted much time to showing that in the reorganization of the Union Pacific there was inflation on the capitalization.

The capital stock of the Northern Pacific at the time of the reorganization was $84,000,000. In the reorganization the stock was increased to $155,000,000—more than 84 per cent., and it has recently been voted to increase the stock to $250,000,000.

In the reorganization, one-third of the $77,500,000 common stock, amounting to $25,832,000 par value, was allotted to a syndicate, and immediately acquired by James J. Hill and associates of the Great Northern for $4,000,000. Hill and associates have been getting 8 per cent. dividends on the par value of $25,000,000, or 50 per cent. on the investment. The dividends for two years paid the price given by them for the stock.

A REAL MIDAS TOUCH.

Their $4,000,000 investment is commanding in the market more than $38,000,000, a profit to Hill and his friends of quite 850 per cent.

It is thought that Kellogg, who is conducting the Harriman investigation, is familiar with many facts concerning the Northern Pacific reorganization. It was he who made the affidavit on the petition filed in Minnesota asking for the dismissal of the so-called creditors' bill against the Northern Pacific in 1894.

It was averred in the petition that the bill was filed by the plaintiffs, acting in collusion with the Northern Pacific, and that the appointment of receivers under the creditors' bill was without authority of law and was a plea to hinder and to delay. The court entered a decree dismissing the creditors' bill.

COMB SANDS FOR GOLD.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BAKERSFIELD, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The sands of the Mojave Desert are to be dragged for gold. In the past few days twenty-five square miles of desert land have been located along the course of the old stream bed, under which subterranean streams exist at shallow depths.

Much work has been carried on to date in the vicinity of the Redrock country, and the results met with have surprised mining men and caused the present activity.

CHURCH LEASING HALTED.

PARIS, Feb. 28.—The Archbishop of Grenoble has ordered the priests of his diocese to discontinue all negotiations relative to the leasing of churches. All church buildings and rectories will remain in the present status until further instructions are issued.

SANTO DOMINGO IS EXCITED.

ST. THOMAS (D. W. I.) Feb. 28.—There is intense excitement in Santo Domingo regarding the new American-Dominican treaty. The ministers demand the withdrawal of Señor Velasquez's portfolio or that the President accept their resignation. It is stated another revolution is threatened.

ARGENTINE EXPORTS DECREASE.

BUENOS AYRES, Feb. 28.—Official returns of Argentine trade for 1906 show the imports to be $269,000,000 and the exports $292,000,000. The imports increased $65,000,000 and the exports decreased $30,000,000.

GOVERNMENT FINISHES HARRIMAN INQUIRY.

Question of Forcing Railroad Operators and Financiers to Divulge Information Is Postponed Until Commission Can Consider It.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] According to the New York Herald, there were $24,000,000 for E. H. Harriman and three associates in the Chicago & Alton "readjustment," as follows:

Profits on $32,000,000 bond sale, $8,000,000.

Income from 20 per cent. dividend, $6,669,000.

Profit on $22,000,000 bond issue, $4,400,000.

Receipts from sale of Alton preferred, $3,055,000.

Total, $23,624,000.

In addition, E. H. Harriman received a salary of $100,000 for his management of the Alton.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today concluded its New York hearing upon the investigation of the operations and relations of the Union Pacific system, and while there will be oral argument heard at Washington in April, on a date to be decided later, the testimony has probably all been taken. There has been no decision yet as to an appeal to the courts to compel Edward H. Harriman and Otto Kahn to answer the many important questions declined by them, but the question will be considered after the commission returns to Washington.

"We will discuss the question at Washington," said Commissioner Lane after adjournment today, "and there decide if we are to ask that the stomach pumps be applied to these witnesses."

The closing hours of the hearing brought a statement from Controller Mahl that financial statements were not sent to Southern Pacific stockholders for several months before the dividend meeting in July last, this being in contradiction of Harriman's testimony; a suggestion from Commissioner Harlan that the 20 per cent. dividend on Alton was illegal under the Illinois Constitution; a partial clearing away of the aspersion in regard to the mortgaging of the Murrayville-Springfield cut-off before it was built, and a lengthy discussion of the propriety of capitalizing the old expenditures for betterments upon the Alton.

Before the hearing began it was said that, contrary to expectations, William G. Rockefeller would not be called to testify regarding the alleged sale to him by Harriman of 300,000 shares of Union Pacific at the time of the so-called Keene raid in 1903.

Samuel Felton, president of the Chicago and Alton since 1899, was called to show that about $1,000,000 for the coming settlement proceeds from the sale of securities was included in the statement that showed that $32,000,000 had been expended in improvements. The $32,000,000 also included $3,-700,000 expended since last June, and paid for by car trust certificates. This reduced the expenses from sale of securities in the Alton to between $18,900,000 and $19,000,000.

Charles W. Hillard, controller of the Chicago and Alton, who was on the stand when the hearing adjourned last evening, was then called. He explained that the branch line or cut-off from a point near Murrayville to Springfield, which he yesterday testified had been mortgaged before it was built, was one the Alton had a right to build. The proceeding was not unusual. The expense and the method of mortgaging were legitimate, the line of inquiry was evidently meant to correct the impression left by counsel's questions and Hillard's replies yesterday.

Then Kellogg asked a series of questions, eliciting a statement of the Chicago and Alton's assets and liabilities in 1898, before Harriman entered the property, and at the present time. These figures were taken from an annual report showing that before 1899 its capitalization was in round numbers $33,000,000, against $122,572,328 on June 1, last.

The witness said the car trust certificates were not included in the capitalization, so the total should really be $125,000,000, and not $122,000,000.

STIRS ALTON MUDDLE.

Kellogg examined the witness at length as to the books of the company, and had him produce, identify and explain many of the accounts already covered by evidence. The witness produced a record showing the stock standing in the name of the syndicate managers.

Kellogg endeavored to show that the Harriman management of the Chicago and Alton had capitalized the debts of the old Joliet and Chicago road prior to 1863, but Mr. Hillard said his knowledge of the road's affairs did not go back that far. It was elicited, however, that there never had been a foreclosure of the Chicago and Alton Railroad, or railway, while the old Joliet and Chicago had been foreclosed. The witness was examined as to the $12,000,000 which, it is claimed, Harriman already added to the capital of the Alton, because that amount had been expended on improvements or had been lost by former shareholders.

Lovett of counsel for Harriman objected to Kellogg assuming that $10,-000,000 of the amount represented loss to any old set of stockholders through foreclosure. It developed that neither witness nor counsel knew if there had been no foreclosure, so Kellogg amended his question to include "improvements or losses or both."

The witness said that the $12,000,000 in question had previously been paid and the accounts were written off. He did not know if other railroads ever added to their capital in that way.

Mr. Kellogg then asked a series of questions tending to show the certain enterprises also had been capitalized by the Alton, but the witness did not admit this. Certain construction expenses had been so charged, he said. Mr. Kellogg elicited the admission that the discount upon the bonds had been so charged that while the books disclosed it, the annual report would tend to confuse the public in regard to this item.

QUESTIONS DIRECTORS' METHODS

In answer to questions from Commissioner Lane, he questioned right of the directors of the Alton in going back over their books for a period of many years and capitalizing the expenditures. He said that each succeeding board of directors had each year passed upon the accounts and he thought that such acts should have been final.

The witness repeated his testimony of last evening as to the transfer of the Alton from the railroad company to the railway company through Louis Stanton, and said that it was evident from the books that the syndicate had simply handed over the $22,000,000 in bonds and had received the preferred stock and the St. Louis, Peoria and Northern property.

Lane asked him how much the Harriman interests had paid for the Chicago and Alton and how much they got out of the transaction.

Hillard was unable to state the profits. He had no means of knowing. As Lane continued to press for some information on this point, Kellogg remarked:

"Nobody knows."

"Oh, yes," rejoined Severance. "We can figure that out. It will show they did not lose any."

Cravath again drew attention to the statement of the witness last evening about the mortgage of the cut-off from Murrayville to Springfield before it was built, and said that the transaction had been perfectly proper from both a legal and a moral standpoint.

Commissioner Lane said he had understood, but he wanted to know what had become of the money.

Severance said that railroads often did similar things, but the money had usually been kept to build the road.

Counsel Lovett and Cravath cross-examined Hillard briefly, but he maintained his position firmly, particularly as to the propriety of capitalizing the old expenditures upon the Alton.

Controller Mahl of the Harriman lines was then recalled, and identified a number of exhibits.

Mahl explained that the resolution of the board of directors of the Union Pacific authorizing Harriman to borrow money in the name of the corporation was a purely formal matter. It was done to meet a requirement of certain California bankers. Lovett showed by the witness that the late C. P. Huntington had like authority from the Southern Pacific board, and that it was a common business practice.

CARMEN'S STRIKE AWARD REACHED.

DECISION CURBS WILD DEMANDS OF TROLLEY EMPLOYEES.

Father Yorke Dissents and Argues for Flat Rate of Three Dollars and Other Concessions Which Majority of the Board Refuse Their Ratification.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The board of arbitration chosen last September to adjust the differences between the United Railroads and the unionized employés thereof, and which appointment brought to an end the serious and long continued strike of last year, tonight made public its findings and awards. The decision is concurred in by Maj. F. McLaughlin, representing the United Railroads and Chief Justice Beatty of the California Supreme Court, third arbitrator. The Rev. Father P. C. Yorke, representing on the board the unionized employés, filed a dissenting opinion in which he strongly favors the request of the men for a flat rate of $3 and an eight-hour day.

By the terms of the award the platform men receive an increase of about 21 per cent. and must work ten hours a day; all other employés receive increases of from 15 to 40 per cent. and get the benefit of an eight-hour day. The awards are retroactive, covering the period from September 28, 1906, to May 1, 1907, and are in brief as follows:

All platform men in the service of the company one year to receive 31 cents an hour; two years, 32 cents; three years and over, 33 cents. They were formerly paid 25, 26¼ and 27½ cents.

Station operators, who formerly were paid $80 to $90 a month, to receive $96 to $108 a month.

Linemen foremen to receive $4.50 a day; journeyman linemen $1 a day.

Car barn and track foremen to receive $110 a month; journeymen from $85 to $100 a month; formerly were paid $2.50 and $2.80 a day.

Laborers to receive $2.25 a day for the first month and $2.50 a day thereafter.

All of the foregoing schedules expire May 1, 1907, when a readjustment between the United Railroads and its unionized employés must be made.

HAIR TAKES FIRE; TWO PERSONS DIE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A woman's hair caught fire from a cook stove over which she was bending, at Williamsburg, at 6 o'clock tonight. She and her mother were burned to death, her father is dying and a neighbor is severely burned.

Dead:

MRS. PETER REGAN, 52 years old.

Injured:

PETER REGAN, 66 years old, will die.

JAMES NOONAN, severely burned about the head and hands.

All the victims of this peculiar catastrophy lived in the house at the address mentioned.

Miss Regan's screams brought her father and mother to her side. In their efforts to extinguish the flames their hair and garments took fire.

James Noonan, who lived on the third floor, rushed into the Regan apartments and did his best to smother the flames enveloping the trio.

When an engine company arrived the firemen found the two women dead and Regan and Noonan unconscious on the kitchen floor.

LOS ANGELES LEADS THEM ALL.

CLIMATE is a large factor in one of the "whys" of Southern California's growth and prosperity; but after all is said, the unusually good times in this section during the last decade are more truthfully attributable to the zeal and patriotism of the progressive citizens of the Southwest.

Their modern ideas are clearly shown by the fact of their being the largest newspaper advertisers in the world. In Los Angeles, The Times regularly prints, day in and day out, more paid matter than any other metropolitan newspaper in the United States.

The subjoined tabulated statement, including the largest newspapers in several of the biggest cities of the country, shows the Los Angeles Times far in the lead:

PITH OF NEWS FROM THE MIDDLE WEST.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Three successive predictions of snow and rain for Chicago remain unfulfilled, and it is shrewdly suspected that the storm is being held back to supply the Leonine accompaniment for tomorrow's March inaugural. While clouds today obscured the sky in surrounding cities, Chicago enjoyed a clear atmosphere with invigorating winter temperatures. Maximum for the day was 39 deg., minimum 27 deg. Middle West temperatures (the dash indicating below zero:)

The "city beautiful" is no longer a dream of some happy future, but an immediate prospect, if the plans of the Committee of the Merchants' Club, which comprises many representative business men of Chicago, do not miscarry.

After months of work of a preliminary nature, the first definite step was taken today when bills were introduced in the Legislature to remove the legal obstacle in the path of a beautified Chicago. The first step which it is proposed to take, and for the purpose of which the bills were introduced, is the connecting boulevard between the North and South Side parks. A project long contemplated, but which is now planned on a scale so elaborate as to make it, if carried out, the rival of the most celebrated boulevards of the world.

BALLOT ON STRIKE.

Balloting began today to decide whether or not 50,000 men should quit work, tying up forty-seven railroads with a mileage of 130,000 miles and handling almost 1,000,000 cars. According to the feeling current it seems probable that the strike will be voted, but that that will be used as a weapon in the subsequent arbitration for which the roads have called in such a contingency.

SOCIETY ELOPEMENTS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MADISON (Wis.) Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Two society elopements caused a stir in Madison today. Karl L. Siebecker, son of Robert G. Siebecker, associate justice of the State Supreme Court, and nephew of Senator La Follette, induced Julia A. Jackson of Cincinnati to accompany him to the junior promenade at the university two weeks ago. They fell in love, defied parental objections and were secretly married.

Rodolfo B. Lopez of the Argentine Republic stole away to Chicago and married Blossom Law, daughter of Dr. A. R. Law of this city. Lopez was sent here by his government to study American scientific methods of agriculture.

Olive Raisers Worried Free Importations.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The directors of the California Wine Association, in their annual report, to be submitted at the annual meeting of the stockholders tomorrow, will show that the assets amount to $7,993,998, which $2,146,282 represents the value of the wines on hand, as inventoried, $4,102,222 in stocks of other companies and $97,586 in cash in banks.

The liabilities include capital stock of $4,254,300; surplus of $320,000, bonds issued amounting to $1,485,000. Announcements will be made to the stockholders that it is the intention of the directors to resume the payment of dividends at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, making a quarterly distribution, beginning in April. It will be reported also that the profits for 1907, will help to regain trade in many districts which, during the existence of the emergency price lists, issued after the April fire, were invaded by cheap wines from manufacturers in the Eastern States.

OLIVE GROWERS WORRIED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The question whether black olives in brine are entitled to free entry into the United States is agitating the olive growers of California.

The Collector of Customs at the port of New York has affixed a duty of 5 cents a gallon on these goods. The Board of General Appraisers set aside the ruling of the collector, and decided that the olives were entitled to free entry.

The California olive growers have sent telegrams to the members of the California delegation in Congress appealing to them that active steps be taken to sustain the collector at New York.

They have been advised to send special counsel to Washington to present their case. Pending the final decision of the appeal, the duty assessed by the government continues to be levied until the case shall have finally been disposed of.

PRISON OFFICIALS SUMMONED.

FACE JUTE-BAG CHARGES.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Officials of San Quentin prison, including Secretary Oliver of the Board of Prison Directors, have been summoned to appear at Sacramento tomorrow concerning the jute tariff at the prison.

It has been charged that the prison authorities sold jute bags to speculators instead of to the farmers, and that the latter were obliged to pay the high prices demanded by the speculators.

The officials state that the bags are furnished to farmers upon affidavits and given out in the orders that the orders were received. Secretary Oliver explained that the jute mill turns out but 5,000,000 bags each year, whereas the consumption during a year amounts to between 15,000,000 and 40,000,000 bags.

The legislators recently made a trip to San Quentin to investigate the charges made against the institution.

Derelict Is Sighted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The steamer City of Topeka, which arrived here early this morning, having passed on February 26, between the Coquille River and Cape Blanco a gasoline vessel bottom up, with rudder and propeller both attached. Several empty gasoline tanks were also passed.

New School of Musketry.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—California will have the first school of musketry to be established in the United States. Gen. Arthur MacArthur, through authority received from the War Department is the inaugurator of the plan, and will institute the school at the Presidio of Monterey. The quarters and buildings now occupied at that post by the Fourteenth Cavalry will be used for the school, which is to be opened in April.

Launch Hits Another.

ANTIOCH, Feb. 28.—A launch occupied by W. H. Meek, its owner, his engineer, and Deputy United States Surveyor C. F. Webster, was run into and sunk by the launch Gwendolin last night near Guttman's Landing. Those on board were rescued.

Collins Not in Danger.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The physicians called in to testify as to the physical condition of George D. Collins stated to Judge Hebbard this morning that they believe that Collins is in no immediate danger of shortening his days through confinement. The petition for release from the prison cell on bail was therefore denied.

Walker Again Located.

PORTLAND (Or.) Feb. 28.—The Evening Telegram will say today that William F. Walker, the missing bank cashier of New Brighton, Pa., has been located at Ogden, Ut., and that a Pinkerton detective has gone to that place to arrest him. Walker is suspected of having taken $250,000 of securities from a New Brighton bank. Most of the money was lost in wild speculations on the stock market. Walker, under the name of W. D. Sether, registered at the Portland Hotel in this city, February 17.

Think Palma Bribed Congress With Cuban Bonds to Declare War on Spain.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

MADRID, Feb. 28.—A sensation has been caused here by the publication of a story credited to the Diario de la Marina of Havana, which purports to show by documentary evidence that the United States Congress was bought in 1897 by Thomas Estrada Palma, to insure war being declared against Spain. According to the Havana newspaper, bonds to the value of $37,000,000, redeemable when Cuba should become independent, were issued in Washington to Senators and a contract exists which contains phraseology like that of the joint resolution of April, 1898, voted by Congress. The article says, further, that the value of the bonds fell heavily in 1899, and, therefore, a new contract was made between Palma and the American Senators. Count Salazar, Minister of Foreign Affairs, has telegraphed to the Spanish representative at Washington for the fullest information.

Olive Raisers Worried Over Free Importations.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The directors of the California Wine Association, in their annual report, to be submitted at the annual meeting of the stockholders tomorrow, will show that the assets amount to $7,902,598, of which $3,146,282 represents the value of the wines on hand, as inventoried; $4,162,222 in stocks of other companies and $97,586 in cash in banks.

The liabilities include capital stock of $4,354,500; surplus of $520,098, and bonds issued amounting to $1,485,000.

Announcements will be made to the stockholders that it is the intention of the directors to resume the payment of dividends at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, making a quarterly distribution, beginning in April.

It will be reported also that the price list that went into effect January 1, 1907, will help to regain trade in markets which, during the existence of emergency price lists issued after the April fire, were invaded by cheap wines from manufacturers in the Eastern States.

OLIVE GROWERS WORRIED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—The question whether black olives in brine are entitled to free entry into the United States is agitating the olive growers of California.

The Collector of Customs at the port of New York has affixed a duty of 15 cents a gallon on these goods. The Board of General Appraisers set aside the ruling of the collector, and decided that the olives were entitled to free entry.

The California olive growers have sent telegrams to the members of the California delegation in Congress appealing to them that active steps be taken to sustain the collector at New York.

They have been advised to send special counsel to Washington to present their case. Pending the final decision of the appeal, the duty assessed by the government continues to be levied until the case shall have finally been disposed of.

PRISON OFFICIALS SUMMONED.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 28.—Officials of San Quentin prison, including Secretary Oliver of the Board of Prison Directors, have been summoned to appear at Sacramento tomorrow concerning the jute mill at the prison.

It has been charged that the prison authorities sold jute bags to speculators instead of to the farmers, and that the latter were obliged to pay the high prices demanded by the speculators.

The officials state that the bags are furnished to farmers upon affidavits and upon the orders that the orders are received. Secretary Oliver expects that the jute mill turns out 35,000,000 bags each year, whereas, the consumption during a year amounts to between 15,000,000 and 40,000,000 bags.

The legislators recently made a trip to San Quentin to investigate the charges made against the institution.

Peck, the missing bank cashier of Mountain View, Cal., has been located at Ontario, and that a Pinkerton detective will go to that place to arrest him. Sether, registered at the Imperial Hotel in this city, February 15.

BILLIARDS HUG CANARD.

Japan Bribed Congress With Bonds to Declare War on Spain.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—A sensation has been caused here by the publication of an article in the Diario de la Marina of Havana, which purports to be a documentary evidence that the United States Congress was bribed by Thomas Estrada Palma to declare war being declared against Spain. According to the Havana paper, bonds to the value of $50,000,000, redeemable when Cuba should be independent, were issued by Washington to Senators and Representatives, which contains phraseology of the joint resolution which was adopted by Congress. The article says further, that the value of the bonds fell heavily in 1899, and, between Palma and the American Secretary of State, Bacon, a new contract was made and the American Foreign Affairs, Manuel Salmazar, Minister of Spanish affairs, has telegraphed to Spain, the representative at Washington for the latest information.

HERR GROBBEN'S CHARGES.

BERLIN, Feb. 28.—During the discussion on the budget in the Reichstag today Herr Grobben, Center Party leader, charged that the National Liberals had given money to certain parties in the United States for funds to be used in the election agitation in Germany, "to combat the Center and Social Democrats as the secret and avowed enemies of the Emperor and the empire."

SIMS SHADOWED BY "OCTOPUS."

STANDARD OIL DETECTIVES DECLARED TO BE SCOUTING.

Information Creates Sensation in Office of United States District Attorney at Washington—Secret Service Department Confirms Suspicions—Conference Held.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—Information that detectives said to be in the employ of the Standard Oil Company have been shadowing the movements of the United States District Attorney's office force has created a sensation in connection with the Federal investigation of the Standard's methods.

The fact that the discovery occurred so close to the opening of the trial, which was scheduled to begin next Monday, March 4, stirred the Federal officials to vigorous action.

United Stattts Dist.-Atty. Sims immediately reported the matter to the Secret Service Department with the result that his suspicions practically were confirmed.

Capt. Porter in charge of the local bureau of the secret service, made a report to Sims which demonstrated that a mysterious surveillance of the actions of his subordinates had been in progress for a long time.

Those employés in Sims's office who have been connected with the Standard Oil cases have been especially subjected to surveillance. The shadowing has gone on night and day.

Sims refused to say positively that the men under suspicion are employés of the Standard Oil Company, although he said the circumstances warranted a conference today with Chief John E. Wilkie, head of the government Secret Service Department.

JAPANESE LOAN IS UNDECIDED.

MIKADO'S AGENT FINDS TROUBLE TO GET FOUR PER CENT.

London Fixes Hard Conditions and Then Paris and Berlin Make It Still More Difficult so That Issue of Five Per Cent. Is Now Considered as Possible.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PARIS, Feb. 28.—The question of the big Japanese loan is still undecided. It is learned authoritatively that the situation is substantially as follows:

M. Takahashi, the Japanese finance agent, was sent from London to Paris to float $125,000,000 in 4 per cents., being the remainder of the $250,000,000 loan contemplated at the close of the war in 1905 for refunding operations and of which, for various reasons, only one-half was then issued. M. Takahashi found the London financiers to be too exacting, owing to the money stringency, and not disposed to pay more than the current quotation of imperial 4s, about 88.

The Paris and Brussels brokers were more exacting, and the terms brought forward the question if it would not be better to issue fives at par for refunding the sixes. No decision has yet been reached. Competent Japanese sources insist that there has been no check in the negotiations here, but rather the contrary.

CLERK WEDS HEIRESS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. JOSEPH (Mo.) Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Miss Bernice Wyeth and Alexander Ramsey Furness were married here last night. The wedding was a very elaborate affair. The splendid Wyeth mansion was profusely decorated and a supper was served after the ceremony, which was followed by a large reception. The bride is a grand-daughter of the late William M. Wyeth, founder of the Wyeth Hardware and Manufacturing Company, of St. Joseph and is a niece of Hueston Wyeth, present head of that institution. Her grandfather left her a vast fortune in her own right which she came into possession of a short time ago and she will inherit a fortune from her grandmother. Miss Wyeth is reputed St. Joseph's richest girl and is a young woman of exceptional beauty and attainments. It is estimated that Miss Wyeth's fortune is from two to three million dollars. Mr. Furness came to St. Joseph from St. Paul, a few months ago, and is employed as a clerk in the offices of the Chicago Great Western railroad here. His parents live in St. Paul.

SEQUESTRATION ORDERED.

ROME, Feb. 28.—The government has ordered the sequestration of the rest of the paintings by Van Dyke at Genoa, several of which were sold to J. P. Morgan recently by the family of the Marquis of Cattaneo, in order to prevent their sale aboard. The comment is made that Morgan has secured a good bargain in the canvasses he acquired.

CHALLENGED TO DUEL.

PARIS, Feb. 28.—Deputy Gasparin has challenged Deputy Carnaud to fight a duel as a result of an incident in the Chamber of Deputies today during which M. Carnaud charged Gasparin with the grossest corruption during his electoral campaign and that he instigated an attempt to assassinate his opponent. The election of M. Gasparin has been confirmed by the chamber.

BROTHER GOES ON THE STAND.

James Strother Tells Jurors of Sister's Wrongs.

Details of Tragedy and Girl's Pathetic Betrayal.

Mother's Deathbed Admonition a Sad Interlude.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CULPEPPER (Va.) Feb. 28.—The expected story from the lips of the defense in the trial of James and Philip Strother, charged with the murder of William Bywaters, their brother-in-law, last December, was the center of interest in today's developments in that case.

Mrs. Bywaters, who lay ill in bed when the shooting occurred, in her pathetic story upon the stand yesterday, said her recollection of the events connected with the tragedy was hazy. Mrs. Gaines, her sister, testified that she saw Philip fire the first shot at Bywaters, which statement Philip Strother has already corroborated.

Mrs. Bywaters has sworn that her betrayal was under promise of marriage, that she pleaded with Bywaters to make honorable reparation, and she has told the story of their trips to Washington for the criminal operation, which she dreaded, his indifferent treatment of her, the forced marriage, his attempted flight, and, in a general way, the shooting that followed.

Soon after court opened today, James A. Strother, one of the defendants, was called as a witness.

He was permitted to tell the story of his sister's wrongs. Although at times visibly affected by the strain under which he has labored since Bywater was killed, he told of the relations between the dead man and his sister in a straightforward manner.

Bywaters agreed to marry Viola, witness said, when told that he must do so after her condition became known to the family, but after the ceremony Bywaters became indifferent to Viola. He grew abusive when a demand was made that he remain with Viola on the night of the tragedy.

Witness detailed the quarrel between Mrs. Gaines, her husband, and Bywater, in which Bywaters insisted that he must go to Culpepper that night. Bywaters left them, going to Viola's room.

"I told him that we intended to watch him to see that he did not get away. He sprang from Viola's side, tearing himself from her arms, and made a dash for the rear door.

"What happened then?" asked the prosecutor.

"The next thing I heard was a shot. Phillip fired at Bywaters as he ran down the stairs."

"Did you fire on him while he was in the bedroom?"

"My recollection is that we fired just as he climbed out of the window. We did not fire until we knew he had gotten out of the window."

A pathetic interlude in the testimony came when the defendant, after completing his story of the tragedy, told of his mother's admonition to him on her death bed, "always to protect our girls from harm."

FRENZIED FIEND MURDERS FOUR.

RICH, AGED LIBERTINE MADDENED BY PUBLICITY.

Was Accused of Seducing His Fourteen-Year-Old Niece, Shoots Girl, Her Mother and Two Other Witnesses—All Are Slain in Cold Blood—Assassin Is Captured.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

BLOOMINGTON (Ill.) Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] As foul a crime as ever stirred Central Illinois was the revolting quadruple murder at noon today, by Thomas Baldwin, a wealthy business man of Colfax, eastern McLean county, of Cora Eiseman, a 14-year-old niece, who was a victim of his criminal attack last fall; her mother, Mrs. Simeon Eiseman, and Charles Kennedy, a young farmer, and his wife.

Baldwin, who is 68 years of age, was maddened by the publicity given the attack he made upon his niece last fall.

Baldwin, who had heretofore led an exemplary life, was indicted by the last grand jury on a charge of rape. Mrs. Eiseman and the girl's father, and the Kennedys, were witnesses before the grand jury.

Baldwin came into the Circuit Court last week and gave bond in the sum of $2000 for his appearance when his case was called for trial.

This morning he evidently determined to be revenged upon everybody connected with his prosecution, for he drove from Colfax to Arrowsmith in a buggy, and went to the homes of his victims.

At the Kennedy home he blew the brains out of the Kennedys. He expected to find the Eiseman girl there, in all probability, as she had been staying some of the time with the Kennedy's, who are relatives; but as she was not there, he first killed the young couple and then went to the Eiseman home, where he shot down the 14-year-old girl, whom he is charged with having ruined.

The manner in which the Eisemans were killed reveal a most revolting story of villainy. Baldwin went to the Eiseman house, and the mother and Cora and the other children saw him coming. They locked the door, fearing trouble. Mrs. Eiseman finally persuaded her children that it would be more polite to open the door. She believed that she could pacify Baldwin, and invited him to enter.

As soon as the door was opened Baldwin told Mrs. Eiseman that if she moved he would kill her on the spot.

Fearing that he would shoot anyway, the mother and daughters started to run. Calling with curses for them to stop, Baldwin started in pursuit like a veritable fiend. He overtook the mother and planted two bullets in her breast. She dropped dead.

Next, with pistols in his hands still smoking, Baldwin started after Cora Eiseman, the girl who swore he had seduced her. She cried for mercy, but there was no response.

Still in a mad rage, he leveled his revolver, and the girl fell dead. She was crawling through a hedge in her efforts to escape to the neighbors when Baldwin fired the fatal shot, and died while trying to force a passageway through the thorny obstruction.

The other daughter, who witnessed the awful affair, was apparently overlooked. Baldwin made no effort to escape. He was soon in the custody of a county deputy sheriff, and was brought to the County Jail this afternoon.

An enormous crowd assembled at the jail here when he was brought in. No demonstration was made, however. The jail is heavily guarded tonight.

When Baldwin's lawyer called upon his client in the jail tonight the old man appeared dazed. He replied when asked about the crime that he did not commit it. The defense will be insanity, as his actions have been irrational and irresponsible at times.

PARIS MUCH ALARMED.

CRIME EPIDEMIC SPREADS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

PARIS, Feb. 28.—The general feeling of alarm created by the increase of crime in France was reëchoed in the Chamber of Deputies today by an interpolation of the government on the insecurity of life in Paris and in the country. All along the Belgian frontier a regular band of bandits has been robbing and murdering for two years, and their depredations continue in spite of the fact that the police early in February succeeded in arresting the ringleaders.

During the two years this gang committed thousands of robberies and murders. The streets of Paris, especially in the Montmarte district, are terrorized by "Apaches," as they are called, and are no longer safe for pedestrians. The newspapers for weeks past have been filled with stories of the robberies and murders, the victims being struck down with knives.

M. Cochin, Liberal, declared that in many sections of the country the gendarmes were unable to cope with the brigands and the inhabitants are arming themselves for self-protection.

THIEF OFFERS COMPROMISE.

SUGGEST 40 PER CENT. BASIS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GALVESTON (Tex.) Feb. 28.—Edward A. Busch, president of the Exporting Company of Galveston, who swindled some twenty-odd firms in Liverpool, Hamburg, Bremen and Havre by forged bills of lading, has been heard from through a friend. He offers to settle on a 40 per cent. basis. The amount received from the drafts attached to the forged bills is believed to aggregate nearly $200,000.

The contention is advanced that prosecutions would have to be made in this country, and the victims would save by compromising. The law does not hold the local bank for having accepted forged bills and collecting the drafts. The foreign victims are trying to hold the local banks responsible for having accepted bills of lading without verifying the steamship agents' signature.

Busch, who lost a fortune in oil speculation, has been engaged in the exporting trade for several years, but recently lost heavily through gambling in futures. He is believed to be in Southern Mexico.

CRIME BRIEFS.

Policemen Must Answer.

SAN JOSE, Feb. 28.—Policeman D. P. Narvaez was held to answer this afternoon by Justice of the Peace Davisson on the charge of having bought votes. There was but one witness against him. The second charge of vote-buying in the case of Charles Alva was dismissed.

Gun Man Gets Shot.

BENSON (Ariz.) Feb. 28.—J. A. Tracey, manager of the Helvitis Mining Company at Vail, was fatally shot here this morning at 9:07 o'clock by Lieut. Harry Wheeler, a ranger, as he was pulling a gun on D. W. Silverton and wife. Wheeler arrested him, when Tracey shot at Wheeler, hitting him twice. Wheeler drew his gun and fatally shot Tracey, who died at Mescal on the way to the Tucson Hospital.

Vagrant May Be Convict.

LEAVENWORTH (Kan.) Feb. 28.—A man under arrest in Portland, Or., under the name of Charles Winters, for vagrancy, is believed to be James Seymour, one of the most noted criminals in the country, who escaped from the penitentiary here in the mutiny of November 7, 1901, when several officers were shot and a dozen prisoners got away.

Soldiers Under Arrest.

SALT LAKE, Feb. 28.—Ralph Ord, James I. Lynch, Robert R. Jantis and E. N. Bienevnue, privates of the Twenty-ninth Infantry, U. S. A., were arrested at Fort Douglas today charged with beating and robbing a citizen in the outskirts of the city last night. Capt. Wells of the Twenty-ninth Infantry, gave the police a list of the soldiers who were absent from the post last night and aided them in their search.

Free Fight Fatal.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—One man is dead, others have serious bullet wounds and three men are under arrest as a result of a "free fight" in a Third-avenue saloon today. Michael Gallo, the dead man, is said by the police to have been prominent in the "Black Hand" society, and their theory is that his murder was in the nature of an act of reprisal for a breach of confidence on his part. The men under arrest are Louis Indorf, the bartender in the saloon; Louis Zimmerman, a contractor, and Lorenzo Condessa, who lives in the vicinity of the saloon. Indorf and Zimmerman are wounded.

SACRAMENTO.

BERKELEY WINS FIRST ROUND.

Senate Passes the Capital Removal Bill.

Measure Programmed to Win in the Assembly.

People Must Finally Decide the Question.

BY B. FRANK GREAVES.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In the swiftest campaign on record Berkeley has won first blood in its fight to move the State Capitol from Sacramento to the university town. By a vote of 26 to 9 this afternoon the Senate agreed to submit the proposal to the people at the next general election. The bill undoubtedly will carry in the Assembly. It is programmed to go through, and the holders of the programme concessions haven't missed anything yet.

Two weeks ago the removal plan was unknown outside of Berkeley, and within only a small circle there. Of a sudden it was flashed on the Legislature. In another day, one week ago, Senator Lukens of Alameda county introduced a bill in the Senate paving the way for the change. On the following day the legislators were whirled to Berkeley on a special train to view the forty-acre site offered by the Berkeley realty syndicate, and now, under a rush order, the bill has gone through the upper house with hardly a hitch.

Whether or not removal of the seat of government to Berkeley shall be worth the cost will be for the voters to decide. The expense would be several million dollars for new buildings. Berkeley, Oakland and other cities of the bay counties already are preparing for a campaign of education, in which they hope to show that the State will benefit by the move.

LUKENS GIVES REASONS.

Senator Lukens opened the debate for removal by presenting the claims of Berkeley as the point most accessible to 90 per cent. of the population of the State, and reached by 50 per cent. of the population on a 5 or 10-cent fare. He declared the public business of Alameda county had increased 10 per cent. since the April disaster.

"The project for removal of the capital from Sacramento has been matured during at least four sessions of the Legislature," he said; "various cities have made bids in that time. Berkeley comes now, not as a half-baked city of mushroom growth, but as an energetic body of 40,000 souls, ready to exert itself in every way to prove itself worthy as the seat of government of the State. It offers a magnificent site of forty broad acres in the beautiful Berkeley hills, commanding an inspiring view of the Golden Gate.

NOT AN ASSET.

"We are not proposing to take from Sacramento what the merchants consider a substantial business asset. Some of them say it would be a benefit to trade to have the capital at some other point."

Senator Sanford of Ukiah looked upon the proposal as a huge joke. He read what purported to be a telegram from the Chamber of Commerce of Ukiah, offering 1000 acres on top of the Coast Range, sufficient to afford a commodious playground for "overworked attaches." Twenty-three dollars had been raised to further the project, he said. Sanford also offered a substitute for the Lukens bill, providing that the State appropriate $200,000 for the "purchase of a big automobile to be trundled around from place to place at the will of disgruntled politicians and real estate speculators, and to be known as the State Capitol."

BELSHAW OPPOSED IT.

Senator Belshaw of Contra Costa made the principal argument against removal.

"The only thing behind this movement," said Belshaw, "is a real estate boom for Berkeley. This gentleman, who is engineering the scheme, is exceedingly clever, and if he can get the Legislature to help him, he will be able to sell a large number of his lots at Berkeley. There is not one argument why the Capitol should be removed. We have an excellent building, now undergoing improvements at great expense; we have beautiful grounds, and probably the grandest collection of rare trees in Capitol Park that were ever gathered together. These trees alone are the marvel of travelers from all over the world. It would take forty or fifty years to produce their equal at Berkeley, or any other place.

"It will require four or five years to construct a building that will compare with the present State Capitol, one of the best of its kind in the country. It cannot be reproduced for three or four times what it cost originally. It will cost $10,000,000 or $15,000,000 to create a seat of government as comfortable as the one we now have.

"I am not for keeping the Capitol in Sacramento, because Sacramento wants it, but because it is here, and for the fifty years it has been here it has met every need."

SUNSHINE VS. FOG.

Here Senator Willis of sunny San Bernardino, made his advent, rushing in where others had feared to tread. As a disciple of sunshine and ozone, he charged full tilt into the celebrated Sacramento tule fog, which works overtime during legislative sessions. "For fifty-five days, he said, he had not seen the sun. He was in doubt as to where it rises of a morning, except that it is somewhere behind Redmen's Hall. But that was only hearsay.

"What is the good of a beautiful Capitol in the park, surrounded by these grand trees, if you never can see it through the fog?" he queried. "Why, I even have to blindfold myself when I take a bath," he continued, taking a slam at the yellowish-brown water of the Sacramento River. Then "the lithe young sycamore of Lytle Creek Cañon" indulged in a rhapsody on the inspiration that would come to the lawmakers, amidst the classic surroundings and in the invigorating climate of Berkeley, where, as a student, he lived for several years.

Senator McKee of Sacramento set forth figures in support of the claims of his city, and as a main argument against placing a new Capitol building on the Berkeley hills, fronting Golden Gate, he said it would be subject to bombardment of hostile foes from abroad, who might sail their war vessels right up to the door and level the structure with a few well-directed shots.

Senator Leavitt of Oakland made the closing appeal in favor of removal, saying that no one but Senator Belshaw believed the project was that of real estate boomers. After more than two hours of argument the vote was taken. The nine negative votes were cast by Senators Bell, Belshaw, Boynton, Caminetti, Curtin, McKee, Rush, Sanford and Welch.

A LOOK AHEAD.

Should the question finally reach the people, as it probably will, and be decided in favor of removal, there is speculation as to how the State officials and the Legislature will be accommodated at Berkeley pending the construction of a new Capitol.

The election will be in November and provision is made that the seat of government shall be changed in the following January. Sacramento no longer would be the capital, yet no quarters would be available at Berkeley, wherefore the State for a time, it is declared, would have no place to lay its head. Capitol buildings of the marble and granite type do not spring up in a night. Berkeley has not even a Bermen's wigwam that would afford temporary shelter.

But this is a long look ahead.

SENATE PASSES COUNTY BILL.

PRESERVES RIGHTS EXISTING.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Broughton's County Division Bill passed the Senate tonight in a form that is said to be satisfactory to the people of San Bernardino and Los Angeles counties, who are concerned in the proposal to establish the new county of San Antonio.

As passed, the bill requires that a new county shall have a population of at least 6000; that no old county shall be left with a population numbering less than 25,000; that the area of no old county shall be reduced below 1200 square miles; that 50 per cent. of the voters in a district contiguous to the outside boundaries of the proposed new county may be excluded from such county on petition and that the boundaries of the new county shall be at least five miles from the limits of an existing county seat. Several amendments have been made to the companion bill that now is in the Assembly, one providing that separate petitions for a new county must be presented when the territory affected includes an incorporated city.

Another amendment strikes out the provision that the proposed new county shall have a population of 6000 before petitions for exclusion of any territory can be given consideration.

The Assembly amendments will make the bill all the more acceptable to the people of the Glendora-Azusa-Covina section, who desire to remain within the limits of Los Angeles county.

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE

THIRTY-SEVENTH SESSION.
[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—Gov. Gillett affixed his official signature to the following bills:

Senate bill No. 522—Regulating the practice of optometry significance.

The lower house of the Legislature today passed a sweeping anti-Japanese and anti-Chinese measure introduced by Assemblyman Drew of Fresno.

The bill is known as the "Anti-Alien Property-Holding Bill." It is aimed at the Japanese and Chinese property owners in this State and is intended to prevent them from acquiring and owning property for a longer period than five years. In urging the passage of the bill, Drew stated that since January 1 of this year one-third of the property transfers in Fresno had been to Japanese.

The bill provides that any alien who does not become a citizen of the United States shall acquire and hold title to lands in this State for not more than five years. If, within that time, the alien does not become a citizen, the District-Attorney shall compel the sale of his lands or houses. Japanese and Chinese are not specifically named, but as they cannot become citizens the bill is aimed directly at them and precludes them from owning property for more than five years. The measure also provides that no contract, agreement or lease of real estate for longer than a period of one year shall be made to any alien and any lease, agreement or devise of real estate made to any alien for a longer period shall be null and void.

The impression is given out that if the bill reaches the Governor he will sign it.

GOVERNOR MAY VETO SAVAGE'S WAGE BILL.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Unless some argument can be presented, stronger than yet has been urged, Gov. Gillett will veto the Savage Bill, which provides for a minimum wage of $3 a day, for laborers on public works. The bill has passed both houses and now is before the Governor for his signature or veto. He will hold a hearing tomorrow at which he will listen to the arguments of the union labor lobbyists, which supported the measure, and to those of the sober business men of the State, who are opposed to the arbitrary increase in the compensation of laborers, irrespective of the condition of the labor market.

When seen tonight by The Times correspondent, Gov. Gillett declined to say what action he would take in connection with the bill. He said he would reserve his decision until he could hear the arguments for and against the measure. It is known, however, that the Governor is opposed to the enactment of a law that will fix the wages of laborers or any other class of workmen; a matter that depends solely upon supply and demand and with which the State has nothing to do.

As for any threats that any labor union agitators many make, it is known that the Governor has no concern. This is not to be wondered at, from a political standpoint, at least, for the laborites combined with the Democrats at the recent election to defeat the Republican candidate, and he owes them no debt. The veto, if it be returned, will be based on higher grounds than politics.

PASS BILL FOR SEATTLE FAIR.

Senate Grants Alaska-Yukon Appropriation.

Several Solons Speak Against the Exposition.

Spooner, Piles and Depew Favor the Project.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—A bill appropriating $700,000 in aid of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition to be held at Seattle in 1909 was passed by the Senate today.

Speeches in opposition were made by Senators Hale and Lodge, and in support by Senators Piles, Depew and Spooner.

Hale expressed the opinion that the country had had enough of expositions, saying that New York, San Francisco and Tampa are all preparing for expositions in the future.

Lodge declared that it "looks as if we might drift into the practice of having each year a general exposition bill to distribute expositions all over the country, just as we have a river and harbor bill."

Piles argued for the Seattle exposition as necessary for exhibiting the resources of Alaska, and Spooner took the position that the proposed exposition would assist materially in affording the people of the United States desirable knowledge concerning the inhabitants and the institutions of the Philippines.

In opposition to the bill, Senator Clay said that the United States had already expended $38,000,000 in aid of expositions. The bill passed without division.

HOUGH'S STORY AIDS DEFENSE.

IMPORTANT FACT ELICITED UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION.

Former Private Secretary to Ex-Land Office Commissioner Hermann Tells of Finding Personal Press-letter Copy Books in Desk of Previous Clerk.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—On cross-examination today Elliott P. Hough, formerly private secretary to Commissioner Hermann, when he was Commissioner of the General Land Office, and who is now on trial for the alleged destruction of public records, Counsel Worthington succeeded in establishing a very important fact for the defense.

Hough testified that when he became private secretary to Commissioner La Moreaux he found in the private secretary's desk personal press-letter copy books of the previous commissioner, Thomas K. Carter.

He said that by direction of some superior officer he sent the books to Carter by mail. Hough said he could not remember who gave him the order to send the books to Carter, but the order must have come from either the commissioner, the assistant commissioner or the chief clerk, who were his superiors in office.

The examination of Hough was finally concluded during the afternoon and C. A. Muller, a messenger in the general office, was called.

For the first time since the trial began, the actual discussion of the copy books came before the jury, Muller stating that the order to destroy the fourteen volumes had been given to him personally by Commissioner Hermann about three weeks before the latter left the office.

According to instructions, witness said, he and another messenger tore out the leaves of the books and returned the backs with stubs attached, to the commissioner's office. Subsequently these, too, were destroyed, he said.

HENEY'S BERTH UNLIKELY.

JUDGESHIP IS UNCONSIDERED.
[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The report that Francis J. Heney is to be appointed additional district judge for the Northern District of California is not credited here. The President has not yet considered the judgeship, as the bill creating it has not yet passed. Several applicants for the place have made their wishes known, and indorsements have come in liberally. W. C. Van Fleet is the most strongly indorsed for the place, and if the bill passes at this session, Senators Perkins and Flint will recommend Van Fleet and try to have his name sent to the Senate for confirmation by March 4. It was said at the White House today that the name of Mr. Heney had never been mentioned in connection with the judgeship.

The judgeship bill will be crowded through the House some time this week, according to an assurance given by Speaker Cannon to the Californians.

A DIFFERENCE

It Paid This Man to Change Food.

"What is called 'good living' eventually brought me to a condition quite the reverse of good health," writes a New York merchant.

"Improper eating told on me till my stomach became so weak that food nauseated me, even the lightest and simplest lunch, and I was much depressed after a night of uneasy slumber, unfitting me for business.

"This condition was discouraging, as I could find no way to improve it. Then I saw the advertisement of Grape-Nuts food, and decided to try it, and became delighted with the result.

"For the past three years I have used Grape-Nuts and nothing else for my breakfast and for lunch before retiring. It speedily set my stomach right and I congratulate myself that I have regained my health. There is no greater comfort for a tired man than a lunch of Grape-Nuts. It insures restful sleep and an awakening in the morning with a feeling of buoyant courage and hopefulness.

"Grape-Nuts has been a boon to my whole family. It has made of our two-year-old boy, who used to be unable to digest much of anything, a robust, healthy little rascal, weighing 32 pounds. Mankind certainly owes a debt of gratitude to the expert who invented this perfect food." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. "There's a reason."

New York Republican Leaders of Assembly Support Measure for Recount of Mayoralty Vote.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

ALBANY (N. Y.) Feb. 28.—As a result of a conference between Chairman Mead of the Judiciary Committee and other Republican leaders of the Assembly the Prentice bill for a recount of New York City's Mayoralty vote of 1905 will be favorably reported next Wednesday morning.

This will probably be surprising alike to the Hearst interests and to Mayor McClellan. Neither side has been consulted in connection with the plan to get the bill out of committee and the Republican leaders have decided, in view of Gov. Hughes's recommendation that it should be passed, and they are going to put it through in quick time.

This measure was introduced by Assemblyman Prentice on January 3 and since that time it has been slumbering in the Assembly Judiciary Committee without a request having been made by either side for a hearing. A majority of the committee are opposed to the bill, but they will yield to the Governor's recommendation.

RAILROADS IN CONSTRUCTION.

Philippine Governor-General Reports Progress.

New Roads Rapidly Pushing to Completion.

Bradford Gets Control of a Line to Chicago.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The Bureau of Insular Affairs today made public a cablegram which has been received from the Governor-General of the Philippine Islands reporting the progress made in the construction of railways in the islands. It follows:

"The Philippine Railway Company, which is constructing roads in the Islands of Panay, Negros and Cebu, report surveys upon the Island of Panay, 90 per cent. completed; the Island of Negros line (location from Victorus south seventy miles) will be completed in approximately forty days; the Island of Cebu line is completed.

"Construction on the Island of Panay, grading from Iloilo to Pavia, seven miles, 70 per cent. completed, 600 men employed; on the Island of Negros, no grading; Island of Cebu, 4000 men grading on twenty miles, approximately one-third complete. They expect to complete the grading of this section May 1. All material in sight to complete twenty miles to Panay and twenty miles to Cebu except steel bridging.

"The Manila Railroad Company, which is constructing the roads on the Island of Luzon, reports river wharf for discharge of construction material, wharf derricks, and construction yard complete. Fill construction yard, 50 per cent. completed. Right of way forty kilometers arranged ready for occupation.

"A start has been made on grading a line from Dugupan to San Fabian, San Fernando and Union; and from San Fernando to Florida Blanca, and one belt link from Malila to Mariquina, Montalbon, grading 85 per cent. complete.

"The Cavite Port line is ready to commence grading. Surveys approximately 270 kilometers, final location complete. Plans presented to the Governor-General for approval for 43.2 kilometers. All contracts for material have been let."

YOAKUM NOT PESSIMISTIC.

CLAMOR CAN'T RETARD ROADS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—"I do not take such a gloomy view of the situation and prospects of this country as some of my railway friends do," said B. F. Yoakum, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Rock Island-Frisco system, who arrived here yesterday from New York.

"This country is too big and too powerful to be ruined," continued Mr. Yoakum. "It is bound to grow bigger and stronger, and the railways will grow with it. They will not be ruined by the agitation today over their operations and rates. It is unfortunate that this outburst of hostility toward the railways and adverse litigation should come just at a time when the railroads are confronted with the necessity of securing vast amounts of money in order to make the extensions and improvements necessary to the demands of the country for transportation facilities.

"The anti-railway agitation today will retard, but not stop, the development and improvement of the railroads. They will be obliged to expend just as much money as they can economically, in order to take care of the business now in sight for them. They cannot let their lines deteriorate or stop making improvements, for there is in sight today enough business to keep all the roads busy for a year at least.

"The improvements and extensions, however, will be limited by the ability of the railroads to secure men and money to do the work. Some of the larger plans for improvement of terminals and the construction of new lines has been deferred until general conditions return to a more normal state, but the railroads must go right along with the general policy of improving their facilities for doing more business."

BRADFORD GETS CONTROL.

NEW ENTRANCE TO CHICAGO.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Milwaukee says the compromise yesterday of a legal battle between J. P. Morgan and W. A. Bradford of Cincinnati, over the Great Central system's dissolution, means that the Wisconsin Central road will have a through line from St. Paul and Duluth to Cincinnati, via Chicago.

The agreement gives Bradford control of the Chicago, Cincinnati and Louisville. This makes it possible to get entrance to Chicago over the Wisconsin Central, which now enters Chicago over the Illinois Central tracks.

It was the plan to have the Wisconsin Central connect with the Chicago, Cincinnati and Louisville at Chicago but has been blocked by litigation over the Pere Marquette receivership, which involved the Chicago, Cincinnati and Louisville.

Bradford, before the beginning of the receivership, nearly had effected a deal by which he would enter Chicago over the Illinois Central tracks. The arrangement still is possible, as it is only necessary to build a few miles of track in Northern Indiana. Bradford, with other directors of the Chicago, Cincinnati and Louisville, controls the Wisconsin Central.

RELIEF FOR FAMINE.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The American National Red Cross forwarded by cable to China today $65,000 for the relief of the famine sufferers of that country. The entire remittance was remitted today from Dr. Louis Klopsch, editor and proprietor of the Christian Herald. The needs of the Chinese are set out in the following cable dispatch to the Christian Herald, New York, from the editors of the North China News:

"The distribution of relief to famine sufferers by the missionary committee with quarters at Chinkiang, is proceeding smoothly. It is realized, however, as only a drop in the ocean of need. The area of the affected district is enlarging as winter advances and destitution is longer drawn out. Daily the number of deaths is increasing, and in the interior are thousands of deaths that will never be reported.

"Authorities are sending many refugees back to the localities whence they came, promising individual relief. The trouble is so few have homes to which they can return, floods having destroyed houses as well as crops. Isolated riots are reported, but all are unimportant."

By an explosion of dynamite yesterday Rev. J. B. Little, his father, his wife and baby were killed and two children of the family were fatally injured at Carmi, Ill. Little, who was a Baptist minister, had the dynamite in his house, expecting to use the explosive in blowing out stumps. How the dynamite happened to be exploded is not known. The residence was destroyed.

FOOD POISONS

90 Per cent. of All Diseases the Result of Undigested Putrefying Foods.

Men of affairs, women of society and children with active brains are too often sedentary in their habits, giving little time to exercise. To this evil is added that of high and irregular living—as a result, the stomach cannot stand the demands made upon it. The abused and overtaxed stomach does not properly do the work of digestion, food taken in ferments and the poison permeates the whole system. The body loses in weight and becomes a prey for the attack of whatever disease it may encounter.

Did it ever occur to you how busy that stomach of yours is? It only holds three pints, but in one year you force it to take in 2400 pounds of material, digest it and prepare it for assimilation into the blood. No wonder it rebels when overworked. We crowd it with steaks and pastry, irritate its juices with spices and acids, and expect the stomach to do its work. It can't do it.

All over the inner layer of the stomach are glands which secrete the juices necessary to digestion. The entrance of food into the stomach is the signal for these glands to do their work. The more the food, and the more indigestible, the greater the demand upon them and upon the muscles of the wall adjoining.

Think of the tons of high-seasoned games, sweetmeats and appetizers crammed into this little four-ounce mill, and then wonder, if you will, why you are dizzy or nauseated or constipated. Don't blame your stomach or curse your fate that you should be born so unfortunate. Blame yourself and apply the remedy.

First, get a small package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, taking one after each meal and at bed time. They are not a medicine, but a digestive. Your stomach is worn out and needs help, not medicine. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do the work that the stomach fails to do. There's enough power in one grain of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to digest 3000 grains of ordinary food, so you needn't fear that anything you eat will remain in your stomach undigested.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will rout the poison because they remove the cause—food fermentation. They are nature's own cure for dyspepsia. The host of troubles dyspepsia is father of cannot be numbered, for a healthy stomach is the source of all health.

Sieze your opportunity before worse conditions confront you. Send today for a free trial package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. They will bring your stomach relief. F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich. The regular size for sale at your druggist's.

NEW YORK MEN REACH TOWN.

Sixteen Giant Ball Players Are With Us.

Bunch Looks Like the Real Umpire Baiters.

May Begin Work This Morning at Chutes Park.

Tired and dusty from their long trip across the continent, sixteen members of the New York National ball team arrived here last night, and in all probability will begin their spring practice this morning at Chutes Park. Mike Donlin, Frank Bowerman and Mullen were left behind at Chicago, owing to a dispute over salary, but from all accounts will not be missed.

Those in the party are Pitcher George Wiltse and wife, Center Fielder Cy Seymour and wife, Secretary Fred Knowles and wife, Catchers Roger Bresnahan and Mat Fitzgerald, Pitchers Christy and Hank Mathewson, Luther Taylor, Joe McGinnity, Cecil Ferguson and Leon Ames; First Baseman Dan McGann, Infielders Sam Strang, Tom Corcoran and John Hannifan, and Outfielders Frank Burke and George Brown, and Trainer Harry Tuthill. Third Baseman Devlin, Center Fielder Shannon and Manager Graw have been here for weeks.

In addition to these players there were Mark Roth of the New York Globe, "Bill" Edgren of the World, and Sam Crane of the Journal.

Every one in the party is in fine shape, barring the fatigue of riding on the cars for three or four days, and are naturally glad to get to their journey's end. There was no sickness on the trip, no accidents, and only a delay of two hours between here and Chicago.

By the way, this New York bunch looks like a package of butchers, for they are big and husky. What they couldn't do to an umpire or a lot of them, wouldn't be worth the trouble of thinking about, and any one of them appears able to bite a bulldog. It is small wonder they stood the trip well, for when you look at them you think they could bear up under anything but the loss of a meal.

They will probably be out for practice this morning at the Chutes grounds, but will not do very much until the car soreness is worked out of them. It is understood they will practice in this city for at least two weeks, and then may go north to San Francisco, playing Santa Barbara and San José en route.

BASEBALL TRADES.

HIGHLANDERS GET RICKEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—Manager Clark Griffith of the New York baseball club of the American League, carried out a deal with the St. Louis club yesterday by which Infielder Joe Yeager is traded to St. Louis for Branch Rickey, a young catcher, who did excellent work for St. Louis last season.

President John T. Brush of the New York National League baseball club, announced yesterday that Danny Shea, obtained from the St. Louis Nationals, has sent in his signed contract and will report to Manager McGraw at Los Angeles this week.

NEARING FINALS IN BASKETBALL.

PRESBYTERIAN GIRLS AFTER PRESIDENT'S CUP.

Occidental Students Hold Track Rally to Boost Spirits for Polytechnic High School Meet Next Saturday and Other Contests to Follow Later in the Season.

In the girls' basketball tournament series at Occidental, the first-year team defeated the third-year five, yesterday afternoon, and won the championship of the academy, by a score of 7 to 3.

The game between the freshmen and seniors for the championship of the college was not played yesterday, but was postponed until next Tuesday. It is likely that the senior-junior game, which was won by the upper class, will be played over again, as the juniors claim that one of the senior players was not a member of the class, and therefore not qualified to play. The winner of the college championship will meet the first-year team next Thursday for first honors of the institution and the president's cup.

The game yesterday afternoon was well played throughout, although the first-year girls were superior to their opponents in all departments. At the end of the first half the third-year team was on the short end of a 4 to 2 score. The fives played hard during the second half. The first-year score was increased by three points, but the third-year team was unable to add to its tallies.

Zola Stewart was the star of the game, and saved many goals from being thrown by her splendid defensive work. Florence Wilson played the best game for the third-year team, and scored the only field goal for her side. Yesterday's line-up:

First Year.		Third Year.
Helen Brooks	forward	Florence Wilson
Lettie Lawrence	forward	Fern Gordon
Lois Caskey	center	Marjorie Lowe
Zola Stewart	guard	Charlotte Donaldson
Louise Boal	guard	Mary Noyes

STUDENTS' RALLY.

Occidental held a big track rally yesterday noon, and the Presbyterians are going to make a strenuous effort to make good in the remaining meets of the season. President Baer and William Edwards, '00, were the principal speakers, and made a special plea for the second and third place men to get out and work hard.

The Presbyterians will meet Polytechnic High School, Saturday afternoon, on Occidental campus, and from the fact that the High School boys made a better showing against U.S.C. than did Occidental, the contest will be hard fought throughout.

Capt. Bird is rapidly rounding into form, after being laid up for two weeks, and he will run the 440-yard dash and relay race in the Polytechnic meet. Harry Hodge, who has been out of practice for several days, will compete also, although he will not enter more than two events.

Occidental has taken on a new lease of life since the meet with the Methodists, and the Presbyterians are full of determination to make the best possible showing against Pomona one week from tomorrow.

The Athletic Park at Occidental presents a busy scene every afternoon. In addition to the black-and-gold athletes, Los Angeles High School track team is practicing on the oval, and visiting track men from various parts of the country frequent the place to secure exercise.

"FOUR HUNDRED" IN DOG SOCIETY.

BENCH SHOW ENTRIES INCLUDE BEST SPECIMENS.

Anfield Model Said to Be the Best Collie in the World—Exhibitors After Championship Honors for Their Dogs—Patronesses Chosen from Society Circles.

Nearly 400 dogs are entered in the bench show to be given by the Southwestern Kennel Club this week. More than seventy collies and about fifty Boston terriers are included. Entry on English setters is without precedent, there being more than twenty. Pointers have held their average increase leading the English setters by one or two dogs. Twenty-six bull terriers are entered, 17 bull dogs, 16 Irish setters, 22 fox terriers and 15 Irish terriers. There are to be seven or eight teams of collies to compete; and there is to be a class of about thirty collies in the ring at one time.

Champion Anfield Model is entered for specials only and will contest with the local entry for several cups that he is eligible for. Anfield Model is quite what his name implies, and is born full of quality. For true collie expression he is without a compeer. A grand dog, he carries an enormous straight coat of the very best quality, and is a splendid mover. As a sire, he is marvelous, upward of eighty of his progeny being big winners, crowned by those eminent specimens, Champion Parbold Prunella, one of the best collie show bitches that ever entered a show ring, lately purchased at a long price by J. P. Morgan of New York, and Champion Parbold Peacock, Champion Southport Summit, and numerous other winners of championships in England.

Another famous collie that will be shown with the Valverde string is the famous stud, Southport Philosopher, but on this occasion he will not compete, but like Model will be shown for specials only.

In the winners' class there are four championship points to be gained and this is what most of the fanciers are after, as they wish to gain the title of champions for their dogs. The local exhibitors will go after it strong.

Arthur Letts is importing a new tri-color, which, although only fourteen months old, has taken several first prizes in England, and the cup for the best dog of any breed in the show at Halifax, England. He and Mr. Ellery's new American bred dog, Valverde Alexander, are expected to be the contestants for final honors in th winkers' class, but there may be some surprises, as several of the other exhibitors have been strengthening their kennels.

Patronesses for the show are: Mrs. Alfred Solano, Mrs. Adna R. Chaffee, Mrs. E. F. C. Klokke, Mrs. Jaro von Schmidt, Mrs. E. J. Marshall of Los Angeles; Mrs. Fred Wilcox, Miss Rovina Blossom and Mrs. John Cravens of Pasadena.

PONY RACING ENTRIES.

Opening Games and Races to Be Held Saturday by Coronado Country Club.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The grounds of the Coronado Country Club are being put in first-class condition for the opening game of the pony polo tournament, Saturday, when the Army team of Monterey and the Los Angeles team will play.

All of the 125 ponies to compete in the meet and races will arrive by tomorrow evening. The largest gathering of pony-polo enthusiasts ever assembled on the Pacific Coast is expected.

ASCOT RACING GOOD.

Jump Race Goes Through Without an Accident and Winner Is Long Shot Brennus.

The first steeplechase that the Ascot sports have seen for some weeks, went through yesterday without a mishap and was won by the long shot Brennus at 8 to 1. He was never in trouble and after jumping the Christmas trees cleanly all the way, won in a trot by ten lengths from the 10 to 1 horse Indian II., the favorite Lecimo being a bad third. Another "good thing" to win was old Freesias at 7 to 1 in the Brooks course event. Three favorites won and the sports broke very nicely on the day. John Brink's good horse Tartan won the free handicap easily from the favorite W. H. Carey, running the mile and one-quarter in 2:06½. Results:

GAMBLERS IN HARD LUCK.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

MEMPHIS (Tenn.) Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] For the first time in fifteen years proprietors of the local hand-book and pool rooms situated across the river from this city, were forced to an afternoon of idleness today.

The recently enacted Foust law prevented anything resembling a bet on horse racing, whether held in or out of this State. The signing of the Amis bill by the Acting Governor of Arkansas caused the closing of the pool rooms across the river, usually reached by boats.

GUS HARTMAN KNOCKED OUT.

'Frisco Malcontent's Fight Bill Is Dead.

Senate Refuses to Pass Boxing Legislation.

Game May Flourish for Two Years Yet.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator Gus Hartman of San Francisco, much-heralded champion of the Anti-Prize-Fight Bill, stepped jauntily into the ring at 11:50 o'clock this morning, ready for the bout for his bill that has been in a state of suspended animation since the opening of the session, nearly two months ago.

It was all over in a jiffy. They carried the Senator out on a shutter.

"I done the business I could," he gasped feebly when he came to.

The vote was 24 against, and only 11 for the bill that aimed to send the pugs out of the State.

There were thirty-five Senators in the chamber when Hartman called his bill for final passage.

"They said I didn't intend to press this bill," said Hartman, squaring off in his corner. Not being a man of many words he only added that he hoped every one would vote for his bill. Senator Wolfe of San Francisco opposed the measure.

"There is no demand for this bill in any portion of the State," said Wolfe. "In San Francisco all classes patronize boxing contests. Why, in Los Angeles, last December, the distinguished Senator Hartman accompanied me to the pavilion there, where we witnessed the O'Brien-Burns contest. There never was such a crowd of men in one pavilion before. The streets were almost impassable. I never saw a more orderly gathering. The only confusion was caused by the mass of people that clamored for admission, not an improper word was used.

"No necessity exists for putting on the statutes a law that will keep a large portion of our population from enjoying a clean sport. Enough safeguards are provided in the existing laws. Why should we drive this sport into Nevada or some equally boring State, when it can be conducted in a fair manner here?"

"Public opinion in Los Angeles is in favor of the sport as it is conducted," put in Senator McCartney of that city. "There is no criticism of the game nor of the man who runs it."

"Well, I'm in favor of the right kind of fights," retorted Hartman, who had gained his second wind, "but there is a fight trust in San Francisco and I want to break it up. They are not fair. Fights are decided several days before they are pulled off. The last Britt-Gans fight was a fake. They do not have square fights in San Francisco. They are a lot of bunco and shell game grafters. I want to cut it out for two years and teach them a lesson."

Then the Senators voted and it was all off with Gus and the anti-pug bill.

LEWIS BEATS PERRY.

CHICAGOAN BREAKS THUMB.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PUEBLO (Colo.) Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After Jim Perry of Chicago had fought four rounds with his right thumb broken, his seconds threw up the sponge early in the sixth round of what was scheduled to be a twenty-round bout with Harry Lewis, tonight.

As a result of the injury, Perry only played to stay as long as possible, and while he took a great deal of punishment, he covered up and kept Lewis from getting in the sleep-producing punch.

Mike Twin Sullivan was present, and announced that he was rematched with Lewis, and all that remained to be settled was a battle ground.

BALL PLAYERS NEEDED.

ALASKA CIRCUIT SHORT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Late mail from the North brings many inquiries regarding players for the Alaskan baseball teams. Among the Alaskan towns who will use semi-professional players during the coming championship season are Juneau, Douglas City, Skagway, White Horse and Fairbanks. Splendid salaries are to be paid, but long jumps make it impossible to play daily. The season will open on the Queen's birthday in May and teams will play as regularly as possible thereafter, the big tournament being held at Skagway, July 4, and the second ending at Juneau on Labor Day with all big teams competing. Juneau won the championship last season.

LAST CALL

This is your last chance to buy stock at $1 a share and share in the big profits that are going to be made by the Delaware & Lackawanna Steel Company, with a plant at Oxford, N. J., which controls a new process for making steel that reduces the cost exactly one-fifth over the methods now employed by other similar companies operating in the United States, and other countries for that matter.

Competent steel men, and old-time investors, say there is positively no limit whatever to the amount of dividends this company should pay the stockholders with such an extremely low capitalization of $200,000. As further evidence that the investing public appreciates its opportunity to get in on an enterprise with such extremely promising prospects, we have sold more than 30,000 shares of this stock in and around Los Angeles within the last 30 days and they have all been paid for in cash.

When we first took up the sale of these steel securities, we had only 4000 shares to sell. We disposed of these so readily that the company responded to our telegraph for more stock with an additional allotment of 30,000 shares, but with no particular length of time in which to sell them. We now have a trifle over 4000 of the last allotment left for sale at $1 each, but they will all have to be disposed of by March 1. On that date, or as near it as the company can now tell, the first wheel will be turned in the big foundry, and a day or two thereafter one of the big $20,000 steel converters will be at work making steel for which there is an ever increasing demand.

Have you ever bought stock of a company that was going to build a plant, or that was going to do this, or that, or something else, before the company paid dividends? Didn't you wait and wait, and maybe you are waiting yet, for the completion of the plant and the payment of dividends?

If you are tired of waiting, tired of living on promises, and want to get in on a substantial steel enterprise, the products for which there is a demand the world over, this is your chance.

The Delaware & Lackawanna Steel Company is composed of men who do things—men who haven't the time to sit around and make promises about what they are going to do, but who do things and let their friends or pleased stockholders tell about what they have done. When they get through with one thing they start on another. It might be truthfully said that not one minute's time has been lost by the officers and directors of this steel company from the time it was incorporated up until now, when the plant is almost ready for operation.

An immense foundry, machine shops, etc., situated on 4 1-3 acres of land, has been acquired at Oxford, N. J., only 71 miles from New York City and about 1-4 mile from some of the biggest iron mines in the world. Immediately thereafter, the contract was let, and a big force of men went immediately to work of preparing the plant for occupancy. Two immense $20,000 steel converters were ordered built. One of them has already been completed and is now installed in the company's plant ready for operation. The other will follow the first within a few days.

If you want in on something good, something quick, and something that is sure to be a money-earner from the start, this is your chance. We will continue to take orders of from 25 to 1000 shares to the extent of our remaining allotment of this stock up until the evening of March 1. After that date there will be no more for sale, at least not through our firm, at any price. If you are enabled to get any at all it will be through some private individual, who will undoubtedly ask a big bonus for the stock of a steel company that is at that date earning money.

Remember, now, this evening, March 1, is the last date on which you can buy this stock, and if you want in on this steel company you will have to wire, mail or bring your order in before tonight.

J. G. FLEENOR, confessed barefoot burglar guilty of over a hundred crimes, and the card with which he managed to get into many houses, and escape when discovered.

The thief known throughout the city as the "barefooted burglar," who has been operating for many months, and who has many times eluded the police just when they expected to take him, has been captured. He has confessed to more than 100 burglaries, and even that large number probably does not represent the total of such crimes committed by him.

The prisoner's name is J. G. Fleenor. He is a negro, and has been engaged in the real estate business at No. 415½ South Spring street, using his business as a double advantage to him in his criminal operations. It gave him some standing in the community, which served to avert suspicion, and it also gave him opportunities to inspect residences, enabling him to make plans of the houses he intended to rob.

It was through the recovery of former Fire Chief Thomas Strohm's watch from a pawnshop several days ago that the police secured clews which led to the capture. When confronted with a record of his crimes last night Fleenor confessed to many crimes, some of which had never been reported to the police.

Conducting a legitimate real estate office during the day and breaking into houses at night was the programme carried out for the past two years by Fleenor. His cleverness many times saved him from discovery, and his daring many times prevented his capture, but almost cost his life more than once. Fleenor is a Chicago crook, and probably the most clever burglar who has worked on the Pacific Coast in a number of years.

As nearly as the police were able to ascertain in their hurried interview last night with Fleenor, he came to Los Angeles about two years ago. Being a well-educated man and possessing a peculiarly sharp intellect for a negro relating to business transactions along the line of commercial deals, he at once recognized the opportunity open in the real estate line. Soon after Fleenor opened his office on South Spring street, he had established and was connected with fifty real estate agencies.

HOW HE WORKED.

For many weeks Fleenor worked diligently establishing his business—laying the foundation to the most elaborate scheme for robbery that has ever come to notice of the police. With a business reputation considered in no way mean by men in the same line of business, Fleenor set to work laying plans for the looting of residences in every part of the city, and had he adhered strictly to his rules he would still be at large.

On the pretext of listing property, Fleenor gained access to many homes, which he afterward robbed. Once within a house he could mark the exits, note the floor plan, and, in fact, gain in a few moments a more accurate idea of the residence and its occupants than the ordinary professional burglar could after spending a week watching the house from the outside.

Many of the places listed by Fleenor in his real estate books were not intended for robbery. Those marked to be looted were put down in another journal. There a secret word code was used by Fleenor. The location of the house, what valuables it was likely to contain, the size, plan, and, in fact, all notes of value to a robber, were accurately kept.

Nor was that all. Fleenor entered the amount and description of the booty in the book after robbing the houses. At a moment's glance Fleenor is able to answer any question concerning his crimes, and can tell all details of them.

FIGHT WITH STROHM.

Between 9 and 10 o'clock on the night of September 9 last, a "barefooted" burglar entered the home of Thomas Strohm, No. 319 Crocker street. The former fire chief was seated upon the front porch and heard a peculiar noise upstairs. He ascended to the second floor and leisurely walked into a front bedroom. At that moment a light was lighted, and Strohm saw Fleenor.

A fierce struggle ensued, in which Fleenor escaped with much booty, among which was the watch that was to prove the means of his undoing. The commotion caused by the escape of the barefooted negro burglar aroused the neighborhood. Shots were fired at the fleeing figure of the robber and a posse hunted him for many hours, but he vanished.

Negro after negro was arrested but in every case the police were foiled, as the suspects were able to prove their innocence. Much effort was placed upon that particular case, because Strohm saw the robber and would be able to identify him.

However, the Strohm robbery was not the first. Some months prior Fleenor had begun to operate. He continued to loot house after house. More descriptions of him were secured, but it now appears that Fleenor succeeded in changing his appearance so that it foiled the police. Most of the descriptions were very inaccurate and served to mislead the police.

One of the rules of the "barefooted" robber was to "plant" or store away his loot. In safety vaults, in his room and in his office Fleenor kept the stolen valuables. His real estate deals brought in more than the amount of money he used, so that he did not need to dispose of any of the stolen property.

Believing that sufficient time had elapsed since the Strohm robbery, Fleenor took the watch to a pawnshop and secured a loan on it. A few days later the police noticed the number of Strohm's watch on the pawnshop files.

HOW THEY GOT HIM.

During the time intervening Detectives Boyd and Jones had worked unceasingly on the case of the "barefooted" burglar. Their spare time had been devoted almost entirely to the case. With the clew at the pawnshop the officers began to trace the robbery back to Fleenor. Sufficient evidence against the negro real estate man was secured by February 23 to warrant his arrest on a charge of suspicion.

Until Strohm identified the thief, the prisoner refused to make any statement to the police. Then he acknowledged that he had committed that robbery. For the past four days Fleenor has been sweated until he made a clean breast of the whole scheme.

Eight burglaries in detail were traced to Fleenor last night. Through his "journal of crime" he was able to tell the officers about the cases. Over a hundred other crimes Fleenor said had been committed by him.

In his office at No. 415½ South Spring street the greater portion of the loot was stored. Almost as much was found by the police in Fleenor's branch office at No. 412½ South Main street, in the Golden State Hotel. There Fleenor had a suite of rooms, one an office, the remainder his private apartments.

Fleenor is about 30 years old, over six feet tall, very black and dresses in the latest styles, although modestly. His conversation is highly entertaining and shows his education. Fleenor says he is a Chicago man.

The police say that Fleenor is the burglar who entered the home of Patrolman W. W. Glen and was nearly shot by the officer, but managed to escape.

Late last night the police gave out the statement that Fleenor may be wanted in other cities. They have reason to believe that he has operated elsewhere on the Pacific Coast and also in many large cities in the East.

TROUBLE BREWING FOR TRACK MEET.

TROUBLE is brewing between the University of Southern California and Pomona College over the scheduled track meet of Saturday. Pomona has protested two of the U.S.C. entries, and the Methodists are preparing to bring counter charges if the congregational objections are pressed.

Manager Smith of Pomona and Manager Clark of U.S.C. held a conference at the Hollenbeck last night and today each will present the athletic situation to his respective faculty committee for consideration and action. Manager Smith handed Manager Clark a formal letter sent to the U.S.C. authorities by Pomona, and while Clark was unable to state the position of U.S.C. accurately until the Athletic Committee took action, he outlined the possibilities involved, with the help of Coach Hughes, who was present.

It is understood that Pomona protests two of the U.S.C. men, and further contends that the Methodists failed to live up to the provisions of the conference agreement which provides that the faculty list of entries must be sent to the rival school twenty days before the scheduled meet, and that all protests must be made five days before the meet.

It is further learned that Pomona also protested one of the U.S.C. men on the faculty list on Tuesday, on the ground that U.S.C. failed to certify to the school work hereby listed to certify to the school work done by each man on the list. U.S.C. asserts that she will not permit other schools to question her honor in qualifying track men, but the faculty is alleged to have gone over the list of entries carefully and refused to include any who were ineligible. U.S.C. says she expects Pomona to presume that U.S.C. made a true statement on her honor.

Parsons was not entered on the list by U.S.C., although she now claims that he may be eligible technically, as he has made up his deficient studies and passed his examinations successfully. He was not entered, it is claimed, in order to conform to the spirit of the sport.

Pomona may have a case somewhat similar. McKee was ineligible to contest in the track meet last Saturday, and the basketball game on Monday, and so the faculty list submitted to U.S.C. does not contain his name, but the entry list sent down for the programmes does, it is said. As a matter of fact, McKee again is eligible, it is said, because he has made up his work and passed the examinations, as has Parsons, and if Pomona insists on McKee taking part, U.S.C. will insist on Parsons entering.

Parsons runs in the sprints for U.S.C., and McKee is a crack quarter and relay man for Pomona. Each would stand a chance of taking ten points for his college, and it makes little difference if they take part in the meet or not, so far as the final result is concerned.

Pomona demands that U.S.C. shows cause why the men protested be allowed to take part in the meet. On the other hand, U.S.C. claims this is only a dual meet, and that the agreement signed was effective last year, the agreement signed was effective last year, and that no agreement has been signed this year.

MIKE SULLIVAN TO MEET LEWIS

MANAGER M'CAREY MAY STAGE THE BIG BATTLE.

Boys Want to Go Twenty Rounds and Ask for Chance Here—All-Star Boys Working Hard for Battles to Be Contested Next Friday. All in Good Shape.

Mike (Twin) Sullivan and Harry Lewis may meet in Los Angeles as the star attraction in the next card after that of March 8, which probably will be about March 19, or possibly March 15. The boys were matched yesterday at Salt Lake City and are open to bids for the battle.

Lewis and Sullivan should put up a corking good battle. They fought in Denver a short time ago and Lewis took the decision in ten rounds, although Sullivan and his friends claim that he was robbed. The unsatisfactory ending of the battle calls for another match, and both boys are willing. Manager McCarey has communicated with the men and is now dickering on terms.

The boxers to appear in the all-star card next Friday night are working hard for the series of battles. Long Beach and the local pavilion are the training quarters of most of the boys. There was a big delegation at the pavilion yesterday afternoon.

Kid Dalton and Eddie Menney are working together and sparred four very fast rounds. Dalton forgot himself several times and struck out hard at the smaller Menney when stung by the swift-shooting left jabs to the face sent in with great regularity by Eddie.

Frank Kelley has both boys in hand, and today will begin work on Kid Solomon, who expects to train every afternoon from now on.

Montana Kid also is working out and is fast as lightning on his feet and in dodging tactics. He sparred two fast rounds with Leonard Lauder, not attempting to hit the ex-Councilman's son but allowing him to lead as fast as he wanted with both hands. Lauder rarely touched a glove to Montana.

The Kid also took on Louie Lewis for two rounds. In the last, the boys warmed up and Montana sent a right cross to the jaw which put Lewis to the floor and sent him groggy. They eased up for the remainder of the round.

All the boys did considerable rope-skipping, shadow work and calisthenics. A crowd of nearly two hundred persons saw them work out. After the workout, all the men in active training took rub-downs. They expect to be "right" by the night of the fights.

FLASHES FROM WIRES.

A seat on the New York Stock Exchange was sold yesterday for $75,000.

The Idaho State Senate yesterday adopted the House joint resolution condemning the Federal government's forest reserve policy. The vote was 15 to 6.

The Nebraska Senate yesterday passed the House 2-cent Passenger Fare Bill, and the House agreed to the Senate amendment. The measure now goes to the Governor.

Violent anti-Masonic rioting occurred at Reims, France yesterday. Many persons were injured, and the police made 150 arrests.

The executive assembly at San Juan, P. R., yesterday adopted the bill providing for the abolishment of the death penalty, thus saving the lives of several persons who were waiting execution.

A man wearing the uniform of a dragon of a court tried to enter the palace last night, but a policeman on duty at the entrance stopped him and questioned him at length. Finally the man was arrested. He turned out to be a dangerous lunatic, a workman named William Heitmann, who came to Berlin from Hamburg, Prussia.

A deputation of Poles has gone from Posen, Poland, to Rome, bearing a petition to the Pope, to which 180,000 signatures are attached, begging him to support the endeavors of the Poles to obtain from the Prussian government the restoration in the schools of religious instruction in the Polish language.

It is officially announced at Berlin that two cases of the plague have occurred at Maunza, German East Africa, and also that one case was discovered on board a British steamer which arrived recently from Maunza. The colonial authorities are taking every possible precaution to prevent a spread of the pestilence.

The Kansas Senate, by a vote of 24 to 6, yesterday passed the Noftzger substitute for the Bower bill. This provides that railroads shall sell mileage books of 500 miles or more at the rate of 2 cents per mile. The regular passenger fare, where a mileage book is not used, remains at 3 cents per mile.

Hence agreeable and healthy rooms. Being the essential to first-class patronage of an apartment house. It is also on the CREST of the hill thus affording the purest air and a charming view, two other important factors in attracting and retaining desirable tenants, and being only five minutes' WALK to the shopping district, theaters, public library and public buildings, car fare thus saved is added to the rents. Should you desire such on which to build an apartment house that should pay not less than 15 per cent.; or, to resell at an advance of $5000 (and in this we speak confidently, for it is that amount below similar property in its vicinity)—then look at the northwest corner of Olive and Court streets; make a thorough investigation of both locality and prices there. THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Got Saloon Man's Coin.

Burglars robbed the Central saloon, No. 500 South Spring street, early yesterday morning of $115. They got entrance by cutting away a portion of the screen of the rear door. They found the money in the barroom where it had been hidden.

Just Walked Off With It.

An unusually bold suit case thief stole a valise belonging to Sig. Niederberger, a traveling man, from the Hotel Angelus yesterday. The crook simply picked up the suit case and walked away with it while the eyes of scores of people were on him. In the grip was $185, some expensive clothing and toilet articles.

Long-Name Club Starts.

The Colegrove Social, Protective and Improvement Club held its first meeting last night at the home of Mr. Picotte, who was made chairman pro tem. Twenty-five members have been taken in. Adjournment was taken until two weeks from last night, and a hall will be sought in the meantime. It is an improvement association.

Injured by Assailant.

When about to take possession of his runaway horse, which had ended its mad race in a vacant lot at Trepico avenue and D street, Edendale, last night, Isidore Margolis was attacked by an unidentified man and seriously injured. He resides at Temple and Centennial streets, but is in the Receiving Hospital. His injuries consist of a deep scalp wound and bruises about the body.

Car Tracks Greased.

As a result of complaints from crews on the Los Angeles-Pacific Railway line running through the west part of the city, special efforts have been made to ascertain the identity of persons greasing the rails and pulling off trolleys. Lovell Fuller was arrested last night on the charge of being connected with these misdemeanors. He is 19 years old, and resides at Santa Monica and Alma avenues.

March Weather.

A compilation of the records of the weather bureau in Los Angeles for twenty-nine years shows for the month of March a mean temperature of 57 deg. The average rainfall for the month was 2.13 inches. The average number of clear days was 12 and of partly cloudy days 12. The prevailing winds were from the west with an average hourly velocity of 5 miles. The highest velocity was 46 miles on March 25, 1891.

Commercial Standards.

The Newman Club last night held its monthly banquet at Levy's. John T. Brook was the speaker of the evening and discussed "Present Day Commercial Integrity." Brook took an optimistic view of present conditions in business life and expressed his faith in the belief that standards of honesty among business men have an upward tendency. Bishop Conaty followed with remarks inspired by the lecture. Forty members were present.

Seeking Father and Baby.

The police were instructed to make a thorough search of Los Angeles last night for J. C. Lewis and his six-months-old child. According to the informants of the police, Lewis became intoxicated yesterday, and took the child from its home in Artesia and brought it to this city. The last time the child and its father were seen was about 9 o'clock last night at Ninth and Mateo streets. Relatives of Lewis fear he will return to his former home in Houston, Tex., with the child.

They're Going Tomorrow.

Angelenos who will go with the Chamber of Commerce on its excursion to Hawaii must have all their baggage ready by tonight to insure getting it on board the steamship Ohio. There are still six tickets which have been paid for and the owners of which have not called to take them up. These must be taken up, says Secretary Wilkins, by this evening. The boat will leave San Pedro tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock. One hour before that time a special train will leave this city over the Pacific Electric Railway carrying the 250 excursionists.

ROOSEVELT DID NOT AID KAISER.

PRESIDENT CURBED WAR LORD'S DEMANDS OF FRANCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—A Paris special to the Times says that some surprising statements in regard to the recent Moroccan crisis and the course taken with respect to it by President Roosevelt and others will be made in next Friday's issue of the Revue des Deux Mondes by Andre Jardeau, foreign editor of Temps.

M. Jardeau deals with the period between January 26 and February 19, 1906, when the representatives of France and Germany at Algeciras found it more and more impossible to come to terms.

Count Witte had appealed to Emperor William to give France proof of his conciliatory spirit by accepting the solution offered by her. The Emperor positively refused. At the same time, President Roosevelt's energetic efforts were equally unavailing.

M. Jardeau says Emperor William himself telegraphed to President Roosevelt to assure him that the Austrian scheme was regarded as excellent at Algeciras, that it was approved by England, Russia and Japan, and that it was the duty of the United States to urge France to accept it.

In a second telegram, Emperor William denounced French colonial ambitions and appetites.

Finally, the Kaiser sent a third telegram, affirming explicitly that Russia, Italy, England and Spain had abandoned France and that the United States alone supported her. The Emperor said that the interests of peace required that the United States accept the Austrian scheme and force French consent.

SENT THREE TELEGRAMS.

According to M. Jardeau's story, President Roosevelt, in reply to the Emperor's three telegrams, sent three categorical refusals to accept his views. The President not only declared the Austrian scheme unacceptable, but affirmed that if the Monroe doctrine had not prevented his intervention he would have actively combatted the scheme, as being the beginning of the division of Morocco by means of spheres of influence.

Mr. Roosevelt, moreover, reminded the Emperor that he stick to his own project. He added that France had made a great concession in accepting the inspection, and that it now behooved Germany to recognize it.

The final compromise agreement reached at Algeciras was proposed by Austria. It was a very different proposition from the first plan suggested by the Austrian delegates, and though it was not introduced by them, it was generally understood that it originated with Ambassador White, one of the American delegates. It is the first Austrian plan that is referred to in the Paris dispatch.

FIRE IN A FLAT.

At the moment that flames were about to break through the roof of a two-story flat at Nos. 312-314½ East Fourth street last night the electric lights went out and gave a timely warning, which no doubt saved the house from destruction. Defective wiring caused the fire. The roof at the rear of the flat was the portion most affected. Great holes were burned in the roof, and a part of the rear porch was destroyed by the blaze. The greatest damage was done to the downstairs flats by water. The flats were occupied by Mrs. James Bittle, No. 314½ East Fourth street; Mrs. L. B. Ott, No. 314 East Fourth street; S. Frankle, No. 312½ East Fourth street, and Isaac Pierson, No. 312 East Fourth street. The building is owned by James Hodgman, and the loss to it and the contents was about $400.

SILENT CONSPIRACY OF EIGHT THIEVES.

Robbers' Exchange Established and Freaky Crime Carried on Without a Word by Clerks in Drug House. Each Pays Small Fine.

WHAT will go down in police annals as the Strange Conspiracy of Silence ended yesterday with the sentence of the young men who robbed the F. W. Braun Company, wholesale drug concern.

Each of the eight thieves was sentenced by Justice Rose to pay a fine of $30 or go to jail for thirty days; they each paid the fine—thus escaping jail.

Their crime is one of the most freakish in the history of the police department. It is a detective story of itself.

CHAPTER I.

ENTER LEADING MAN.

Came a half-baked, slender boy to seek employment at the Braun drug house, which employs 180 men. He showed fine credentials from men who knew his family here. His name is Warren Clapp.

The manager of the store placed him in a good position as an order clerk, and he did well.

But the boy was a natural thief. He stole things for the sake of stealing. Like the coon song, he "just couldn't keep from taking hold of things." He stole lead pencils enough to have equipped a schoolhouse. He took safety razors. He took fine, expensive perfumes.

With the generosity of the man who "makes his money easy," the boy gave away things to the other boys in the store. At first they wondered how he got all this stuff; gradually it began to dawn on them; they said nothing because the presents kept on coming, and they hoped to get more of them.

This boy Clapp was gradually impregnating the other clerks in the big store with that peculiar mental disease that might be called the sickness of greed. It is the same thing that makes buccaneers, gorged with plunder, fall upon each other with swords and cutlasses; it is the same disease that causes prospectors to suffer privations of poverty and want together cheerily; but begin to plot and kill one another when they stand within sight of the gold.

The other clerks knew well enough where the boy Clapp was getting expensive safety razors. Also costly perfumes.

Some of them had worked for a long time with Braun, honestly and faithfully. But they began to look around. Why couldn't they get things just as Clapp did? Finally they began to steal, too.

No one knows yet how far the contagion spread. Eight have been caught and confessed to Justice Rose and the police yesterday.

This crime began to be freakish when they began to apply the well-known principles of commercial exchange to their thieving.

This might be called the second episode; it makes this a crime among crimes.

THE PLUNDERBUND.

One day one of the thieving boys became ill of a complaint that he did not care to consult the physician upon.

With his new instinct of plunder, the idea came to him quickly enough to steal a remedy. He worked, however, in a department of the store in which no medicines are sold. He hovered around the medicine department for many days, but never saw a chance to steal medicines; the attendant in charge was always looking.

Yet even at that time, the man in charge of the medicines may have been in the plunderbund himself.

Somehow or other, the boy managed to know that one of the drug clerks could use a safety razor. One evening as the store was closing, the drug department clerk saw a fine safety razor lying near him on the counter, and a boy was snooping around somewhere in the drug stock. He hesitated; but as he slowly put the safety razor in his pocket, the great plunderbund of the F. W. Braun Company was launched.

It grew like mushrooms. Even the boys themselves do not remember how the thing came to be. At the end it was a complete clearinghouse of crime.

Their confessions have been sweeping, sparing nothing. Yet each boy sticks to the same story:

That this strange conspiracy was carried on in silence—an agreement without words.

Greenbaum, the drug clerk, let the boys steal medicines from the stock—boxes of pills, tonics and whatever they needed. He said nothing about any criminal trade; he found things lying around that he wanted; he did not question whence they came. He didn't notice that his stock was being stolen.

Dick McIntosh, the young man in the assay department, has access to some entertaining toys in the way of test tubes and chemical paraphernalia such as are used in physical and chemical laboratories. He silently traded these in for things he wanted.

There were two divisions to this system. It might have been called the "active list" and the "silent partners."

The boys who had access to the stock seem not exactly to have stolen things and traded them. They merely traded opportunities.

The boy in the assay department would discreetly turn his head and gaze upon the landscape while the boy from the sample cases would take fancy test tubes.

In exchange of courtesies, the boy from the sample cases would be absorbed in vacancy while the boy from the other department would sneak in and take out delicate soaps. Meeting thereafter, not a word of guilty knowledge was exchanged.

They seem to have politely ignored the fact that they were allowing each other to steal. Where some thieves would have compared notes and plundered, these seem generally to have preserved the outward farce of respectability.

There were two or three members of the plunderbund, however, who could not conveniently reciprocate. One of these was the cellar man; the other the liquor man.

Especially the cellar man.

The officers were a long time finding out where the cellar man got into the plunderbund.

Finally they learned from some of the boys that the cellar man contributed his part in being blind when the boys sneaked into his cellar and wanted to hide their plunder.

He didn't vulgarly say "Hide them back on this wall, boys." He just became absent-minded. Same way the liquor man.

So all these crime-soaked young men went around stealing under one another's eyes and exchanging plunder, yet keeping up the appearance of believing in one another's honesty.

CHAPTER III.

FALL OVER THE FENCE.

It is always something little that causes all creation to blow up. Kipling says that all the bad falls occur at the little fences.

One day the manager of the large Braun house discovered a little theft which would amount to less than $20.

Late Tuesday night the police were notified, and officers were detailed to investigate. For two days they stopped eating. Like National Guard courts-martial, they worked "without regard to hours."

They were surprised to find another clew fastened to the main clew. They found clew piled on clew.

They seemed to gather around the boy Clapp. They placed a guard on his room. Meanwhile Mr. Braun and a friend cross-questioned a boy in the store.

Ignorant of the fact that the room was under guard, Braun and his friend arranged to accompany the boy to his room, after having got damaging admissions from him.

Braun's friend led the way, and flinging open the boy's room door, walked in. Just as he did so, an arm was flung about his neck and he was choking in the grip of steel-like muscles; he was getting what police call the "strong arm."

With a howl like a frightened coyote he managed to struggle loose and rushed off down the hall, sure he had run into a den of desperate robbers. The hidden officer was cursing his luck for having missed his prey.

The boy Clapp was taken inside, when mutual explanations had been made, and sharply cross-examined.

He made about as cool and matter-of-fact a confession as was ever wrigged out of a criminal.

He said that he had stolen quantities of stock; about $1000 worth has already been recovered from his room. It included fancy perfumes, fancy combs elegant soaps, toilet articles of every description. The boy solemnly swore that he had never sold anything, and subsequent developments seem to bear him out. He seems to have stolen merely because it was easy to do.

Same with the other boys. None of the stuff seems to have been sold. Almost all of it has been recovered.

Clapp says that he sometimes used to place plunder on the window sills when he was closing the department in which he worked for the night. He would then shut the windows and sneak around the side of the store and snatch the package off the window sill.

One of the other boys admitted that he had had a big pocket made on the inside of his coat to carry off the articles that met his fancy.

Clapp was taken at once to jail and locked up that night. The next day the detectives made one magnificent swoop and carried away seven more. To the cleverness of the two officers, Ingraham and Beaumont, is due this swift coup. The officials at the store were thunderstruck.

One by one the boys were taken before a police captain, and one by one they gave in and confessed.

They all stuck to the story that their conspiracy had been one of silent consent; that they made no spoken agreements and merely neglected to see one another stealing.

They said that Clapp had given them presents that they knew must have come from the stock and it seemed so easy that they all caught the fever.

There may be still another chapter to this story to follow.

When the officers went down to Braun's yesterday, a terrible hush fell over the store and blanched, white faces seemed to inquire, "Which one of us is next?"

Those who were fined yesterday are A. W. Greenbaum, drug department; Warren Clapp, order clerk; Dick McIntosh, assay department; Jim Johnson and F. S. Harris, sundry department; W. A. Fryer, liquor department; Charles Carroll, cellar man; Roy Sisk, errand boy.

LIQUOR OUTLAW POINT UP HERE.

RIVERSIDE CASE TO BE HEARD IN APPELLATE COURT.

Appeal Is from Decision of Judge Densmore Whose Opinion Is Almost Identical With That of the Indiana Circuit Court Respecting Illegality of the Saloon Traffic.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RIVERSIDE, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Whether or not the liquor business is outlawed is an issue in a case which will be heard in the Appellate Court in Los Angeles next Monday.

The hearing will be on appeal from a decision of Judge Densmore of this county rendered a week ago. His decision is almost identical with that of the Indiana Circuit Court, an account of which was printed in last Sunday's issue of The Times.

In his decision Judge Densmore held that the liquor business is outlawed and detrimental to human progress, and that the right to sell liquor is a privilege which may be granted or refused without violating any natural or inherent right of the individual.

The case is that of Jack L. Kidd, the Casa Blanca druggist whose trial in the Superior Court on the charge of illegal liquor selling in violation of the Riverside city ordinance ended in conviction. The case was first tried in Justice Stephenson's Court, and the decision was against the druggist. It was then appealed to the Superior Court. The sentence in the lower court was $200 fine and thirty days' imprisonment.

NARROWLY ESCAPE DEATH.

Family Awakens to Find the House in Flames and Escape Just Before Roof Falls in.

The family of D. Angenala, consisting of the husband, wife and three small children, narrowly escaped being burned to death in a fire which wholly destroyed their home at No. 526 College street, at 12:30 o'clock this morning. One of the children was awakened by the heat of the blaze which had crept into their sleeping room. The child called his father, and Angenala awoke to find the room in flames. His wife is ill, and it was with the greatest difficulty that he succeeded in dragging her and the children from the burning building. Just as they reached the front of the house the ceiling of the room in which they had been sleeping fell in and this gave the flames such headway that by the time the fire department reached the place they could do nothing but direct their operations toward saving near-by buildings. The house which was destroyed was a cheap affair, and the loss will not exceed $500. The Angenala family lost everything they possessed. A horse, the property of Charles Polaski, was burned to death.

WHIP HAND OF SUPERVISORS.

LITTLE "JOKER" MAY BOB OUT OF CHUCK HOLE.

Good Roads Bill Clause Is Politically Changed—The "Faithful" Look Ahead to Bond Pie—Chance for "Gang" but People Have Check in Their Hands.

"Pie for the bunch."

That seems to be the idea a number of politicians of the San Francisco totem brand have regarding the benefits of the Good Roads Bill, which has already passed the Assembly and is now in the Senate and reported favorably upon by the Committee on Roads and Transportation. In fact, their belief is that there is a fine "joker" in the bill.

This "joker" is the clause providing for the appointment of a Highway Commission by the Boards of Supervisors of the counties desiring to issue bonds for good roads.

The Supervisors can appoint to this responsible position any member of the "gang" they see fit to have charge of the expenditure of the money raised by the bond sales, and it is right here that the politicians are already licking their chops in anticipation of the possible graft and fat jobs for the faithful.

When the carefully prepared bill drawn up by John D. Works, Hartley Shaw, Emmet Wilson and F. W. Blanchard was submitted to the Good Roads Conference at its all-day session in the Chamber of Commerce recently the clause providing for the appointment of the Highway Commission was criticised on the ground that the appointees of the Supervisors would be creatures, possibly, of the board.

LEGAL HALF-HITCH.

It was explained that under the Constitution of the State the Supervisors or other county officers alone have the power to handle the finances of the county. It was then suggested that the bill provide for the election of the Highway Commissioners as regular county officers. But again there was a legal hitch because of the Constitution.

A change was then made in the clause, providing that the Supervisors "shall" appoint Highway Commissioners upon petition by the voters, thus making it obligatory upon them to fulfill the wishes of the people in this respect. The petition might also nominate the men.

But when Chief Deputy District Attorney Shaw and Mr. Blanchard took the bill to Sacramento they ran against a snag right away. It was that same "shall." It had to be changed at the behest of the San Francisco delegation in the Assembly. It was finally made to read that the Supervisors "may" appoint a Highway Commission.

The committee was in Sacramento for ten days, and as Mr. Blanchard said last evening: "We practically lived on the floor of the Assembly during that time. We found over 1000 bills submitted, yet we got the Good Roads Bill passed within that time."

HAVE THE POWER.

This "may" places all the power in the hands of the Supervisors of any county which proposes to raise any sum of money by the sale of bonds or in any other manner. They "may" appoint a Highway Commission as per request of petitioners to prepare the specifications for the proposed good roads. If they can't appoint the men they want as Highway Commissioners, they don't have to appoint any, and the good roads remain just as bad as ever and there won't be any Highway Commission or bonds.

In the case of Los Angeles county it is proposed to eventually vote upon bonds for $3,000,000 with which to construct the finest county roads in the State. This great sum of money will be disbursed altogether under the supervision of the Highway Commission appointed by the Supervisors.

ONE CHECK.

There is one check, however, which the Good Roads' Association desires that the people of the county should realize they have in their hands; that is their vote upon the issuance of bonds.

If the Board of Supervisors appoint a Highway Commission composed of politicians in which the people have not the utmost confidence as to their ability to honestly disburse any large sum for good roads, they can easily defeat the bonds and turn the political pie to sour grapes.

It is for this particular purpose that the Good Roads' Association, which will meet in the Chamber of Commerce tomorrow morning, is now pledged: To educate the people as to good roads, to point out any dangers which may menace their best interests and, as a representative of both the city and the country districts, to reflect the public opinion which must prevail in favor of a bond issue to make it a success.

As it is the Supervisors can appoint a Highway Commission; they can appoint a good one having the respect

WOMEN REACH MONEY GOAL.

Fine Victory Is Won by Valiant Workers.

Whole Fund for Building Is Now in Sight.

Long Result Achieved in the Short Month.

The accumulated enthusiasm of twenty-eight days of strenuous labor in a winning cause broke forth in a mighty flood of cheers and shouts and yells at Y.W.C.A. headquarters last night.

The Campaign Committee can congratulate itself on accomplishing a feat that, for speed and cash, completely outstrips any previous money campaign in Los Angeles. The Committee set out to raise $150,000 in twenty-eight days, and has accomplished its purpose, with a margin in sight.

When the final figures appeared on the bulletin board at midnight they read $145,609, but enough more is coming to bring the total to probably $5000 beyond the amount asked for.

Yesterday morning but a little over $114,000 had been subscribed, and the tremendous leap of the last day fairly took the Campaign Committee off its feet. Those fifty women are literally footsore from their travels during the month. Mrs. Dewey, president of the Association, said last night that she has not been in an automobile since the campaign opened. Mmes. Merrill and Callender reported a total of 276 calls during the past twenty-eight days, thirty-two of which were made yesterday, with a cash result in the one day of $2200.

As early as 7 o'clock last night the members and friends of the Association began gathering. The great dining-room had been cleared of tables, and a large bulletin board set up in the lower end, on which were posted half-hour bulletins. Leonard Merrill wielding the crayon and eraser. The first bulletin was $126,318. Then D. E. Luther of the Y.M.C.A. set the ball rolling in the way of speeches with a rattling good talk. The association played some jolly airs and the various clubs in their capacity of rooters could not be beaten. The Indoor-Outdoor Club members sat in a group on the floor near the orchestra and whooped it up at every opportunity, while the Victorias, made up of little cash girls from the department stores, sat in the opposite corner and promptly echoed the yells. As each new bulletin was posted a brief speech was made announcing the contribution. W. C. Patterson followed Mr. Luther, and announced a contribution of $2500 from Charles Stimson and another of $1000 from Mrs. E. P. Bonbyshell.

GIVE THEIR MITES.

A little boy, Willard Mason, who wanted to help along the building fund, has been collecting and selling bottles all the month to the junk man, and sent in his contribution of $1. This brought cheers from the crowd, and a special yell from the rooters in compliment to the loyal lad.

Little Mary Brodbeck, the 12-year-old daughter of the superintendent of the big First Methodist Sunday-school brought her savings of $100 and turned them into the general fund. Large and small, old and young were represented, as they have been all through the campaign.

J. G. Warren spoke in behalf of the board of directors of the Y.M.C.A. and in doing so announced the subscription of O. T. Johnson for $5000. This was a complete surprise and was received with the wildest demonstrations of joy. It sent the figures on the bulletin board scurrying up, and one of the secretaries was detailed to stand behind the commercial clock and keep the hands moving to keep up with the subscriptions as they poured in. "A woman always did get what she went after. Of course you won," remarked the Y.M.C.A. representative, as he concluded his speech of congratulation on the success of the campaign.

When Dr. Hugh K. Walker was called on, his first sentence was: "I said in the first place that it was just like a woman to choose the shortest month in the year—and not even leap year at that—which would have given you one more day. You've not left a stone unturned or a method untried, and you deserve to win."

MEMORIAL FUND.

W. C. Patterson, on behalf of the Eliza A. Otis Memorial Association, announced that more than $5000 had been raised by that association. "This," he said, "was one of the touching and tender incidents of the whole campaign, and if the spirits of those who have passed before can look down upon the earth I believe the pure spirit of Eliza A. Otis gives this cause her benediction this night."

The total sum turned in from this association to date is $5128.50, and it is probable that the amount will go much higher.

Shortly after 10 o'clock the Orpheus Club, led by J. P. Dupuy, marched into the assembly hall amid cheers of welcome, to which the response was hurrahs. "Really this beats election night," remarked a business man, as the rooters yelled, the singers hurrahed and the crowd clapped and shouted.

The women who have worked so valiantly were called upon for speeches, and several responded with clever talks, relating their experiences. Mrs. Chichester, the originator of the "Famous Hundred Women" idea, of which there are up to date fifty-five, representing as many thousand dollars, made a witty speech and reported over $2000 as her harvest yesterday, and when Mrs. E. R. Smith was called upon and modestly said she had no great sum to report as a result of yesterday's work, Mrs. Chichester cried naively: "Oh, Mrs. Smith was with me all day. She helped get this."

THE TWO-BIT PIECE.

By way of contrast, Mrs. Mathuss told how she had worked for days with a certain wealthy party expecting a great result, and yesterday received a letter which she opened with great expectations and found carefully wrapped in paper—a two-bit piece.

The business women's fund had last night reached a total of $7667 outside of Mrs. Hook's $5000.

When the final figures are in and the sums that are practically promised, together with others bound to come, the total amount will be reached without difficulty. It was impossible last night for the committee to give out a complete list of the subscribers, which will be done later. A large mass and will speak, and when the exact entire amount received will be announced.

BULLET KILLS PATROLMAN.

MAY, SHOT BY A HIGHWAYMAN, DIES OF WOUND.

Officer Victim of Midnight Duel in Which Antagonist Was Killed Appears to Be Recovering, but Expires After Surgeons Probe for the Missile in His Breast.

Patrolman C. A. May died about 9 o'clock last night at the Clara Barton Hospital from the bullet wound inflicted by William Ross, a highwayman, at Adams and San Pedro streets on February 3.

When May stopped Ross that night who died last night from a wound sustained in a duel with a burglar who was shot dead by another policeman.

and asked where he was going, Ross replied with the shot that inflicted the fatal wound. Ross was shot dead by Patrolman J. M. Hoover a second after he had shot May.

In securing the section of the city in the vicinity of L. C. Kelber's home at No. 222 East Jefferson street, where an attempt at robbery was reported, May and Hoover came upon Ross. The officers disclosed their identity, and Ross shot May in the breast. The wounded officer was rushed to the hospital, and an effort was made to locate the bullet, but without success.

For a time May improved in condition, and some days ago it was thought he would recover. He was removed to his home, No. 2138½ South Los Angeles street. Soon the old wound began to grow painful again, and May was taken back to the hospital. After the surgeons had probed for the bullet last night May expired. Mrs. May, whom the young officer recently married, and his two brothers were with him when he died.

May was for a time in the military service in the Philippines. His training there made him an exceptionally good patrolman. He was entrusted with cases that are generally given only to men of long experience. At the time May was injured he was working out of the University Police Station.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

A delegation of business men visited the Board of Public Works yesterday to discuss methods for collection of refuse from the business district. A new ordinance will soon be proposed, in which this will be treated.

The Fire Commission at the next Council meeting will present an ordinance creating two new positions, that of plumber and field electrician in the fire department, as aids to public safety.

The first year's labors of the Board of Public Works was completed yesterday. In that time 210 meetings have been held.

Many protests against increasing the rates for the Home Telephone Company reached Mayor Harper yesterday, both by mail and by phone.

A suit to collect a note from Mrs. Rose L. Burcham recalls the insurance exposures of 1905. She refuses to pay for the policy, which she alleges was sold to her by misrepresentation.

Roy Brown, a Santa Monica boy, is charged in the Juvenile Court with robbing an old soldier.

Paul Hendrick, a gardener who has lived in Los Angeles twenty years, was found guilty of theft. The man may be insane, and for this reason sentence was deferred until today.

AT THE CITY HALL.

WHAT TO DO WITH GARBAGE?

QUESTION IS A SERIOUS ONE TO THE MERCHANTS.

Delegation of Business Men Seeks Relief at Hands of Board of Public Works, but That Body Can Do Nothing at Present — Protests Against New 'Phone Rates.

The never-ending trouble over the collection and disposal of garbage cropped up again, yesterday, before the Board of Public Works. This time it is the business men of the downtown district who raise a howl over present conditions.

They want the city to take off their hands the daily accumulation of garbage from the produce and market houses, or else they and the city to designate some definite place wherein they can haul the refuse and deposit it without further concern from themselves.

Yesterday morning a delegation of six of the produce and market men, headed by Secretary Zeehandelaar of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, visited the Board of Public Works and poured forth their tale of woe.

They declare that the Board of Health has refused to let further deposits of garbage or refuse be made at the old dumping ground to the southeast of the city, and state that if the city does not come forward with a proposition to locate a new dump, or to cremate the stuff they will be helpless to get rid of the accumulations of each day's business.

Commissioners Edwards and Hubbard of the Board of Public Works admitted that they did not know what to do with the problem that confronts them. Primarily, they say, the garbage system is for the relief of the householders, and the ordinance defines garbage as the animal and vegetable refuse from the kitchens. Therefore, say these members of the board, they are not really obligated to pay any attention to the disposal of the collections of refuse at the various business houses, although they recognize that it is a serious matter.

"We can scarcely take care of the garbage we are now forced to collect," said Commissioner Edwards. "We don't want to take care of any more of it, even if it is hauled to the crematory without cost to the city."

An ordinance was to have been presented to the City Council Monday providing that no garbage should be mixed with rubbish, as various rubbish removing concerns have been in the habit of dumping in their loads barrels and boxes of garbage as well as rubbish. It was finally decided to hold up the presentation of this ordinance until it was determined whether additions could be made to it which will cover the difficulties existing in the downtown section. The merchants and market men will consult with the various fertilizer works and endeavor to make some arrangement with them for the use of a large proportion of the waste that daily accumulates.

FIRE COMMISSION'S GRIST.

PERMITS GRANTED AND DENIED.

The Fire Commissioners yesterday denied the application of E. Solque for a permit to establish a hay, grain and fuel yard at No. 3826 Vermont avenue. The commission also denied the application of F. H. Mohr for a gasoline engine to use in wood-working machinery at No. 1401 East Fifty-sixth street. The residents of the block were present in force to protest. Mohr wanted to run his mill nights and Sundays, and do the work for his own residence and make his furniture. He thought a year would be required for this.

A good-sized roar came from protestants over the application of John Hansen for a steam boiler to be used in a milk depot to be established at No. 1734 West Twenty-first street. It finally developed that all Hansen wanted was something to heat water for washing milk cans, and the commission told him to go ahead and establish it, while they denied the boiler application.

Greer Robins Company was given a permit to install a gasoline engine at No. 1501 South Main street for an auto garage. George Shook got a permit to operate an electric motor at No. 1416 San Pedro street for a wire bed factory; and W. T. Stedden can now install a distillate engine at No. 2162 South Los Angeles street for an auto garage.

Smith & Underhill were given a permit for a livery stable at No. 801 Wall street. Anderson Mill Company got the right to operate an electric motor at No. 636 West Thirty-ninth street for a planing mill, and Councilman E. A. Clampitt was given a special permit to operate a steam boiler for hoisting pipes in abandoned oil wells.

The application of E. C. Hoffner for an electric motor at No. 1012 West Tenth street was denied.

TELEPHONE RATES.

MANY PROTESTS RAISED.

Many people made use of the telephones yesterday to call up the Mayor's office and make protest against the proposed raise of rates for the Home Telephone Company. Besides these calls by direct wire, there came to the Mayor a batch of letters which were filled with indignant protest and sharp comment.

Paving Is Unfinished.

Wet weather is given as the cause for the failure to complete this contract within the time allowed.

Don't Like Imitation.

Occidental boulevard is one of the proudest streets of this city. It is a 100-foot thoroughfare with beautiful parking in its center—which is kept up at city expense—and poses as the boulevard residential street. Not long ago the Board of Public Works, at the request of numerous petitioners who own property on Ensign street, changed the name of Ensign street to North Occidental boulevard. Yesterday there came up a roar from property owners on the real Occidental boulevard. They allege that North Occidental boulevard is only a thirty-foot street, with poor improvements, that it is in no way connected with their own boulevard, and that it is a detriment to their property to have this confusion of names. They ask that the board rescind its action. A public hearing of the cause has been set for next Thursday afternoon.

One Year's Work.

The Board of Public Works closed its first year's labors yesterday. During the year it has held 104 regular sessions, and 206 adjourned sessions, making 310 sessions, or only three less than one a day for every week day in the year. During the year the Board of Public Works has acted upon 1040 petitions and communications from the City Council, and more than 2000 documents from other sources.

Paving Recommended.

Three important paving propositions were recommended by the Board of Public Works yesterday. The first of these, which has been discussed for some time past, but which only reached the board yesterday, is for the paving of Downey avenue, from the Los Angeles River bridge to Mission road. Another is the paving of Orange street from Figueroa street to Alvarado street. This provides that between Figueroa and Kip streets vitrified brick shall be used, and between Kip and Alvarado streets the paving shall be of broken rock, with an oiled gravel surface. The other proposition is for the paving of Second street from Figueroa street to Lake Shore avenue, and Lake Shore from Second street to Sunset boulevard.

Found Mastodon's Tusk.

Men employed on the outfall sewer tunnel at Hyde Park yesterday found a tusk of a mastodon at a depth of seventy feet below the surface. It was brought to the City Hall, and is on exhibition at the City Engineer's office.

Seek Two New Positions.

On recommendation from the Fire Commission, the City Attorney is preparing an ordinance to be presented to the City Council on Monday, in which two new positions are to be created in the fire department. One is for a practical plumber and the other is for an electrician, both of whom are to be subject to call to fires the same as regular firemen, and who, it is figured, will greatly aid in the efforts for public safety. The men are also to use their knowledge of their trades in preventative work, as they will make constant inspections for the fire department.

Germain Remembers Firemen.

Eugene Germain sent to the Fire Commission, yesterday, a check for $200 for the relief fund of the firemen, in recognition of their splendid work in saving the Germain block on South Spring street from destruction by fire last Tuesday. He also sent to the commission a letter in which he praised the efficient work of the department at that time, and has presented to Commissioner Anthony Schwamm a gold fire badge as a token of his appreciation of Schwamm's personal services at this fire.

Twelfth Street Opening.

A largely signed protest against the opening of Twelfth street from Figueroa street to Sentous street, has been filed with the City Clerk for presentation to the City Council. It is claimed the protestants have more than a majority of the frontage affected.

The Week's Fires.

Fire Chief Lips' report on the fires for the past week, made to the Fire Commissioners, yesterday, shows twenty alarms. On nineteen of these the total loss was only $450, and on the Germain building the loss was $5000, with a loss of $50,000 on contents.

Report on Accidents.

F. A. Green, general claim agent for the Pacific and Inter-Urban Railways, yesterday filed his report on railway accidents on these two lines for the first fifteen days of February. This report shows that there were forty-six accidents, one of which resulted in the death of a man on Main and Third streets. All the other accidents were minor ones. One resulted in the injury of horses so that two had to be killed.

Want District Sewered.

Property owners in the northwest part of the city have petitioned the Board of Public Works and City Council for the sewering of a large district in the vicinity of the old Hebrew Cemetery, and extending on Reservoir street, Joplin street, Lookout Drive and other streets, and to be connected with the main sewer on Sunset boulevard.

Fight Against Laundry.

The State Steam Laundry Company yesterday applied to the Fire Commissioners for a permit to operate a steam laundry at the corner of Pico and Paloma streets. This brought forth a protest from every property owner but two in the block. The company proposed to erect a $40,000 two-story building and to install a first-class plant, but in the face of such a protest the Fire Commissioners felt constrained to refuse the permit, and urged the laundry company to seek a location nearer the factory district.

BATTLE FOR FORTUNE.

Relative to Contest Will of Seattle Woman Who Left Million and Half to Charity.

Charles Rosenberg of No. 519 Temple street, one of the relatives of the late Mrs. Caroline Galland of Seattle, who left her entire fortune of $1,500,000 to charity, said yesterday that the heirs have decided to contest the will. The grounds for the contest will be that undue influence was exercised upon the woman just prior to her death.

Mrs. Galland left New Haven, Ct., where she spent the greater portion of her life, and came West about forty years ago. She was married to a Mr. Cohn, and was divorced. She then married a Mr. Kline in Seattle, and on his death inherited her large fortune. She afterward married Mr. Galland.

She leaves a brother, Isaac Rosenberg, and eight nephews and nieces. Attorney S. C. Rosenberg of New Haven, Ct., a nephew, has been retained to contest the will.

ENDOWMENT POLICY LOSES ITS ATTRACTIVENESS.

Mrs. Burcham Thinks Agent Deceived Her When He Represented That His Company Would Pay Her Four Per Cent.—Agent Sues to Collect—Brown Boy in Trouble.

An insurance agent's persistence, a woman's tendency to allow herself to be persuaded and the life insurance exposures of 1905 figured in a case on trial yesterday in Department Eight of the Superior Court.

The suit was brought by H. E. Maxon against Mrs. Rose L. Burcham and her husband to collect a note for $1469.25. The note, dated December 12, 1904, and made payable to H. E. Maxon, is couched in the usual terms, with the customary phrase anent "a valuable consideration." And thereby hangs the tale. The answer to the complaint alleges that no valuable consideration was rendered in return for the note—nothing but a $25,000 endowment policy in the New York Mutual Life, indeed!

According to the testimony of Mrs. Burcham yesterday, she had had no intention of insuring her life at the time the persuasive Mr. Maxon approached her on the subject. At the first interview held on the subject, in November, 1904, the lady gave him every reason to despair of his quest, but he would not despair. Another meeting was arranged, and all her objections to taking out a policy were skillfully combatted. She did not expect to die? Ah, no; but then no one does, and it may happen at any time. She did not have any one to leave it to except her husband, and he had property, separate from hers, which was sufficient for his needs, she had said. Then had begun the unfolding of the advantages of an endowment policy as an investment. According to Mrs. Burcham on the witness stand, the agent had assured her that such a policy as he offered would pay her, at the end of twenty years, 4 per cent. on her investment with interest compounded, so that she would receive as much interest as a savings bank would pay, entirely aside from the protection. And banks were known to fail, while old-line life insurance companies never were known to do anything of the kind.

Mrs. Burcham, it seems, hearkened unto the things that were told her, and began to take an interest in them.

One more objection she had made, and the last. She had not the money to spare, and would not receive it from her income till the third or fourth month of the following year. But she spoke regretfully, for the amount of money she would receive in twenty years if she took the policy, was alluring. The agent, it appears, told her it was 4 per cent. on all premiums, with the return of the premiums. In answer to her last objection he had stated that his business for the closing year was less than he had wished, and so anxious was he to add to it before the end of December, that he would accept her note for premiums, $1469,24. And so it happened.

Before the time for paying the note arrived, it seems, the life insurance revelations began. Mrs. Burcham read in one publication that a certain president of an insurance company had loaned vast sums of money belonging to the company, to the president of another such company, and at one half of 1 per cent. interest.

How could she be paid 4 per cent. on her investment through such doings as that? She examined her policy very carefully, and discovered that the actual promise made was that at the end of twenty years there would be a division of the surplus earnings, and that such division in past years had amounted to 4 per cent. But what of the future? It looked forbidding to Mrs. Burcham until she hit upon the simple expedient of not paying the note. Wherefore the agent, having waited long, though with less patience than he showed in securing his client, is suing to collect.

On the witness stand yesterday Mrs. Burcham showed a very firm conviction that she had not received what she had been promised for the $1469.25, and therefore that she was not morally nor legally bound to pay.

The line of the prosecution was very simple, and went something like this: There is the note, Mrs. Burcham signed it. She accepted the policy, and it is a good policy. Past performances show the New York Mutual Life has paid the equivalent of 4 per cent. It cannot be proved that they won't do so in the future. What are you going to do about it.

Judge Wilbur's broad brow is furrowed with thought as he meditates upon the problem.

"THE BROWN BOY."

ACCUSED OF CRIME.

Roy Brown, a small boy of Santa Monica, was brought into the Juvenile Court yesterday morning to answer to a serious charge. He was accused of robbing a helpless old soldier while ostensibly assisting him.

Hamilton, the soldier, is very deaf and almost blind. On the witness stand yesterday he told how he had asked a boy to guide him to the bath-house at Santa Monica. It was a boy he knew, and recognized by his voice. "I can tell a person by his voice if he shouts loud enough," the witness explained. On arriving at the bath-house Hamilton discovered the loss of $14, and later charged his guide with robbing him.

"Do you know this boy?" asked Judge Wilbur, trying to call the old man's attention to Roy Brown, who stood before the bench. Hamilton did not hear, and the judge ordered the boy to step over to the witness chair and ask the old man if he knew him.

"Do you know me?" asked the boy loudly.

"Eh?" queried the old man.

"I say, do you know me?" shouted the youngster.

"Sounds—yes, that's the Brown boy," said Hamilton.

Roy Brown was remanded to the Detention Home for two weeks, when his case will be taken up and disposed of.

CHANGED HIS MIND.

IMPORTANT CODICILS TO WILL.

The will of Robert C. Smith, who died February 6, 1907, disposing of realty which provides an income of $8000 per year, was filed for probate yesterday.

The body of the will, drawn September 30, 1889, divides the property into four equal portions, bequeathed to two brothers and two sister W. E. Smith, A. D. Smith, Anna Smith and Martha C. Smith. The two brothers were appointed executors of the will.

There are two codicils, however, which change matters in one or two important respects. The first, dated July 24, 1906, appoints John W. Cuningham and William G. Bradshaw executors of the will, and devises $10,000 to Mrs. Dora Barnett, wife of E. Z. Barnett.

The second codicil, dated December

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

YELLOW ASTER SUED. Annah R. Clark, widow of D. C. Clark, has brought suit for $25,000 damages against the Yellow Aster Mining and Milling Company. The complaint alleges that D. C. Clark, while employed by the company August 4, 1906, was ordered to enter a bucket hanging in a deep well at Goler, to repair it, and that the bucket fell to the bottom. Clark was killed by the fall.

RIPARIAN RIGHTS. In a suit filed yesterday, the Mountain View Water Company asks $15,000 damages from the Consolidated Water Company of Pomona and an injunction to restrain the latter company from maintaining certain dams which, it is alleged, prevent the San Antonio Creek from taking its natural course across the lands of the plaintiff company.

DAMAGE SUIT. Another damage suit against the Los Angeles and Redondo Railway Company, based on an allegation of injuries received in the collision at Forty-second street and Wesley avenue August 13, 1960, is on trial in Department Four of the Superior Court. In this action C. A. Shirley, whom the complaint alleges is injured for life, asks $20,450 damages.

FOR ALIENATION. In a suit filed yesterday in the County Clerk's office Elmer E. King asks $15,000 damages from L. J. Good for alienation of his wife's affections. Good is charged with inducing Mrs. Ruth E. King to leave her husband June 18, 1906.

ALLEGED FORGER ACQUITTED. A. L. Hadsel, who was tried yesterday in Department One of the Superior Court on a charge of passing a fictitious check, was acquitted by a jury on the first ballot. Hadsel was accused of passing a check for $67.50 September 1, 1904. His identification as the man who had indorsed the fictitious check was not very positive.

YOUTH INSANE. Forrest Boyer, aged 16, whose home has been with his parents in Huntington Park, was committed to Highland yesterday. He is subject to epileptic fits in which he has a mania for destruction, breaking furniture and attacking his parents.

CAPT. HALL AGAIN. A. W. Hall and John Warnell yesterday withdrew the complaints each had filed against the other. Warnell had charged Hall with trespass, while the ex-captain of the Rover had filed a complaint against the present possessor for threats to kill.

CATALINA FIGHT. The demurrer to the injunction suit brought by the Santa Catalina Island Company against the Meteor Boat Company was argued yesterday in Judge Monroe's court. Attorneys for the boat company declared that an injunction was not the proper remedy for the Catalina company if their rights had been invaded, but a civil suit for damages to the fence along the beach at Avalon. In one form or another this matter bids fair to remain in the courts for many weeks, since both parties are determined to fight it out.

NEW CORPORATIONS. Papers were filed yesterday in the County Clerk's office by the Fulton Marine Construction Company, to do a general boat building business at Terminal Island, capital stock $50,000, of which $9620 is paid up; the Silver Gate Cereal Company, Los Angeles, capital stock $10,000, fully paid; the Jones & Ryder Land Company, $100,000; $15,000 paid.

SUE BOND COMPANY HEAD.

Stock Purchasers Ask That President Be Adjudged Personally Responsible for Concern's Debts.

On the charge of selling them stock and certificates in the Southern Mutual Investment Company, now the American Reserve Bond Company of Lexington, Ky., James K. Christian and Othello R. Marshall yesterday entered suit in the United States Circuit Court against George M. Asher formerly president of the above corporation.

It is alleged that the concern was declared insolvent, and that at all times the legal limit to the indebtedness of the company had been passed, and that the concern's real condition had been kept from the plaintiffs. The amount of stock the plaintiffs purchased is small, and it is said that the suit was brought as a test case in the interest of creditors of the concern who hold about $1,800,000. The plaintiffs pray that Asher be brought into court and adjudged personally responsible for the debts of the concern.

Statement by Dist.-Atty. Fredericks.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 28.—[To the Editor:] About ten days ago the Los Angeles Daily Examiner began to publish certain articles, which they claimed to be from the records of Los Angeles county, bearing to do with the purchasing of oil land on the roads. These articles came to my attention a few days later by being submitted to me by a reporter of the Examiner, who came to me and demanded to know if I should give him my version as to whether the facts published by the Examiner constituted a crime—if so, what crime. He demanded that I should state then and there whether the Board of Supervisors and numerous road commissioners were guilty of felonies. I informed him at that time that a charge of that nature emanating from the District Attorney was a very grave matter, that the District Attorney was not authorized to charge people with crime in any other manner than by filing a complaint against them in court. I told him that I would be very glad to be furnished with the facts which he had in his possession, and after considering them would decide whether the matter was such as would demand the expense of an investigation. He refused to give me any facts other than to refer me to the articles published in his paper. Since my interest in the matter, I am sure, was that of one of newspaper enterprise, and not from any desire to purify our civil government. From past experience with members of the Examiner staff I was satisfied that we could not rely upon them for any material assistance in the investigation which had for its purpose the ascertainment of facts and the punishment of any guilty party of an offense. This belief was formed from the fact that one of the prominent members of their staff lost his membership when we subpoenaed him as a witness in a case of vote-buying. In this case, which took the length of the city in a cab, with a man who bought his vote, afterward drew a picture of that man which was published. He identified that picture before the grand jury, but when called upon to testify upon the trial against the defendant was unable to identify him. This is still one of the trusted employés of the Examiner.

In this experience I felt it necessary before undertaking whatever investigation I desired to make entirely on my own account, and so wrote to the chairman of the Board of Supervisors, and stated to him what charges had been made against the board and asked him to inform me of the facts and premises—not primarily forgetting to say in the case, but for the purpose of maintaining the attitude of the Board of Supervisors. The chairman of the Board of Supervisors replied and personally gave me such information as he had at first hand, and we determined to make a preliminary investigation of the matter in order to ascertain whether a rigid investigation would be necessary, in view of the fact that all of the matters charged in the articles had been gone over by the examining grand jury, and nothing indictable discovered. The Examiner attempted to stampede me into a spectacular affair by first publishing imaginary articles as to what the District Attorney was going to do, coupled with flattering photographs of the District Attorney and of his deputies. The purpose of the Examiner was very plain. It was a readily apparent matter for its paper; but it was readily apparent to me that it was not to be stampeded—first, because I was thoroughly apparent to me that in view of an investigation would be of the fact that the offense of an investigation would had but recently passed on

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

GARDENER ROBS BENEFACTRESS.

Possibility of Insanity May Result in Culprit Going to Asylum Instead of Jail—Chinese Draws Revolver on Garbage Man — Gold Theft Case Being Unraveled.

Paul Hendrick, a gardener, who has lived in Los Angeles about twenty years, was yesterday found guilty in Police Court of stealing. The man will be sentenced today and the police and the court are in doubt as to whether the jail or the insane asylum will ultimately get him.

Hendrick got work with Mrs. Sarah Johns, who lives in the University district. He was to tend garden for his room and board and to earn money elsewhere. But he did not work, according to the testimony of the woman. Instead he stole from her and from others. Ordered to leave, he flatly refused. One night a patrolman followed him as he walked away with a hoe from Mrs. John's place. The officer found that Hendrick had hidden away where he placed the hoe, a lot of potted plants and garden implements. Others he had sold. On the witness stand the prisoner showed indications of insanity. It is thought that drink is the cause of his mental state and if this proves permanent he may be examined before a lunacy commission. Today he will come up for sentence on the petit larceny charge.

Statement by Dist.-Atty. Fredericks.

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 28.—[To the Editor.] About ten days ago the Los Angeles Daily Examiner began to publish certain articles, which they claimed to be from the records of Los Angeles county, having to do with the purchasing of oil lands on the roads. These articles came to my attention a few days later by being submitted to me by a reporter of the Examiner, who came to me and demanded to know that I should give him my opinion as to whether the facts published by the Examiner constituted a crime—if so, what crime. He demanded that I should state then and there whether the Board of Supervisors and numerous road officials were guilty of felonies. I informed him at that time that a publication of that nature emanating from the District Attorney was a very grave matter, that the District Attorney was not accustomed to charge people with crime in any manner other than by filing a complaint against them in court. I told him that I would be very glad to be furnished with any data which he had in his possession, but after considering them would decide whether the matter was such as would demand the expense of an investigation. He had no facts other than to refer me to the articles published in his paper. I am interested in the matter, I am sure, was actuated by no motive of newspaper enterprise, and had in mind only a desire to purify our civil government. From past experience with members of the Examiner staff I was satisfied that we could not rely upon them for any material assistance in an investigation which had for its purpose the ascertainment of facts and the punishment of any violation of law or of an offense. This belief was strengthened by the fact that one of the prominent members of their staff lost his membership as subpoenaed him as a witness in a case of vote-buying, in this case their attempt to stuff the ballot box of the city in a ward with a man who bought his vote. Afterward drew a picture of that man which was published. He identified that picture before the grand jury, but when called upon to testify upon the trial against the man he was unable to identify him. This man is still one of the trusted employés of the Examiner.

In view of this experience I felt it necessary to make whatever investigation I deemed necessary to make entirely on my own account. I wrote to the chairman of the Board of Supervisors, and stated to him what charges had been made against the board, and requested him to inform me of the facts in the premises—not primarily forgetting that in the case, but for the purpose of showing the attitude of the Board of Supervisors. The chairman of the Board of Supervisors replied and personally gave me such information as he had at first hand. I then determined to make a preliminary investigation of the matter in order to ascertain whether a rigid investigation would be necessary, in view of the fact that many of the matters charged in the articles had been gone over by the examining grand jury, and nothing improper discovered. The Examiner attempted to stampede me into a spectacular action by first publishing imaginary charges as to what the District Attorney ought to do, coupled with flattering paragraphs of the District Attorney and some of his deputies. The purpose of the Examiner was very plain. It was a matter for its paper; but it was apparent to me that it was trying to be stampeded first, because it was not thoroughly apparent to me that the facts of an investigation would be to the interest of the public. In view of the fact that the Examiner had but recently passed on all these matters through their experts, which certainly justified me in presuming that the charges of the Examiner were not such as could serve as the foundation for criminal or other actions; second, because the District Attorney has no power to authority to make an investigation of this kind single-handed, and which would be effective in the absence of a grand jury or an authorized investigation by the Board of Supervisors. The District Attorney cannot compel any witness to talk. This can only be done by a grand jury subpoena, which is out of the question at present, or by a subpoena from the Board of Supervisors.

It was apparent then that in order to make a thorough investigation, if such was deemed necessary, I must either have the authority of the Board of Supervisors, or the empaneling of a grand jury. An investigation of this character through the grand jury would cost the county of Los Angeles approximately $10,000. It is certainly the duty of the District Attorney to make a sufficient preliminary examination of a matter to enable him to come to a reasonable conclusion as to whether it would be proper to expend so much money together with the labor of nineteen citizens of the county, and whether such investigation would be reasonably certain of success. The other alternative was to have the supervisors authorize an investigation, which would permit of the subpoening of witnesses. This the supervisors were perfectly willing to do.

For several days this preliminary investigation has been carried on by the regular members of my office for the purpose of ascertaining whether any extended investigation was necessary. It did not seem proper to me to advise the Los Angeles Examiner or the press generally as to what course I was pursuing, and accordingly the Examiner, having run out of new matter upon which to base its charges, began on last Friday to republish the same old charges, and continued to do so up until this morning, when, seeing that its endeavors to coerce the District Attorney by flattery were unavailing, they tried the other cowardly alternative of publishing a miserable caricature of the District Attorney together with a garbled interview and an editorial containing several more or less thinly veiled threats against the District Attorney, because he declined to continue to publicly stir up a dust and thereby furnish fodder for the Examiner mill.

In conclusion permit me to say that the charges which the Examiner makes are these:

First, that the road men throughout the various districts who are deputized as county clerks for the purpose of taking oaths, and therefore may be considered technically to be county officers, although in reality they have none of the authority of a county officer, were guilty of having claims of men in their employ and others assigned to them for collection from the county.

Second, that a man by the name of Thaxter had entered into a contract with the county for the furnishing of oil to the county without the contract having been advertised.

Third, that Thaxter delivered a portion of this oil to himself, he being a road foreman in the Florence district.

Fourth, that certain men had put in claims for working for the county in two or more places on the same day.

Fifth, that several, three or four, carloads of oil had been bought by the county and lost and unaccounted for.

If an investigation is to be had in this matter it must necessarily cover the entire expenditure of road money in some district—over $100,000, apportioned in hundreds of small claims. If the District Attorney were to pitch pellmell into a long tedious and expensive examination (without a preliminary survey) covering the same ground which was covered by the grand jury experts at great expense to the county, and find as the grand jury experts found that everything was correct, it seems to me the District Attorney would be justly subject to very severe censure. For several days past this preliminary investigation has been in the hands of Mr. Shaw, Mr. McCormick of this office, and of two of our detective force. The records are voluminous—the Examiner reporter informed me he had worked on them a month to discover the few cases which he alleges.

I will guarantee that in much less time than that we will conclude an investigation which will entirely satisfy the public, and we will follow the trail, no matter where it leads, hoping to find that no officer of Los Angeles county has been guilty of crime, but absolutely fearless as to what the results of our investigation may develop. Our conduct of the affairs of this office is, and has been, so far as possible, an open book. It has been, and is and will continue to be our policy to live each day so that we will, if necessary, incur the enmity even of the Los Angeles Examiner, without fear.

J. D. FREDERICKS,
District Attorney.

THOUSANDS "TAKE A LOOK."

Opening of Swift's Branch House on East First Street Attracts Many Visitors.

Swift & Company have closed down business for two days and two nights to celebrate the opening of their newly remodeled branch house at First and Santa Fé.

Yesterday was the first opening day, and thousands took advantage of the general invitation to inspect the house between 10 a.m. and 10 p.m. The house was artistically decorated throughout in red and white, natural flowers and pepper boughs. Three carloads of material, consisting of electric lights, paper mache effects, etc., were brought from Chicago to adorn the building. Swift & Company, previous to the earthquake, gave a large exhibition in San Francisco at the opening of their new house there. Last July a similar opening was held in Seattle with an attendance of 80,000 people in two days.

On entering the local house, the first exhibit is of the produce and canned goods. The visitor then goes into the basement and is shown each successive step in the manufacture of the famous Premium hams and bacon. All the ham and bacon handled by Swift & Company in Los Angeles comes from select eastern corn-fed hogs. Toothsome displays of ribs and loins of corn-fed cattle are to be seen on the first floor. These ribs and loins are all from Illinois and Indiana. An interesting display is that of the milk-fed chickens raised and fed by Swift & Company on their special diet at their large feeding stations. Several of these fowls have been cooked and are on display. Many kinds of sausage, head-cheese and other delicacies are shown cut and all ready to be eaten. The soap display is one of the most attractive. The feather pillow display is also of much interest.

Guests are personally conducted through the house and were shown every courtesy by employés. The idea is to forget business for a few days, no goods being sold.

Punch, sandwiches and coffee are served by pretty girls from booths on the second floor, while a good orchestra furnishes music.

The opening will continue today.

Paul Morton was re-elected president of the Equitable Life Assurance Society at the annual meeting of the board of directors yesterday in New York. W. A. Day was elected vice-president; George T. Wilson, formerly third vice-president, was elected second vice-president; C. E. Phelps, who was assistant secretary, was chosen treasurer, and G. R. Brown, formerly deputy controller, was promoted to controller. All the other officers were re-elected.

The Eminent Pianist, says of the famous
Mason & Hamlin
...PIANO...

"I consider that as an instrument for bringing into prominence the qualities of tone and touch of the player, the Mason & Hamlin stands absolutely pre-eminent.

What Others Say

Emil Paur says:
"It is unsurpassed so far as I know."

Moritz Moszkowski says:
"It has a full singing tone and the action is most satisfactory. Taken as a whole, it is, I believe, an instrument of the very first rank."

Heinrich Gebhard says:
"The Mason & Hamlin pianos have all the elements which make for the perfection in a pianoforte—beautiful quality of tone, power, brilliancy, as well as an excellently working mechanism."

Elsa Von Grave-Jonas says:
"It is the artist's delight to feel the absolute evenness of action, the sensitive responsiveness, and with it all a tone of extra beauty—mellow, singing, yet powerful. The Mason & Hamlin pianos of today cannot be surpassed."

And hundreds of other prominent musicians have given voluntary testimonials equally as strong. The music loving public can well afford to follow the choice of such leaders in the musical world.

DELAY IS FATAL—MAKE FIFTY PER CENT BY BUYING ROTARY ENGINE STOCK TODAY

Shares Worth One Dollar Today Will Sell for a Dollar Fifty Next Wednesday

Many Buyers Outside of Los Angeles Are Using the Telegraph to Option Stock. The Sale of This Industrial Security is Simply Phenomenal. Buy Today.

This is a great profit that presents itself to the investor in Crescent Rotary Steam Engine Company stock. Fifty per cent. advance next Wednesday, March sixth. That this rise is warranted is proven by the earning capacity of the enterprise as an industry of the highest class. The early consummation of the sale of German rights for nearly a million dollars will bring the value up to nearer five dollars a share before the year is out. Mr. Larson, vice-president and trustee of the parent company at Spokane, has had phenomenal good fortune in reaching the thoughtful investing class in and about Los Angeles. The allotment of stock he has held and which he has offered at one dollar per share, is the only amount that will be offered in this market at the dollar price. He says that there is only a small amount now left to sell at one dollar, and that he would not be surprised if it were all taken before next Wednesday. In conversation with a large power user the other day, a man thoroughly competent to speak on these matters said that he was convinced that in the Crescent Rotary Steam Engine, the power user was provided energy which would solve the greatest problem that confronted the manufacturer in the installation of his plant. In these times when factory sites are of vital importance, competition driving every one to the closest economy in every department, this engine came as a savior to many, for it enabled the manufacturer to get his plant into the smallest possible space as regards his energy, or power plant. Close-in locations might be utilized, which with the ordinary type of steam engine would be quite out of the question. To the growing business, too, here was a power plant that could grow. If prosperity creates a call for larger output, with the ordinary engine it would be necessary to sell at second-hand or throw in the scrap heap the outgrown power plant, while with the Crescent Rotary type all that is needed is about a couple hundred dollars or so for another and hitch the two together and more power is provided. No rebuilding of enginehouse or factory. This manufacturer, too, could see the enormous market and the tremendous profit in the manufacture of these engines, and expressed his convictions in the most practical manner by taking and paying cash for a goodly block of this stock at one dollar. Another gentleman, in talking of this stock, said that he could remember back the few short years when Western Union shares were begging on the market and he had opportunity of getting hold of a big block, when he thought of the wealth that might be his in their ownership now, he said he was not going to take the risk of having to pay even a dollar fifty per share for Crescent Rotary Steam Engine stock by waiting until next week, but would take all he could get hold of and pay for now while the price was only one dollar—rock bottom. If you can't get to 212 Mercantile Place you had better telegraph Mr. James Austin Larson, reserving as much as you can pay for. Write and send him the money soon, for a week from now may be too late to get into this good thing even at any price.

RAILROAD MANAGERS NOT ASLEEP.

The business world today in America finds one of its chief difficulties in the failure of the railroads to render services sufficiently prompt to meet immediate demands. The merchants know for the most part only one side of the question. The railroads have a story of their own to tell.

It might be reasonably assumed that the common carriers would not go to sleep, but would use due diligence to maintain their equipment at a point of efficiency which would meet the demands of business. Let us see what they have done in this direction. Taking a period of seven years, the freight cars ordered by the railroads of the United States run like this: In 1900, ordered 115,631 cars and 3153 locomotives; 1901, ordered 136,950 freight cars and 3384 locomotives; 1902, ordered 162,599 freight cars and 4070 locomotives; 1903, ordered 153,195 freight cars and 5142 locomotives; 1904, ordered 60,866 freight cars and 3441 locomotives; 1905, ordered 165,455 freight cars and 5491 locomotives; 1906, ordered 249,500 freight cars and 6952 locomotives; total orders for seven years, 1,035,129 freight cars and 31,532 locomotives. These figures do not indicate somnolence nor carelessness on the part of the managers of railroads.

The railroad experts figure that freight cars average twenty-five miles per car a day in service. This is a very low average rate. The reason assigned for this low rate is the large average time required to load and unload freight cars. The average time consumed in loading and unloading is nine days. It would certainly seem as if one-half this number of days would be sufficient to load and unload a car of freight. Figuring the average service of a car in miles per day, if the time of loading and unloading were reduced 50 per cent., leaving four and a half days for this service, it would be the same as adding 1,700,000 freight cars to the equipment of the railroad. Now to add that number of freight cars to the equipment of the railroads of the country would cost $1,300,000,000; and 4 per cent. interest would add $53,000,000 to the fixed charges of operating the railroads.

It is unnecessary to make extended comment upon these figures. They speak eloquently for themselves. The railroad managers in speaking of these facts and conditions are not disposed to lay great blame upon the merchants of the country. They exact a demurrage charge for the holding of cars loading and unloading beyond a specified time. The charge is merely nominal, not intended to cover the use of the car as a warehouse, but simply to stimulate the energies of the merchants.

The destruction of San Francisco had a great deal to do with this difficulty in furnishing freight cars to carry the merchandise of the country. The warehouses of the city were swept off of the face of the earth. The stocking of that great city with merchandise after the fire called for the use of an exceedingly large number of freight cars; and in addition to this call, we must consider that these cars had to be left to serve as warehouses and furnish store room for this merchandise for days and weeks.

COST OF CITY GOVERNMENT.

The Salt Lake Tribune of February 22 sets forth an elaborate exhibit of the cost of governing that city during the year 1906. To get a clear conception of what the figures mean, it will be necessary to recall to mind that the population of the city of Salt Lake is claimed to be about 85,000. The area of the city is smaller in ratio to that of Los Angeles than the population. Salt Lake is territorially quite compact.

From the report of the Auditor of Salt Lake for the year 1906 it appears that the total cost of city government for the year amounted to $1,726,129.03. Segregated into several sections, the general administration cost $27,822.11. The legislative branch of the government cost $15,766.71. The legal department cost $21,378.49. The elections cost the city as follows: One municipal election, $1712.36; voting machines, $4471.21; storing the same, $1084.50. There was expended on the City Hall $15,606.91, making a total cost of general administration of $100,624.96.

The fire department cost something over $52,000; police and prison nearly $74,000; health department something over $26,000; city courts nearly $9000; inspectors nearly $5000, making a total cost for public safety of over $190,000.

Under the head of public conveniences, as highways and sanitation, streets and sidewalks cost nearly $84,000, sewers and drains a trifle over $3000, waterworks about $63,000, water supply and irrigation nearly $43,000, cemetery $18,000, and street lighting nearly $36,000, making under this head of public conveniences a total charge of very nearly $260,000. The parks cost nearly $10,000, public charities almost the same figure. There was spent on the library of the city a little short of $8000. There was paid out on interest a little more than $167,000.

The total disbursements for ordinary purposes were $851,013.97, and for betterments, $875,115.06.

The Attorney's office for salaries cost the city $6729.70; the Auditor's office for salaries, $5291; City Council salaries, $8185.30; Engineer's office salaries, $1696.35; the janitor's department for salaries, $7783.55; the city courts for salaries, $2506 for the civil division

Salaries in the Juvenile Court cost $2823. Salaries for the pound cost $611. In the fire department salaries came to $45,167.75.

Comparing the population of Salt Lake with that of Los Angeles, the area of Salt Lake with that of Los Angeles, it would seem as if the total cost of government in the Utah city is large as compared with that in our own city. A comparison of the salary pay roll in the two cities would certainly be very much in favor of the city of Salt Lake.

Liquor licenses bring into the city treasury of Salt Lake a gross sum of $142,450. Licenses paid by merchants bring in nearly $24,000, and licenses for miscellaneous purposes something over $31,000.

A peculiar institution in Salt Lake is that the city owns a cemetery, whose maintenance cost $18,026.20. Of this cemetery expense $13,200.80 went for labor. The receipts from this city institution amounted to $14,216.70, indicating that even in cemeteries public ownership is not a paying investment.

CONSOLIDATION.

In the smoke and confusion of the battle over annexation of towns contiguous to Los Angeles, the main point has been lost to sight, and that is the consolidation of city and county governments. Los Angeles is not desirous of expansion of territory for her own aggrandisement. She has made that plain by her refusal to take in some twenty square miles of suburban territory, whose inhabitants were eager to be annexed, that they might have the benefit of urban values and improvements. It is not the purpose of the advocates of consolidation to create a "Greater Los Angeles," boasting of great area and scattered centers of population within nominal city limits.

The Consolidation Commission was created to formulate a plan for simplifying the machinery of government and abolishing superfluous and expensive offices, and it has recommended consolidation under the borough system. It is desirable that the harbor cities be more closely associated with Los Angeles, but annexation of San Pedro should be regarded only as a step toward consolidation, not the end and aim of the movement, and if annexation is not immediately possible, the work of preparing the way for consolidation may go on.

The important thing is to do away with the duplication of offices in city and county. One assessor could value all property in the county for purposes of taxation; one tax collector could receive the taxes, and the work would be done better, more equitably and more economically than it is done now. There are many ways in which merger of city and county offices would be beneficial to the taxpayer.

It was not expected, when the movement toward consolidation was started, that the end would be reached in a year. Obstacles and difficulties in the law were foreseen, and opposition was looked for. It may require the work of some years to remove the obstacles and overcome the opposition, but Los Angeles city and county will not disappear from the map in the meantime, and recognition of the advantages of consolidation will spread among the people of the county and insure adoption of the simplified form of government when it is presented to them.

Consolidation is not dead because Savage of San Pedro happens to be temporarily in a position to block annexation.

NO GUSHERS IN CITY.

The warning served on the City Council and Fire Commissioners by Oil Inspector Blackmar in regard to the danger that would arise if a gusher of light gassy oil were brought in within the city limits, is one that should receive careful attention. It requires but a slight knowledge of oil matters to know that it is not at all unlikely that if the drill is driven deep enough, the same stratum of light oil tapped west of the city may be opened somewhere in the old districts near Westlake or on the east side. Any one who has ever seen or read of a gusher will not need be told of the danger to the entire city should one get beyond control and the outpouring stream become ignited.

There is not a question of confiscatting property or forcing the abandonment of existing wells. All who know anything of Los Angeles' history know what oil has done for us, and it was the old city wells that did much of it, too. Now, however, there is oil for our needs outside of the city's residence sections and there is no need of destroying the city's appearance or of endangering its existence by attempting to bring in large uncontrollable wells of light, gassy oil here. Action should be taken before the intention of deep drilling is carried out.

FRANCE AS A MONEY MARKET.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company some months ago succeeded in the unusual task of negotiating a heavy loan in the French money market. It was pointed out at that time that some relief in stringent conditions governing money would probably be effected by further loans in the French market.

The latest achievement in this line has been made by the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company, which has recently placed a loan of $29,000,000 in Paris. There is talk of further loans being negotiated in the same quarter. It is easily understood why the railroad managers of the United States turn to France when we recall that the Southern Railroad recently, on a sum of $15,000,000, running for two years, obtained in the New York money market, had to pay 5½ per cent. for the accommodation.

It is interesting to figure out what this French money costs. The flat rate paid the lender in Paris is 4 per cent., but that is by no means the total expense. In the first place, the French government imposes a stamp tax upon all such loans. This loan of the Hartford and New Haven Railroad was made for fifteen years, and the French stamp tax during that period will amount to $261,000. It is .6 of 1 per cent. per annum. Again, there is a transfer tax, which amounts of .2 of 1 per cent. annually on the average price of the bond for the preceding year. At par this would add .2 of 1 per cent. to the cost of the money. Then there is the income tax, which amounts to 4 per cent. upon the 4 per cent. rate paid for the money, or .16 of 1 per cent. a year. Adding these percentages, the money cost very nearly 4½ per cent. per annum to the American borrower. For a loan such as the above the total cost per annum to the borrower sums up $277,800 a year.

The figures certainly are far from indicating an easy condition in the money market. When an institution of the strength of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company borrows $29,000,000 for fifteen years and pays almost 4½ per cent. per annum for the accommodation in what is known to be the cheapest money market in the world, it goes a long way toward reconciling local borrowers in the Los Angeles market, who have to pay from 5½ to 7 per cent. for loans ranging from $1000 to perhaps $50,000 for from one to two or three years.

GOOD BYE, OLD CHAP!

LAUGHTER.

In the dim world's early morn,
There was jolly laughter born.

Vied the fairies at his birth
Each to give him boons of worth.

Tinkling music they bestowed,
Happiness along the road;

Power to ease the griefs of men,
Bind the broken hearts again.

Quoth the last to enter in:
"I shall give to him a twin.

"Like, yet unlike he shall be,
Puzzling all who hear and see."

Then the fairy waved her wand—
Waved, and disappeared beyond.

Slumbered in one cradle near

COMMITTEE GETS BIG CHECK, AND VICTIMS HELPED.

The largest sum for relief yet turned in to the Explosion Relief Committee from any source for the benefit of the victims of the explosion in the Rawson building at Second street and Center Place on February 13, was paid to William D. Stephens as treasurer of the Explosion Relief Committee, by The Times yesterday with a check for $4746.

Besides this check, representing the generous contributions to The Times fund, two checks, each for $5, to the order of Miss May Anderson, who is in the Pacific Hospital with two crushed legs, was turned over to the committee and will be at once forwarded to Miss Anderson by Secretary Wesley Clark. Herman Boessler, a tailor, slightly injured in the explosion and who had a remarkable escape from death, was helped with $10 out of The Times fund through a member of the committee, thus showing a total turned over to the Relief Committee of $4766. The balance of The Times fund, with contributions that are likely to follow, will be turned over to the treasurer later.

WORK OF COMMITTEE.

A long and busy meeting of the Relief Committee was held at the office of Secretary Clark, No. 127 West Third street, yesterday, and the sums already contributed to the sufferers from the explosion, many of them given out by the other newspapers and by Christ Episcopal Church before the appointment of the Relief Committee, were tabulated to show just what cash relief has already been received by the beneficiaries of the fund, and added disbursements ordered for the month of March.

Each individual case was taken up separately and inquired into, the various members of the committee formerly appointed to investigate making their reports. A number of cases where reports had been made to the committee by women claiming to be seriously injured were decided to be unwarranted and requests for assistance were denied.

This evening a concert will be given at the Hotel Leighton, Sixth and Lake streets, under the auspices of the hotel guests for the benefit of the explosion relief fund. Miss Ethel Mitchell, cornetist; Miss Georgia Mitchell, soprano; Mrs. Bernard Halberg, accompanist; Mr. Crouch and others have volunteered their services for the occasion.

Arrangements are now under way for a monster benefit at Fiesta Park on March 10, a week from Sunday. President W. M. Morris of the Victoria football team and President John Hamilton of the Caledonian football team are the prime movers. They propose to play a match game with the two teams—a soccer game—all the proceeds to go to the relief fund.

ANGELENO ACTRESS WEDS.

MUSIC AND THE STAGE.

Advices from Chicago state that John Daly Murphy, a very well-known character actor, has just been engaged to play at the Belasco theater here. Murphy has been connected with the company at the Chicago Opera-house.

This information seems reliable, and it is probable that Murphy has been employed to take the place just vacated by George Barnum in the acting ranks of the company. He is a player of attainments, and is very favorably known throughout the profession, though his acquaintance with Western audiences is limited. Murphy, in the past, has made a marked success in the line of parts assumed by Mr. Barnum here.

Manager John H. Blackwood was not accessible last evening to either affirm or deny this Chicago report.

Mr. Barnum, from reports, seems to have made up his mind to go East.

Miss May Catherine Smith, a pretty and ambitious Los Angeles girl, is winning her way rapidly in the theatrical world, and this season has been honored as leading support of Mme. Helena Modjeska.

The famous tragedienne has just completed a successful tour of Canada and the Middle West, and her company is now approaching New York, where it will rest and prepare a number of new plays for the spring tour, which will take in seasons in Boston and Chicago. Mme. Modjeska will then return to California, making her permanent home in the vicinity of San Diego.

Miss Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Smith of No. 2219 Hobart boulevard. She has done some very clever acting this year in different Shakespearean parts, and has received many favorable critical comments.

Miss Smith will spend her summer vacation with her parents here, and will then return to New York to take up an engagement for which she is already contracted. She is but 20 years of age.

An evening newspaper discusses with zest the possibilities of Tivoli opera in Los Angeles.

As a matter of fact, the turning of the famous San Francisco company toward this city is no new thing. For more than a year the managers of the concern have been trying to find a sales place here for their line of amusement goods.

On the very morning of the earthquake, it was hoped that a combine with the Auditorium would be effected. The next move was toward the Hotchkiss, when E. A. Fischer's management seemed prospective.

The Tivoli name, by the way, has been devoted to several uses, and two or three companies were using it this summer.

Two carloads of scenery and properties of the San Carlo Opera Company arrived in Los Angeles last evening, including the complete equipment for the first two operas, "La Gioconda" and "Rigoletto."

The paraphernalia will be stored in a new warehouse on Requena street—as, indeed, will be all the belongings of the company not actually in use at the individual performances at the palm garden.

The management of the company avers that the scenic investiture of "Gioconda" is the heaviest and most elaborate carried by any opera company on tour in this country.

Actual work on the new stage will be begun this morning, under the direction of Nat Roth, general manager, Sig. Albertieri, stage manager, and William Neel, chief electrician.

The company itself will not arrive until Sunday and Monday, coming on two special trains, which will be run, on the two nights named, as second sections of the Golden State Limited.

Riverside and Redlands music lovers have united to charter a special train for the opening night, next Tuesday.

CHANGE OF VENUE BILL.

Vote in the Assembly on Measure to Protect Abe Ruef—Los Angeles Members.

[From the San Francisco Chronicle.]

What our criminal laws need is strengthening. What the Assemblymen did who voted for the law to enable criminals to choose their judges was to still further weaken them. The criminal law and procedure of California is a disgrace to civilization because under them it is now virtually impossible to punish any criminal with money or "pull." What the Assembly has voted for is to make it still more difficult. What decency demands is respect for the majesty of the people as represented in their courts of justice. What we have is the continual flouting of the courts by the exhibitions of impudence and scarcely veiled contempt which disgrace every important criminal trial in this city. What the Assembly has done is to vote to still further degrade the judiciary and embolden the bulldozing attorneys by voting to displace the trial judge at the dictation of the lowest criminal. That the present bill was drawn in the interest of the San Francisco grafters and is pushed by them with the aid of the corporate interests which control the Legislature cannot be doubted.

The members of this Legislature are to find that they have gone a little too far. What they have done in this and other cases is not to be permitted to pass into oblivion. There is already a demand for the publication of the votes on questions of morality and decency in a permanent form to be made use of whenever one of these men again comes before the people. Upon this particular Change of Venue bill for the protection of felons the following Assemblymen voted for its passage:

D. W. Barry, San Francisco; D. J. Beban, San Francisco; S. H. Beckett, San Francisco; R. O. Bell, Los Angeles; Clyde Bishop, Orange; P. J. Boyle, San Francisco; E. I. Butler, Marin; F. F. Cogswell, Los Angeles; N. C. Coghlan, San Francisco; S. W. Collister, Sonoma; N. A. Cornish, Shasta and Modoc; W. J. Coster, Butte; J. A. Cullen, San Francisco; A. M. Drew, Fresno; Miguel Estudillo, Riverside; C. M. Fisher, San Francisco; P. F. Fratessa, San Francisco; P. V. Hammon, Los Angeles; F. H. Hartmann, San Francisco; W. D. L. Held, Mendocino; A. H. Hewitt, Sutter and Yuba; J. T. Higgins, Santa Clara; W. M. John, San Luis Obispo; Grove L. Johnson, Sacramento; P. A. Johnson, San Diego; J. H. Jury, San Mateo; F. J. Kelly, San Francisco; S. T. Kohlman, San Francisco; W. R. Leeds, Los Angeles; W. F. Lemon, San Bernardino; W. F. Ludington, San Diego; J. W. McClellan, Humboldt; J. I. McConnell, Yolo; H. W. McMullin, Kern; F. J. O'Brien, Sacramento; F. E. Pierce, Los Angeles; E. M. Pyle, Santa Barbara; G. W. Root, Nevada; G. W. Smith, Santa Clara; C. C. Spaulding, Santa Clara; P. A. Stanton, Los Angeles; Louis Strohl, San Francisco; Henry Thompson, San Francisco; N. W. Thompson, Los Angeles; D. J. Toomey, San Francisco; J. P. Transue, Los Angeles; F. M. Walsh, Alameda; R. K. Whitmore, Stanislaus and Merced; J. A. Wilson, San Francisco.

We leave it with the various constituencies to settle with their Assemblymen for their vote on this bill. For evidence of the complicity of the corporate interests we refer to the solid vote from Los Angeles county—seven out of a possible eight Assemblymen—Case not voting. It is probable that some of these members may claim that they were deceived in this matter. It was not possible. When fifteen out of eighteen members from San Francisco voted for a measure affecting practice in criminal trials it was conclusive evidence that the measure was in the interest of the criminal classes and demanded an adverse vote from every representative of decency. San Francisco, however, did furnish two votes against the bill—McKeon of the Thirty-fourth District and Wessling of the Thirty-sixth. Los Angeles did not furnish one.

SAFE PROFITABLE INCREASING IN VALUE

In the wise investment of money the first requirement is SAFETY, the second PROFIT, the third INCREASE IN VALUE.

The proposition made to investors by The Trustee Company fills all of these requirements.

This Company offers to investors Unit-Interests in the best property in Los Angeles, in any amount from $1,000 upward.

One of the properties in which these Unit-Interests are offered is the new ten-story steel-frame, fire-proof, office building under construction at 426-428-430 South Broadway. This property is valued at $525,000, and is divided into 525 Units, which are being sold at the price of $1,000 per Unit. At this price the ground value is just about $4,300 per front foot, and is the best investment on Broadway, with the single exception of Trustee Property No. 1, located at 340-342 South Broadway, in which this Company also has a few Units for sale.

Under the Unit-Ownership method of The Trustee Company any investor can place his capital, be it large or small, in the best income-paying business property in Los Angeles, with the same safety, profit and increase value, in proportion to the amount invested, as if he owned the whole property himself.

The Trustee Properties are always free of encumbrance, and under the terms of the title deeds, such properties never can be encumbered.

The property shows for itself; it can be examined at any time and its real value ascertained. If the whole property is worth $525,000—and we are satisfied that you will agree with us that it is—one Unit is worth $1,000, and is a most excellent investment at that price.

If you wish to invest less than $1,000, Units will be divided and sold in even tenths, at the rate of $100 per tenth.

This is a simple business proposition, and we shall be pleased to explain the method under which the ownership is divided and give you full information concerning the property, if you will write us or call at our office.

THE OIL INDUSTRY.

DEEP WELLS MENACE CI

PROBING FOR LIGHTER OIL ENDANGER PROPERTY.

Inspector Blackmar Warns Council and Fire Commissi Gusher in the Residence Sect Would Be a Very Serious Mat Money Saved by Testing Oil.

Oil Inspector Blackmar has submitt the fire commissioners a copy of R cent recommendations to the City C in regard to the drilling of deep within the city limits, in which he w warning of the consequences likely to ow the bringing of gushers such as been opened in nearby fields. The C has taken no action upon the report a but no engine or boilers can be put u drilling without permits from the fire missioners and a refusal of these would amply effective to prevent any further velopment.

The action is the result of the anno ment of intentions to drill test holes depth of from 2000 to 3000 feet in the of finding beneath the city streets and a stratum of light oil similar to tha the Salt Lake District, or at Whittier Fullerton. The fact that a fissure similar to that of the Salt Lake well struck in the deeper wells near West Park gives every reason for believing with greater depth the same variety quantity would be found. The Am mated passed through strata after st of varying grades before the lighter gr were found and the deepest wells drilled have uncovered still another stra of still lighter gravity.

No deep wells have ever been put in the city limits, but as wells on Amalgamated have flowed thousand barrels in a day when first opened the ditions that would result from a sim well in the city may be easily imag Such wells when the gas pockets are ope by the drill immediately get beyond trol in many cases. Oil shoots up over top of the derick with a roar that be heard for blocks and is thrown all the surrounding country. Imagine, if can, the bursting of an immense stor tank in the city streets and you will h some idea of the conditions that would sult, only they would be worse. Often human power can control one of these ga ers for days or even weeks after they br forth. The fact that the Union Oil Co pany was forced to give away thous from its Hartnell gusher in the country get rid of the surplus and prevent flam from flooding lands shows something what a spouter of this kind will do.

The inspector said yesterday that he d not wish to be understood as being oppos to the cleaning of existing wells, but new development with a view to bringi light oil, or the deepening of existing wel with that end in view. It is the intentio to enforce all ordinances to the letter.

Tests Save Money.

During 1906, 44,152,36 barrels of oil we used for fuel at municipal buildings an in street work. When tested by the st inspector deductions were made for wat and sediment amounting to a total o 1,136,79 barrels. Before the system of test was instituted payment was made on th basis of tank wagon capacity just as the oil was pumped without deduction. Fig uring the value of the oil at 50 cents, will be seen that these tests saved th city over $2700.

The oil is also tested for asphaltum, and if the percentage is not up to requirements additional applications must be made to bring it up to standard. Thus this work is not allowed to be neglected and if the re sults are not as desired, it is easy to place blame, the records showing the oil used and that the specifications were fol lowed.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Dignity of Dialect.

The book section of Ebell enjoyed a delightful session yesterday when Mmes. G. Aubrey Davidson and C. Q. Stanton gave dissertations on dialect. Mrs. Davidson, who enjoys a personal acquaintance with James Whitcomb Riley, presented his ideas on the dignity of dialect. Mr. Riley is of the opinion that dialect holds just as prominent a place in literature as anything else, and the fact that people use it does not argue that they are of lowly birth. Mrs. Davidson, in her review of Riley, brought out the point that he is the pioneer who introduced to literature the real child in his natural capacity. She recited some of his poems, both humorous and otherwise, in delightful fashion.

Mrs. Stanton, who is a southerner by birth, took up the life and works of the negro poet, Paul Laurence Dunbar, and read some of his dialect poems with all the art and grace of a southern woman. Altogether, the afternoon was one of keen enjoyment to the large audience of ladies assembled.

Music Section.

The Ebell department of music gave an enjoyable programme Tuesday under the leadership of Miss Florence Riley. Those who took part were Mmes. W. H. Jamison, Mary Schalert, Herbert L. Harris, Marion Welsh, F. A. Long, Clyde Welsh, Elizabeth A. Fonda, W. S. Marshall and Misses M. H. Wilson and Florence Riley. A luncheon followed the musical programme given in honor of Miss Helen Parcels, lecturer for the department, whose engagement has been recently announced. A large number of friends gathered around the handsomely appointed tables in the tea-room, and several clever toasts were given. Mrs. P. G. Hubert, president of Ebell, presented Miss Parcels with a beautiful cut-glass bowl, a gift from the members of the musical section to their beloved co-worker.

Diplomat to Lecture.

Today Friday Morning Club members will listen to a distinguished diplomat in the person of Irving B. Richman of Iowa. Mr. Richman was American Consul-General to Switzerland for five years, and he is to tell of "Consular Ways Among the Swiss Folk." Mr. Richman is an interesting speaker and knows his subject. He is an author of some note, also, besides being a lawyer. "John Brown," "Among the Quakers" and other sketches, "Pure Democracy and Pastoral Life in Inner Rhoden" and "Rhode Island, It's Making and Its Meaning" are from his pen.

THE OIL INDUSTRY.

DEEP WELLS MENACE CITY.

PROBING FOR LIGHTER OIL MAY ENDANGER PROPERTY.

Inspector Blackmar Warns the Council and Fire Commission. Gusher in the Residence Section Would Be a Very Serious Matter. Money Saved by Testing Oil.

Oil Inspector Blackmar has submitted to the fire commissioners a copy of his recent recommendations to the City Council in regard to the drilling of deep wells within the city limits, in which he served warning of the consequences likely to follow the bringing of gushers such as have been opened in nearby fields. The Council has taken no action upon the report as yet, but no engine or boilers can be put up for drilling without permits from the fire commissioners and a refusal of these would be amply effective to prevent any further development.

The action is the result of the announcement of intentions to drill test holes to a depth of from 2000 to 3000 feet in the hope of finding beneath the city streets and lots a stratum of light oil similar to that in the Salt Lake District, or at Whittier and Fullerton. The fact that a fissure very similar to that of the Salt Lake wells is struck in the deeper wells near Westlake Park gives every reason for believing that with greater depth the same variety and quantity would be found. The Amalgamated passed through strata after strata of varying grades before the lighter grades were found and the deepest wells just drilled have uncovered still another stratum of still lighter gravity.

No deep wells have ever been put down in the city limits, but as wells on the Amalgamated have flowed thousands of barrels in a day when first opened the conditions that would result from a similar well in the city may be easily imagined. Such wells when the gas pockets are opened by the drill immediately get beyond control in many cases. Oil shoots up over the top of the derick with a roar that can be heard for blocks and is thrown all over the surrounding country. Imagine, if you can, the bursting of an immense storage tank in the city streets and you will have some idea of the conditions that would result, only they would be worse. Often no human power can control one of these gushers for days or even weeks after they break forth. The fact that the Union Oil Company was forced to give away free oil from its Hartnell gusher to the county to get rid of the surplus and prevent damage from flooding lands shows something of what a spouter of this kind will do.

Around the wells of the Santa Maria, Salt Lake or other light gravity producers the utmost care is necessary to prevent fire. Smoking is strictly prohibited. This is true in all oil fields, but with a light gassy oil the danger is, of course, greater. The Union has already had one bad fire in the Santa Maria field.

All around the city wells are residences. Stores are found within a distance of a block of many and hundreds within sight. In these houses are lights and fires at all times and a child can readily see the danger, indeed, almost the certainty, of a disaster if such a gusher as the Hartnell were brought in and broke loose in such neighborhoods.

Mr. Blackmar's words on this question are worthy of note. He says, after expressing the opinion that should deep wells be drilled into the light sand a gusher will undoubtedly result, "It is needless to say that great damage to surrounding property would occur and the risk of a conflagration would be exceedingly great. It would be impossible to confine the large volume of oil escaping and the result would necessarily be petroleum in storm drains, sewers and in and over the streets of the city, a condition over which this department would be helpless."

The inspector said yesterday that he did not wish to be understood as being opposed to the cleaning of existing wells, but to new development with a view to bringing light oil, or the deepening of existing wells into that end in view. It is the intention to enforce all ordinances to the letter.

Tests Save Money.

During 1906, 44,592.26 barrels of oil were used for fuel at municipal buildings and street work. When tested by the oil inspector deductions were made for water and sediment amounting to a total of 1,702.79 barrels. Before the system of tests was instituted payment was made on the basis of tank wagon capacity just as the oil was pumped without deduction. Figuring the value of the oil at 50 cents, it will be seen that these tests saved the city over $700.

The oil is also tested for asphaltum, and the percentage is not up to requirements additional applications must be made to bring it up to standard. Thus this work is not allowed to be neglected and if the results are not as desired, it is easy to place the blame, the records showing the oil used and that the specifications were followed.

Espee Buys Tiber Oil.

The Tiber, the first and only company that so far obtained paying quantities in Coyote Grande, has succeeded in selling all its output to the Southern Pacific at 37½ cents. The railroad at first offered 25 cents, which was refused, then 30 and finally the figured named at which the contract was made. This is as high or higher than the railroad is known to be paying anywhere else in the State. It is very encouraging to those companies just entering the district. The capacity of the Tiber wells is estimated by Capt. McClure, the manager, as 600 barrels each.

Developing Arroyo Grande.

The Southern Oil Company has just been organized in this city to develop lands adjoining those of the Tiber Oil Company at Arroyo Grande. It is capitalized at $200,000 and is a close corporation. E. R. Feuerborn is president, L. A. Crandall, vice-president, and George H. Engelhard, secretary. Stockholders are R. H. Herron, W. L. Graves and E. S. Shattuck, all of Los Angeles.

The property on which the first string will be started is within a very short distance of the Tiber's two producing wells. Besides this the company has several other tracts in the district.

THREE KILLED. FORTY INJURED.

WORK TRAINS COLLIDE ON SALT LAKE RAILROAD.

Construction Train Carrying Greek Laborers to Scene of Recent Washout Crashes Into String of Cars Loaded With Track Material—Injured Coming to Los Angeles.

In the wreck of a construction train on the Salt Lake Railroad near Leith, Nev., yesterday morning, one man was instantly killed, two were so severely injured that they died later, and about forty were seriously injured. The dead are Greek laborers, and their names could not be learned.

The accident occurred a few hundred feet from the big washout, at which several gangs of men are working. A train of cars loaded with construction material was standing at the end of the break, with a box car on the down-track end. The camp of the men was down track some distance. At 8 o'clock in the morning a construction train of two loaded flat cars and an engine, which was pushing, stopped at the camp to take on laborers and run them up to the break. Foreman Conway's track gang, all Greeks, and Foreman Coghlan's gang of bridge carpenters, all whites, got on board.

For some unknown cause the construction train did not slow down on approaching the break, but crashed into the line of standing cars. The box car on the end climbed up on top of the end flat car, killing one man and injuring nearly all the rest on the forward end of the car. The rest of the laborers were seriously hurt by jumping from the car down the steep embankment. Many suffered broken legs and arms. Nearly all the injured are Greeks, who were on the forward car. Few of the bridge carpenters were injured, and none seriously.

The railroad maintains at the camp a hospital car and a surgeon. The injured were hastily cared for by the one doctor, and then as soon as possible taken to Las Vegas, where the company maintains a small hospital. There Drs. Heweston and Martin worked all day dressing the injuries of the victims, but some of them were in such condition that with the limited facilities at the small railroad hospital they could not be given the attention that they needed, although the railroad surgeons, assisted by other physicians, did all that men can do to relieve the suffering.

A special train was sent from Las Vegas to the scene of the accident and late yesterday afternoon this train started for Los Angeles. The train was given the right of way over every other train on the road and a record-breaking run probably will be made. It will reach Los Angeles some time this morning.

Arrangements have been made to have a number of ambulances meet the train and the injured will be taken to the various hospitals. A telegram to The Times from Las Vegas last night states that eight of the injured men will have to submit to capital operations and that others will also require expert surgical attention.

CONSUL MAKES STRONG DENIAL.

SAYS HE DID NOT LEAVE POST AT NOGALES.

Mexican Consuls Along Territorial Border Say There Is no Truth in the Report That They Have Been Working to Put Mexican Miners in Place of Union Men.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

TUCSON (Ariz.) Feb. 27.—A report is current that charges have been filed in the Department of State against Albert W. Brickwood, Jr., consul at Nogales, Sonora, lately named for promotion to the post at Puerto Cortez, Honduras. The charges are said to be supported by W. C. Greene, and founded upon alleged absence of the consul from his post during the labor riots at Cananea last September. Brickwood has printed an answer to the accusation, stating that he knows of no charges and that the imputations are false and ridiculous.

Several Mexican consuls along the Arizona border have made emphatic denial of the printed report that they have been working toward the placing of Mexican miners in the place of the union men lately discharged by the big copper companies at Bisbee. The denials state that the consuls are well informed that such a course would be in defiance of the immigration laws of the United States covering the importation of contract labor.

Two suits lately were brought by United States Attorney Alexander against the Arizona and New Mexico Railroad Company, charging the corporation with violations of the safety appliance law. The company has pleaded guilty in each case and has turned in to the United States authorities $250, in satisfaction of penalties and costs incurred.

The machinery in the Southern Pacific shops in Tucson hereafter will be run by electricity, a contract for the necessary power having been entered into with the local electric lighting company.

President Epes Randolph of the Sonora Railway has announced the appointment of A. R. Oster as superintendent of the road from Nogales to Guaymas. Mr. Oster is an old Southern Pacific employe, trainmaster of the Tucson division when Col. Randolph was its superintendent. Latterly he has been superintendent of the eastern division of the El Paso and Southwestern Railway system, with headquarters at El Paso. The other principal officers of the Sonora road will be those of the Randolph system, with headquarters in Tucson.

BUILD ROAD TO TIMBER.

A twenty-eight mile branch railroad is to be constructed by a lumber company into the Ajo Mountains of Northern Sonora from Mesa station on the Cananea, Rio Yaqui and Pacific Railroad. Mesa is about twenty miles south of Naco. The road will penetrate a large body of timber suitable for use in mines and for railroad ties and telegraph poles.

An automobile stage line has been started between Casa Grande station on the Southern Pacific and the town of Florence. Tucson has established a rock pile for the benefit of hobos who have been dropping off through freight trains in too large numbers to please the city authorities.

Tucson Council of the Knights of Columbus, the fifth instituted within Arizona, has been established in Tucson, favored with the episcopal blessing of Bishop Grandjon of the Catholic diocese of Arizona. Assisting in the installation were delegations of knights from Phoenix, Globe and Bisbee.

A Denver firm of brokers has purchased $50,000 in school bonds voted lately in Tucson school district. The bonds bear 4½ per cent, and were sold at a premium of $100. The money is to be used in the erection of a high school building.

Basketball has been abolished in the University of Arizona by order of the faculty council, on account of injuries received in the game by two female students. W. D. Chapin, formerly connected with the Los Angeles Military Academy, has been elected superintendent of the public schools of Tombstone, succeeding H. E. Hevner, who has resigned to become clerk of the county Board of Supervisors.

NOSE PAINTERS' ATTACK.

Still another attack is being made by the saloon-keepers of Globe upon the validity of the incorporation of that city. It is alleged that the incorporation proceedings were illegal, because nineteen separate petitions for incorporation were tacked together and presented as one.

R. Campio and S. A. Pina, Mexican brokers at Nogales, Sonora, are reported to have been arrested lately by the Mexican authorities, charged with smuggling operations through which the government was defrauded of $8000 in duties. Pina had been living on the northern side of the line for several months, but inadvisedly strayed into Sonora a few days ago, to be captured and imprisoned.

J. C. Clancy and Mrs. Jewell L. Daly have been arrested at Bowie on the Southern Pacific and taken to Tombstone, charged with burglary. The offense charged is unique in its particulars. It is told that they pair ran a lodging-house, with saloon annex. Their whisky, it is alleged, they secured by tapping barrels in box cars in transit for Globe, temporarily in the Bowie railroad yards. They were caught in the act of filling a demijohn from a tapped barrel.

E. P. Grindell of this city, after investigation of the late report of the finding of the body of his lost brother, Thomas Grindell, pronounces the story a canard. He has no doubt of his brother's death in the sands of the desert west coast of Sonora, but has given up hope that the body ever will be found.

An odd discovery made lately in Tucson was the bodies of two Yaqui Indian women in an adobe hut on the city farm. The women had died of consumption, probably about the same time, twelve hours or more before their bodies were found.

TURN PAUPERS BACK.

Two Mexican patients in the Cochise county hospital at Tombstone, a man and wife named Romero, lately were taken to the border at Douglas and turned over to the Mexican authorities. Paupers and sick, they had been brought across the line and dumped upon the county for care. This practice had been very general till lately. The Immigration Service officials are now paying especial attention to the inspection of immigrants.

A large flow of irrigating water is being developed along the Santa Cruz River, south of Tucson by means of pumping plants. The latest pumping enterprise projected is for the Canoa ranch, where 1500 acres are to be developed by the use of pumps with capacity for 7000 gallons a minute, costing, in place, $20,000. The ground is to be sown in alfalfa.

In the Probate Court in Tucson, Walter L. Vail, Jr., has been appointed administrator of the estate of his father, Walter L. Vail, the capitalist, killed by a street car in Los Angeles in December. His bond was set at $250,000. The appointment was made upon the application of Albert M. Stephens of Los Angeles, legal representative of the estate.

WARSHIP ARRIVES WITH SICK.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—The battleship Connecticut, of whose crew a large number contracted typhoid fever while cruising in West Indian waters, arrived here today. It has been reported that sixty-five members of the crew were stricken with the disease, and of these, fifteen are in a critical condition.

All of the sick men will be landed at the navy yard today and transferred to the Naval Hospital there.

Capt. Swift said that he brought thirty-two young enlisted men ill with typhoid fever, of whom two or three were seriously ill, and none was in a critical condition. The Connecticut also brought home fifty-four sick men from the other ships of Admiral Evans. The Connecticut will take on supplies and return to Guantanamo Bay for target practice.

The Kelly Coal Company at Danville, Ill., was sold yesterday to R. O. Hammond, J. K. Deering and Hugh Shirkie. It is stated the consideration was $4,000,000. The property was owned equally by John R. Walsh of Chicago and the Illinois Traction Railway system interests, and consists of five shafts in this sub-district, with an average output of 2,000,000 tons annually, and many thousands of acres of coal land.

Clusters of sweet peas were prominent decorative features of the parlor, and yellow jonquils graced the library, while the receiving-room was fragrant with white carnations. The guests of honor stood in front of a background of shining smilax, which occupied one corner of the reception-room. They were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Speicher's brother, Dr. E. H. SOLD AT GOOD FIGURE.

Property at Figueroa and Washington Streets Brings Five Hundred Dollars a Foot.

One of the most interesting real estate deals of the year was closed yesterday. The notable feature in this deal was not the amount involved. The interest lies in the locality and the price per foot for that locality. The property in question is the southeast corner of Figueroa and Washington streets, vacant, and the price was $500 a foot. Mrs. Edgar was the seller, and the lot is said to have gone to a syndicate of local investors. It is not many months since property more than ten blocks nearer the business center of Los Angeles could not be sold for that price. The old church property at Pico and Flower streets sold about four years ago for less than $150 a front foot, and that is seven city blocks closer in than Figueroa and Washington streets.

The consideration was at the rate of $700 a front foot. Mrs. Robbins owned the lot. Improvements consist of a two-story frame residence.

Other Sales.

A lot on the south side of Thirtieth street, forty feet west of Cimarron street, 40x139 feet, was reported to have been sold by Fred N. Porter to Chester A. Watkins for $2600. A modern five-room bungalow occupies the land. The sale of the two lots by Minnie Kiblet and Carrie Schuvilk to P. M. Coburn also was reported. The lots are on the west side of Brighton avenue, about 300 feet south of West Adams street, in the heart of one of the best residence sections of Los Angeles. The price was $4500. The property has a total frontage of 100 feet, and a depth of 143 feet. J. E. Pugh Realty Company acted as agents in the transactions. Mr. Davies of the Davies Lumber Company is said to have purchased a lot on the west side of Burlington avenue, between Seventh and Eighth streets, 50x150 feet, for $6500. A. P. ELECTRIC HEATING Goes to 80 Cents

Saturday Night, March 9

Results Already Accomplished

The Electric Heating Company is now located in its new factory at Dolgeville, just beyond the city limits of Los Angeles, where it has installed a complete equipment of modern machinery costing over $21,000, and to which it is about to add additional equipment amounting to nearly $3000. This will give it a complete plant, thoroughly up to date and surpassed by no other machine shop on the Pacific Coast. The various appliances are already so well known that it is almost superfluous to enumerate them. I will, however, mention the Electric Flat Iron, which is meeting with such favor that the company is absolutely swamped with orders. The Electric Toaster, Disc Heater (or hot plate,) as well as the Oven and Room Heater, are all selling readily and creating more friends for the company every day. In addition to the foregoing the company is now perfecting plans for a cooking range which will embody all the various features above mentioned and will include some additional devices which will appeal very strongly to the housewife and cook.

Mr. Leonard is also working on some new patents which will undoubtedly prove of great value to the company.

The Most Profitable Industry on the Coast

The Electric Heating and Manufacturing Company has already raised sufficient funds to build and equip a model factory and the people of Los Angles and vicinity who have contributed to this work have reason to be justly proud of the results so quickly obtained. The company will continue to sell a further block of treasury stock so as to provide an adequate working capital, and as soon as this money is raised the stock will be taken off the market. I therefore strongly advise you to buy as much of this stock as you can possibly afford before it gets much higher.

Dividends: Before closing down the temporary factory on San Fernando street the company was already shipping enough goods to more than pay all running expenses, and it confidently expects, now that the new factory is started, to commence paying dividends within a short time.

An opportunity like this may never occur again in a lifetime. Are you going to grasp it?

EIR TO THE TROUBLERS.

reacher Says Highland Park Has Them All.

riven Out, Will Organize Another Church.

astigation for the Retired Ministers.

Probably the hottest session of the s Angeles Presbytery ever held was t of yesterday, which was called in ecial session at Immanuel Presbyterian Church to consider the request Dr. Franklin P. Berry that his relations with the Highland Park Presbyterian Church be dissolved. The session lasted from 10 o'clock a.m. until most 6 o'clock p.m., and was characterized throughout by vigorous debate, that called things by their right names.

The circumstances that led up to the meeting have been from time to time stated in the columns of The Times, the culminating event being the congregational meeting at which it was determined by a decided vote of the members of the church to ask that the relations with Dr. Berry be dissolved. Had things taken their natural course, the congregation would have been compelled to await the regular meeting of presbytery, but Dr. Berry took the shrewder course and availed himself of his right to himself ask the dissolution by a special session of the presbytery. He thereby forestalled the possibility of definite reasons being given for asking the dissolution, and the only official document upon which the presbytery could act was his own simple request that such action be taken.

The fact is that there have never been any charges against Dr. Berry stronger than that stated yesterday by M. Hammack, the official representative of the session of Highland Park Church. In closing his argument, he said, after paying the highest possible tribute to Dr. Berry as a Christian gentleman:

"Dr. Berry is a good preacher, to my mind, but some people don't like his preaching and want another man."

The fight was not on the question of dissolution of the relations, for that was asked by Dr. Berry himself and by his best friends, Dr. Hugh K. Walker and Dr. R. F. Maclaren, but on the point of censuring the methods used by those who wanted him to resign. These gentlemen carried the day, and at their request the relations were dissolved, to take effect April 1, carrying with it the resolution of disapproval, and Dr. Berry will organize another congregation at once.

The presbytery was called to order by Rev. W. S. Young, stated clerk, and organized by the election of Rev. Drummond McCunn of Burbank as moderator. Rev. George C. Butterfield was chosen clerk.

DR. BERRY'S HOT STUFF.

After the call had been read and the case stated by the stated clerk, Dr. Berry was given the floor, as the person who had asked the dissolution. The delivery of his statement occupied almost an hour and a half, and its reading was sensational throughout. At the outset Dr. Berry stated that he made the request, not because he wanted it granted, but in order to bring out all the facts.

"The present difficulties," said Dr. Berry, "are the result of an agitation organized by a very few people. One of the leaders in this dissension, if not the chief mover against the peace of the church, is the Rev. John A. Merrill, a member of the presbytery of Oakland. At first he came to me and eulogized my sermons in the highest terms, almost to a nauseating extent, and there he praised my preaching in language that seemed to some to border on fulsomeness and adulation."

Dr. Berry said that later Mr. Merrill practically demanded that he be made superintendent of the Sunday-school, and became cool after meeting refusal, and that Mrs. Merrill had written him a letter finding fault with his manner of conducting prayer meetings, and enclosing newspaper clippings by way of advice. He further said that Mr. Merrill had refused to assist in the services of the church, and advised him not to invite Dr. J. Gordon to do so, and that after a disagreement, arising out of the desire of the two gentlemen named, to locate a new church on the college grounds, they both cut down their support of the church and turned it to the colored and to missions.

"These instances are enough to show you what I had run up against," said the speaker.

He declared that this opposition continued unceasingly, and that finally "a sentiment was worked up, manufactured against me among the student body, and the wonder is that a student of Occidental stands by me today, but they do, many of them."

After referring at great length to the circulation of a petition against him by Mr. Merrill and others, and the many conferences between himself and official members growing out of it, Dr. Berry said:

"Church quarrels are the order of the day; faithful ministers have no assurance of support and reward; the world looks on in derision. We have in the Highland Park church, church-troublers from four churches in the city, and in three of those churches they succeeded in driving out their pastors. In one, the elder himself had to go and the pastor still remains, and that elder has been most active in efforts against me.

"The leader in our trouble (Mr. Merrill) was in the First Church when Elmer Pilchard was compelled to leave, and was one of the agitators, not the chief one. Does any one believe that the Highland Park church will have peace hereafter if it is turned over to his tender mercies, and that of the other church-troublers? I threw, pity the next pastor of Highland Park church, if they ever agree with one."

Dr. Berry declared that instead of there being sufficiently practical, he had abundant evidence that his preaching was entirely too practical "for the consciences of a certain few."

In conclusion he asked that if the motion be dissolved, it be to take effect April 1 and that he be not required to preach there any more.

"This is but a tithe of Dr. Berry's confession, which covered twenty-six closely written pages, but gives the main points from his standpoint.

TOO MELANCHOLY.

M. Hammack, speaking for the session of Highland Park church, reviewed the trouble running back two years, prefacing his remarks with the statement that prominent women [illegible] and witnesses who [illegible] in Evangelistic [illegible] Ford, Mrs. E. [illegible] Kirkpatrick, [illegible] J. Walter Gra[illegible] phy and Mrs. [illegible] met in secret and talked the matter over, when they found great opposition, and appointed a committee to inform him, as they thought it proper that he should know the situation, and they finally recommended that he resign, but he refused to listen to the suggestion, and argued his case vigorously with them. Mr. Hammack referred to "a bumptuous young woman" as having said after she had been there two weeks, that if she had been there from the start there would have been nothing of it.

"It is a positive condition that confronts us; the people want a change, and this presbytery cannot act otherwise than dissolve the relation. The condition exists, and it would be there if every man by the name of Gordan or Merrill moved out of the country."

Dr. Samuel McClung questioned the veracity of Dr. Berry in reference to a statement concerning the young people, which Dr. Berry was quick to resent, and when given the floor, declared:

"I did not think anybody would come here with a charge like that. I am astounded that after the life I have lived in Highland Park, the attempt should be made here to make me out a liar."

Elders Cumberland and Grothouse both spoke against continuing the pastorate of Dr. Berry, the former declaring that "much that has been said would be amusing if it were not so serious."

FLY IN THE MOLASSES.

At this point in the discussion Dr. R. F. Maclaren presented a series of resolutions, and with the aid of Dr. Hugh K. Walker, got them before the presbytery. They proposed to "censure many of the methods of those who fomented the trouble;" recommended the dissolution of the relation between pastor and people; assured Dr. Berry of the high personal esteem in which he is held by his brethren; and asked authority for the organization of a new church in Highland Park.

A fly in the molasses couldn't have created a greater commotion than the last point. Several representatives of the church were on their feet at the same instant to object that the matter concerning a new church was not included in the call.

Rev. J. H. Stewart, a retired minister who lives at Highland Park, assumed control of the floor for the opposition to Dr. Berry, and at this point demanded a hearing for Rev. John A. Merrill, who had been so prominently mentioned by Dr. Berry.

Mr. Merrill disavowed being the chief agitator, though he said: "Now, I did start the ball rolling, but the other fellows kept it rolling." He said that his principal objection to Dr. Berry was that the latter "had no message" for him.

Dr. Berry yas instantly on his feet, with the query: "What, then, did you mean by compliments to me, the highest I ever heard from any man?"

Mr. Merrill: Well, I am not aware of any."

George R. Whitcomb: You took me by the arm when I first came to Los Angeles, and said: "Why, here's the brightest preacher in Los Angeles."

There was a roar of confusion, and many cries of "out of order," and in the midst of it Mr. Merrill retired.

CRY OF "GAG LAW."

Now came the most sensational scene of the day. It was decided to take up the Maclaren resolution seriatum, and Rev. T. C. Horton, a former assistant pastor of Immanuel Church, instantly moved to lay on the table the first one, which censured the methods of those who fomented the trouble. A vote was taken and the motion was declared lost. Rev. J. H. Stewart questioned the vote.

As it was about to be taken again, Dr. Walker, stung by the discourtesy and possibly the source from which it came, walked quickly to the front and cried:

"Gag law, brethren, gag law; I have never seen a presbytery do the like without discussion."

There was a show of obstruction tactics, but in the confusion Stewart withdrew his call for another vote.

Dr. Walker then held the floor, and he lashed mercilessly the methods that had been pursued against Dr. Berry, declaring that they were un-Presbyterian and revolutionary, and should not be tolerated in the presbytery.

Rev. George W. Butterfield said: "It is a disgrace, but ministers and ministers' families have been at the bottom of this whole trouble. The congregation does not need any help from the retired minister to stir up strife in another fellow's parish."

It is said that there are fourteen retired ministers in the Higland Park congregation. There were several attempts to interrupt Mr. Butterfield in his short speech, but as he used no names he was permitted to finish his castigation of the retired preachers.

The next speaker was one of them—Rev. Eberle Thompson—and he made the most drastic speech of the day against Dr. Berry.

It was argued by many members of the body that the resolution concerning a new church was not in the call, and it was finally laid on the table by a decided vote.

Dr. Walker then gave notice that unless something was done to show disapproval of the opposition to Dr. Berry, he would vote against the resolution for the dissolution of the relations. After considerable talk, the following substitute for the tabled resolution was adopted by a large majority vote:

"Resolved, that the presbytery disapproves of any un-Presbyterian action, such as the holding of caucuses and circulation of petitions without the approval of the session, in seeking a change of pastorates."

The resolutions of dissolution and of confidence in Dr. Berry were then quickly adopted and the presbytery adjourned.

Dr. Berry said last night that he would at once go on with the organization of a new church, and will have everything ready to present to the regular session of the presbytery in April. As 135 members stood with him in the congregational meeting, it is taken for granted that most of them will go into the new organization.

Pecan Raising in the South.

"Just as the people of the North eat peanuts in great quantities so do the people of the South eat pecans," remarked Allan Dupre, a merchant of New Orleans. "On the streets of New Orleans are many venders who sell them in all sorts of ways—shelled, unshelled and in candy form. Peanuts are sold, too, but pecans have a far greater sale.

"To meet the demand for them, which is growing, pecan orchards are now being laid out in the bottom lands of the Far South. When old timber is cut down pecan trees are planted. Many pecan orchards are gradually growing up. They are of slow growth, requiring fifteen or twenty years to reach maturity, but they are profitable. The main supply comes from Mexico, some sixty carloads of shelled pecans being shipped from there every year, for the most part to be consumed in the South, but in a decade the main supply will come from the Southern States, which will thus gain a new industry.—[Washington Post.

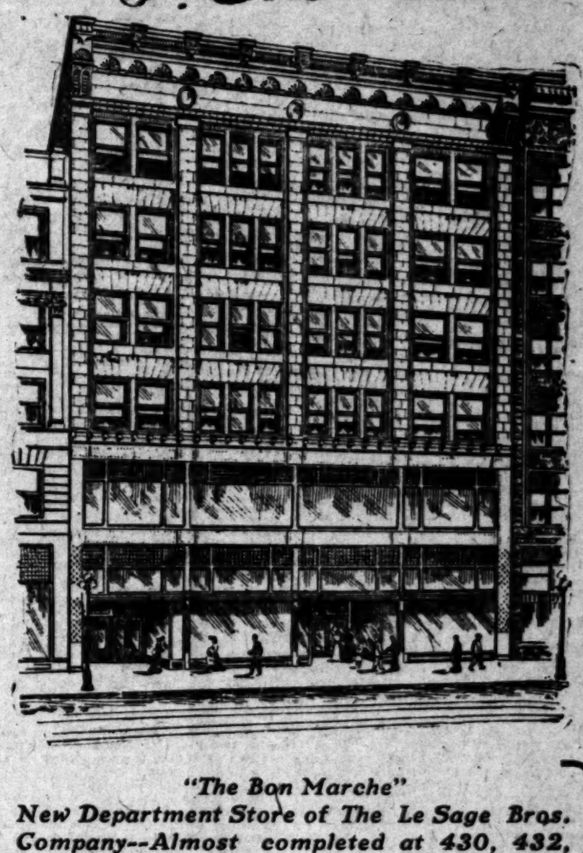
A Final Wind Up Of The Le Sage Bros. Shoe Stock

We're going across the street to "The Bon Marche"--The Le Sage Brothers Department Store---It's a matter of days.

TODAY we begin the final wind-up of our shoe stock at the old store, 433 South Broadway. As you will note below, we have forgotten values, left the matter of costs out of the question—we must unload the goods—and in a very few days.

For it is a matter of only a few days now before the shoe store of Le Sage Brothers becomes a thing of the past. The time of our expansion is almost here—we're going over across the way into our new building, "The Bon Marche," the Le Sage Brothers' Company's new Department Store, instead of only a shoe store as heretofore. The Bon Marche will have a splendid shoe department. Every item in the stock will be new. It will be as if we began the shoe business all over again. You can see the necessity that confronts us—the reason why we are offering



"The Bon Marche"
New Department Store of The Le Sage Bros. Company--Almost completed at 430, 432, 434 So. Broadway.

A further discount of 20 per cent---One-Fifth---On shoe prices already cut to the marrow.

We began our Removal Expansion Sale some time ago. We had to—our stock of shoes was so large. And business has been heavy—prices were reduced far beyond anything we had ever offered before. But our stock was a large one—several delayed shipments arrived months after they were due. And we find ourselves today with a great big stock of shoes that we must dispose of—and a comparatively few days in which to turn them.

Instead of rearranging our stock, every item of which was already reduced, we have decided to give a still further reduction of 20 per cent.—one-fifth—this in addition to the tremendous reductions already in force. Right up and down the store in men's, women's and children's shoes of every character and description—all of which have been radically reduced—you can now save an additional 20c on every dollar you spend for shoes at Le Sage's.

Think what that means. We know that it means loss to us. But we are perfectly willing to accept this loss in order to get rid of the shoes. You get the benefit—how big a benfit it is, you will realize when you visit the store today.

There will be additional salespeople here to take care of your needs—we are going to give you the best service possible under the conditions. To help us, and for your own interest, we ask you to shop as early in the day as you can.

Shoe Salesmen Wanted

We want a lot of extra salesmen. Must be first-class. Apply early this morning. Come ready to work.

Lard is no respecter of stomachs

No one on this green earth can eat lard-soaked food day after day and not feel its ill effects eventually. You may have one of those iron-clad stomachs which will prove unsusceptible for a time, but the hog-fat and its accompanying indigestibility will do its work sooner or later. It is an absolute fact that lard—simply hog-fat—is indigestible, and that it is not fit for the human stomach.

Cottolene, on the other hand, is made from pure, refined cotton seed oil—a product of nature which is thoroughly palatable, digestible and healthful. No other shortening contains the digestible, nourishing and healthful qualities of Cottolene. Even pie, that nightmare of dyspeptics, becomes easily digestible when made with Cottolene. How many people can eat lard-laden pie?

Ask your regular grocer for a pail of Cottolene and start tomorrow on the way to "lardless cookery." It will insure both for yourself and your family better food, better digestion and better health.

Cottolene shortens your food and lengthens your life.

Try it according to directions for a few weeks and you'll never go back to lard.

COTTOLENE was granted a GRAND PRIZE (highest possible award) over all other cooking fats at the recent Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and food cooked with COTTOLENE another GRAND PRIZE.

"Home Helps" a book of 300 choice recipes, edited by Mrs. Rorer, is yours for a 2 cent stamp, if you address The N. K. Fairbank Company, Chicago.

A NEW FEATURE—The patent air-tight top on this pail is for the purpose of keeping COTTOLENE clean, fresh and wholesome; it also prevents it from absorbing all disagreeable odors of the grocery, such as fish, oil, etc.

CONSPIRACY IS TO BE DEFENSE.

Adams Says a Deliberate Plot Was Brewed.

Tries to Save Western Federation of Totemites.

Declares He Was "Scared" Into His Confession.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WALLACE (Idaho) Feb. 28.—That a deliberate conspiracy was formed among the officers of the penitentiary and the detectives to implicate the leaders of the Western Federation of Miners in the assassination of ex-Gov. Steunenberg, and that this conspiracy was to be backed by false evidence, obtained by threats and bribes, is, in effect, the charge made by Steve Adams before the court this morning.

Adams's story was in part as follows:

"On the sixth day after I was taken to Boise and put in the cell with Harry Orchard, I was taken to the office of the penitentiary and introduced to Detective McParland. He told me about 'Kelly the Bum,' and other men who had turned State's evidence, and had been set free. He told me some Bible stories, too, but I cannot remember what they were, as I am not familiar with the Bible. He kept me there until 4 or 5 o'clock in the morning, trying to get me to confess.

"McParland told me he wanted to convict Moyer, Heywood, Pettibone and Simpkins, whom he called 'cutthroats.' If I did not help to convict them, he said, I would be taken back to Colorado and either hanged or mobbed, and if I did help I would only be taken to Colorado as a witness. About 2 o'clock in the morning they served us a nice luncheon and when we parted about 4 o'clock McParland told me he was my friend and told me to think of my family. They put me back in the cell with Harry Orchard, who told me about the need of backing up his story. I was somewhat frightened. The next day McParland called again, and as he was leaving me I called him back and said I would do what he wanted me to do. He told me to think well what I was doing, then think of my family and myself. He said that he would see my family cared for. He told me if I was still obstinate I would be taken to Colorado.

"When the confession was made, McParland led me on step by step and showed me all that he wanted me to say. He told me that what I said about the Tyler and Boule murders was only taken with the idea of making a strong chain of evidence to convict the officer of the Western Federation of Miners. He wanted the names of the officers of the federation used as much as possible all through the confession. McParland asked me if I knew Ed Boyce. I told him I did not, and knew nothing of any money being sent to him. All the statements regarding money were made with the idea of implicating the Western Federation of Miners. Two or three days later Warden Whitney brought the confession to me to sign."

Adams confirmed all the early part of the confession as to his family and past history, but denied that part relating to the plot to kill Steunenberg and to his life in the Marble Creek country.

Adams testified that when the copy of his confession was brought to him by the warden he told Notary Public Huebner it was not the same as what he had stated, but he supposed that he would have to sign it, and he did sign it.

The witness stated that he had at different times been visited by W. E. Borah, Gov. Gooding and Attorney Hawley, but he was not allowed to detail the conversations. Adams stated that when he was arrested and returned to the Wallace jail, he was not allowed to see his attorneys, but was compelled against his will to talk to Detective McParland.

The sensation of the day was sprung by the prosecution toward the close of the trial this afternoon. Darrow, of the defense, had just announced that their case had been completed, when Hawley, of the prosecution, requested the consent of the defense to recall Mrs. Archie Phillips and to reopen the case for the prosecution, saying that by inadvertence the witness had not been asked when directly examined the day of the week on which Tyler ate his supper, the night immediately preceding his disappearance.

According to the information filed against Adams, Tyler had been murdered on Wednesday, August 10, and had therefore eaten supper at the Phillips house on the night of Tuesday, August 9. After having given her testimony, Mrs. Phillips recalled to memory that Tyler had eaten supper at the Phillips cabin on the night of Saturday, August 6, and from this it follows that Tyler must have been murdered on the morning of Sunday, August 7, the day on which Adams arrived at Mason's cabin and participated in the birthday dinner.

If Judge Woods, who has taken the matter under advisement until morning, decides to allow the prosecution to recall Mrs. Phillips to the stand, the whole tenor of the case will be altered, and it may be shown that if Tyler was murdered on Sunday morning, Adams, Mason and Glover, the three men implicated by the confession in the murder, immediately after the crime started for Mason's cabin and arrived there in time to participate in the birthday dinner as testified.

The distance between the scene of the murder and Mason's cabin is about fifteen miles, and Archie Phillips testified on direct examination to hearing shots about 5 o'clock on the morning of the crime, so that good time would be given the defendant to reach Mason's cabin in time for dinner if the murder had been committed in the morning and the whole case of the alibi as proved by the defense would fall to pieces.

The matter was hotly debated by both sides. Court adjourned at the close of Mr. Darrow's speech.

Knight plied Adams with sharp questions. Referring to a copy of the confession which had been handed him, Knight asked whether the answers on page one were the answers which he gave McParland. Adams read over the whole page of the confession and admitted that they were. The confession was taken page by page and Adams practically admitted every answer with the exception of one answer on page eight, where it stated that he had been given $100 by Mason. McParland had wanted him to state that $100 had been given him by Simkins, for the purpose of implicating that Western Federation of Miners in the Marble Creek vendetta, but Adams had refused to do it, and agreed to use the name of Mason instead, Simpkins having been a member of the executive board of the Washington federation. When Knight had asked him regarding his replies on every page of the confession and when they were near the sixth page, Adams replied:

"I believe that these are the answers given by me, but I deny everything in this statement connected with the crime."

In connection with the alterations in Haubenois's handwriting, Adams admitted that many of these had been made by Haubenois in conformity with Adams's direction. This statement would appear to contradict Adams's previous testimony in which he said that he had only glanced at the statement before signing. Adams admitted that McParland told him when trying to get his confidence that he was a detective and wanted it for the purpose of convincing officers of the Western Federation. But Adams was unable to state how a confession dealing with the murder of Tyler and Boule implicated any of these men, not even Simpkins.

Adams testified that while he was swearing to a confession he remarked to McParland: "I am signing away my right to live," and McParland replied: "This paper cannot show our promises to you, but you will be all right, and we will stand by you."

There were no witnesses to this conversation.

MUCH NEEDLESS SUFFERING FROM GRIP'S AFTER-EFFECTS

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS ARE A SPECIFIC

This Remedy Is a Powerful, Yet Perfectly Safe Tonic, Which Will Build Up the System, Strengthen the Nerves, Restore Lost Flesh and Bring Good Health.

Extreme debility, a constant sense of fatigue, headaches at the base of the skull and across the forehead and eyes, pain in the back, deafness, hissing sounds in the head, stomach disorder, palpitation of the heart—these are symptoms that mark the after-effects of grip. And these lingering and stubborn after-effects are often worse than the disease itself. The health of the body is badly shattered and oftentimes there seems to be no way to restore it. The sufferer becomes nervous, irritable and the system is powerless to resist the attacks of such diseases as bronchitis, pneumonia and consumption.

The story told by scores of victims of the grip is substantially the same. One was tortured by terrible pains at the base of the skull that made life unendurable and that long defied the power of medicine; another was left tired, faint and in every way wretched from anaemia or scantiness of blood; another had horrible headaches, was nervous and couldn't sleep; another was left with weak lungs, difficulty in breathing and acute neuralgia. In every case relief was sought in vain until the great blood-builder and nerve tonic, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, was used.

Could Hardly Stand.

Mrs. Jennie Cowan of 718 N. Henry street, West Bay City, Mich., says: "I caught a cold, which ran into the grip. I was confined to my bed for two weeks. At the end of that time I was able to be about, but was completely run down. I was so weak I could hardly stand, my cheeks had no color and I felt faint. My heart would flutter and it was difficult for me to breathe at times. Neuralgia settled in the back of my head and stomach and I suffered from rheumatism in my shoulders.

"I had the care of the best doctors in town but became no better until a friend told me one day how she had been cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I decided to try them. I soon felt better and continued using them until I was entirely cured. They built me up again to per fect health."

Confined to Bed.

Mrs. Laura M. Van Scoy of 20 Thorpe street, Danbury, Conn., says: "I had a severe attack of grip, and was in a badly run down state. At last I had to give up completely and for three weeks I was obliged to keep my bed. Then pains began to threaten my heart and thoroughly alarmed me. While I was suffering in this way I chanced to run across a little book that told about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The statements in it impressed me and led me to buy a box. It was fortunate for me that I did, for these pills proved the very thing I needed to cure me. Improvement set in as soon as I began to take them, and it was very marked by the time I had finished the first box. Four boxes made me a well woman. In fact, the pills proved so thoroughly adapted to my case that there is nothing further to say except that I am a very grateful woman and that I sincerely recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to any people who are sick as I was."

A Characteristic Case.

Mr. William A. Newman of Sagrada, Camden County, Missouri, says: "The attack of grip which I had left me in a very bad fix. I became nearly deaf and my head ached continually and was filled with hissing and roaring sounds that were fearfully annoying. My heart fluttered and had regular running-away spells. My stomach was so sore that I could hardly bear a touch on that part of my body. My kidneys gave me trouble. When I attempted to get up after sitting a while, they ached so that I could hardly stand.

"First I tried a doctor, but he did me no good. Then I took several kinds of advertised preparations, but nothing proved helpful until I began to use Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. As soon as I got them I knew that I had at last hit upon the right remedy for my case. The very first box did more for me than anything else I had ever taken. They gave me relief right away and in the end they positively cured me."

Build Up the Blood.

After-effects of the grip are due to the debilitated condition of the blood and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are invaluable in such cases as well as in other blood diseases, because by acting directly through the blood, purifying and enriching it, they not only drive off the germs of the disease, but build up the system. The pills have cured anaemia, rheumatism, after-effects of fevers, neuralgia and many other severe disorders of the blood and nerves.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schnectady, N. Y.

SAWING WOOD FOR A PARK.

ARROYO ASSOCIATION ELECTS IN PASADENA.

Pasadena Baseball Club Is Being Reorganized and Several New Members Are to Play in the Team. City Council and Railroad Men Adjusting the Crossing Dispute.

Office of The Times, No. 20 S. Raymond Ave.
PASADENA, March 1.—A meeting of the directors of the Arroyo Park Association was held last night in the offices of Forbes, Sutton & Cruikshank in the Dodsworth building. It was the first after the annual meeting and the chief business of importance was the election of a president. Dr. McBride having declined to serve for another term. Dr. Rudolph Schiffman was the man selected to fill the vacancy left by the retirement of Dr. McBride. No other change was made in the list of officers.

The affairs of the association are moving along smoothly and, though but little is being said, the directors are busily sawing wood. It is a big task that the association has undertaken and there are many preliminary arrangements before the work which shows can be taken up. The directors state that everything is moving along smoothly, however, and that the Arroyo Seco Park will soon be an actual fact.

CITY BUYS AUTO.

The Council held a special meeting last night to consider certain matters that were left over after the last regular meeting, chief among them being the purchase of an automobile for the superintendent of the municipal lighting plant. It was decided to purchase a machine from the Maxwell Motor Car Company, a concern for which Councilman E. H. Braley is local agent.

The contract for the construction of the tunnel at the power-house was let to Andrew Holloway, the contract price being $1878.

After the regular meeting the Council went into executive session to confer with President H. A. McQuilling of the Pasadena Land and Water Company.

BASEBALL REORGANIZATION.

The Pasadena baseball club is about to undergo a complete reorganization and next week several new members will play with the team. The weak points have been searched out and the men who are not up to standard will be replaced with new timber and it is hoped to bring the organization up to a high plane of excellence.

Since taking charge of the club Manager Harry A. Dexter has accomplished several important improvements, but he has been handicapped to a certain extent in the matter of expenditures. Financially the club is now in good order and it is therefore time to begin looking for good men to fill in the weak places in the team.

Two new pitchers, Gilroy and Berger, said to be among the best twirlers of the sphere in the section, have been added to the personnel of the organization, and Preston of Armour, a man with a good all-around score and a fine batting average, will henceforth occupy center field. These have been the weakest positions heretofore and the additions will make a big difference in the strength of the organization.

As a general thing the ball team has been well supported by local merchants, and it is the desire and intention of the manager to give the supporters a tangible return in the way of a winning team. For a while the aggregation seemed to be in a fair way to annex the championship pennant, but a long string of defeats threw them out of the running. With the new men on it is anticipated that a noticeable improvement will be observed at once and that the lost ground will be made up.

CROSSING SETTLEMENT.

The members of the Streets and Alleys Committee of the City Council made a trip over the city yesterday afternoon with representatives of the railway lines to hear what they had to say with regard to the safeguards at the different street crossings. The roads objected to complying with the orders of the Council as formerly laid down and insisted that many of the rules were unreasonable. It is believed that a way will undoubtedly be so modified as to make it possible for the companies to dispense with certain of the flagmen now stationed and in place send a man through in an automobile about to pass ahead of approaching trains at crossings where most of the switching and where few or no trains pass daily. At other crossings it is probable that the roads will be required to install bells instead of placing flagmen there. Two most important streets, Fair Oaks and Union street, will be well guarded by the Santa Fé company, however.

FINISH GRANT SCHOOL.

A meeting yesterday morning the Board of Education decided to take up the work of finishing the Grant school building. When the contractors who had the building in charge went into the matter the work of necessity came to a standstill and it looked as if serious delay might result. The necessary steps were taken to protect the public interest, however, and everything promises to come out right in the end.

There are several minor matters that will have to be changed, so the board empowered the architects of the building to secure a contractor to make the necessary changes after which steps will be taken to have the work completed. The schoolhouse is needed badly owing to the crowded condition of the city schools and the sooner it can be completed the better will the authorities be satisfied.

FIGURES ON SCHOOLS.

The report of the Superintendent of Schools, made public yesterday, shows that in the past year there has been a gain in attendance of 186. This gain is entirely in the primary grammar and high-school grades, the kindergartens showing a loss of sixty-four pupils. The gain in the High School alone amounts to seventy-four students.

The figures, however, do not give an adequate idea of the increase in the number of children of school age. There are many from private schools in Pasadena, and many of the children who come here are sent to those institutions rather than to the public schools. Probably the actual increase in attendance at the private schools is fully as large as that in the city institutions.

BUILDING GROWTH.

Building permits representing an outlay of $100,000 were issued in February, a new record for the second month of the year. This total is about $2000 greater than the gross for this time last year, and is considerably in excess of the total of the year before. The figures are for the bona-fide building permits only, and do not take into consideration the minor applications covering small additions to buildings already standing.

SPEAKING OF DOCKING.

J. H. Holmes, manager of Hotel Green, when asked today what effect he thought the passing of the Curtin bill would have upon the tourist business in Southern California, if any, said that while he was sufficiently interested in the matter when it was first presented to him to send several telegrams to representatives at Sacramento, begging them to vote against the bill, he is now inclined to think that there is nothing in it which will keep eastern horsemen and their fine horses out of the State.

"Of course," said Mr. Holmes, "my point of view is purely personal. While I hope I am sufficiently humane as to discountenance any ill treatment of a horse, I have no sentimental sensibility on the subject of docking. The passing of the Curtin bill, so far as docking California horses is concerned, is perfectly satisfactory to me, and I wish it went still further, and prevented cutting off the ears and tails of dogs, which in my mind is more of a mutilation than docking the tail of a horse. As I now understand the bill, it is only a measure to enforce a law long on the statute books, and will not interfere in the least with the docking in of new horses or breeding stock into the State. It looks to me as if there is still a wide loophole for evasion of the law in the case of horses here, but it probably is unnecessary for me to point this out. As to having any effect upon our horse business I fail to see why it will not be comprehensive upon the subject."

BANKS MERGE IN LONG BEACH.

THREE FINANCIAL CONCERNS GOING TOGETHER.

Talk of a New Transcontinental Railway Terminus on the Flats Lying West of the Seaside Town. Rights of Way from Los Angeles Through Gardena Country.

LONG BEACH, Feb. 28.—A financial transaction, involving the merger of one national bank and two State banks in this city was virtually accomplished today, when the directors of the First National Bank, the oldest in the city, the Bank of Commerce and the People's Bank agreed upon a merger of the three institutions, into one organization, the First National Bank, of which J. B. Heartwell is and will continue to be the president.

The articles of merger will be submitted on April 9 to the stockholders of the three banks, and will be ratified without a doubt. Under the terms of the consolidation, C. J. Walker and Frank A. Howe, president and vice-president of the People's Bank, will be made vice-presidents of the National bank, while Frank McCutchen, president of the Bank of Commerce, will be one of the directors and also first vice-president of the Citizens' Savings Bank, connected with the First National.

The First National Bank was established in 1900, the Bank of Commerce in 1905, and the People's Bank in July, 1906. Under the merger the First National Bank will increase its capital stock from $200,000 to $500,000, with a surplus of $100,000, and resources of over $2,000,000.

The combined bank will occupy their new building on the corner of First and Pine about May, and in the meanwhile the three banks will do business as separate institutions. As soon as the merger is ratified the board of directors of the First National will be increased from fifteen to twenty-seven. C. J. Walker, who will become first vice-president, will devote his entire time to the bank.

On March 4 the Citizens' Savings Bank will meet, and, increasing its capital stock to $250,000, will change its name to the Citizens' Savings and Trust Company, and increase its directors from eleven to twenty-seven.

TRANSCONTINENTAL TALK.

H. C. Oakley of Los Angeles, who recently secured the right of way for the proposed new four-track electric railway from Los Angeles by way of Gardena, is again at work, and this week is securing valuable sites on the flats west and northwest of Long Beach, which he told W. B. Redburn, from whom most of the purchases were made, were designed for terminals of a transcontinental railway. The land secured is some of the best about the proposed channels of the inner bay and directly adjacent to contemplated deep-water canals.

SEASHORE CITY BRIEFS.

John F. Craig, Jr., who yesterday signed the contract to erect a shipbuilding plant on the inland harbor, paid a visit to the city this morning, and in company with members of the Dock and Terminal Company and Engineer Rickotson, visited the site on the east side of Channel Three. Mr. Craig will remain on the Coast, and have full charge of the work of preparing the site for occupancy. After an inspection of the inland harbor, the party returned to Long Beach and took luncheon at Hotel Julian. Mr. Craig said his first work will be to secure the deepening of Cerritos Slough, in order to get his material in on barges.

Deputy Sheriff McDougall of Arizona has written here, asking for information about a Miss Mary Lawrence, who is soliciting funds in Williams for an Old People's Home in Long Beach. Marshal Young investigated, and finds the woman is one of a trio arrested in Los Angeles, and known as the "Owl, Hawk and Eagle." After their detention in Los Angeles they came to Long Beach, and for awhile lived in a tent on Signal Hill. There is no such contemplated home for old people in Long Beach. The Williams officers were notified by telegraph.

Postmaster George F. Hirsh was today reappointed by President Roosevelt for four years. He has already served eight years as postmaster.

On next Wednesday the local aerie of Eagles will initiate a class of thirty, and will be assisted by aeries from Los Angeles, Ocean Park, Santa Ana, Anaheim and Redondo.

The Deck and Terminal Company this morning received an application from a local manufactory for a site on the inland harbor, as they are desirous of enlarging this plant. A site was selected and a price fixed, and the question will be decided by the applicants this week.

At a meeting of the Medical Society last night, Dr. H. O. Bates was elected a delegate to the State Medical meeting in San Francisco in April.

On Saturday the bankers and real estate men of the city will settle the much-discussed question of baseball supremacy, the losers to pay for a banquet at Levy's March 18.

SOUTH PASADENA, Feb. 28.—The board of school trustees has adopted suitable resolutions on the death of Nobel Carter, late Superintendent of Schools.

MINES AND MINING.

Angelenos Successfully Get Rich Values from the White Metal in State of Sonora.

The Zambona Development Company, operating at Zambona, south of Guaymas, in the State of Sonora, has developed a new chute of richer ore than it has had before. It is on the 500-foot level, 200 feet north of the main ore chute. The width, so far developed, is thirty-five feet, with no walls in sight. The average value is $20 in silver. The indications are that a large chamber of ore is being opened. Work is being pushed in driving the ore extension.

An interesting feature is that the work here leads right in the direction of the older shaft, from which a million was taken, according to the records in the Spanish times.

The main shaft is down 700 feet and drifting and cross-cutting is in progress, with very good results being reported. The mine has now an output of about $20,000 a month, and with changes that are being made it is expected that this will be increased to $1000 a day. At present there are four Huntington mills, with capacity of twenty stamps. Besides the present equipment, a cyanide plant is under consideration. The company has just made a heavy payment on the property and has very little indebtedness.

The Cananea, Yaqui River and Pacific Railroad's extension is now within forty miles of the mine, and within three or four months should be completed to Zambona. The survey runs within 1600 feet of the mine, and a switch has already been surveyed. This will greatly facilitate work by allowing material to be brought in more cheaply, besides enabling ore to be shipped at far less cost. At present it is packed to tidewater on the Gulf of California, conveyed two miles by lighters to the steamers lying in deep water, then taken to Guaymas and shipped over the Sonora and Southern Pacific to El Paso to the smelter.

The owners are W. F. and F. L. Botsford of Los Angeles, R. R. Coleman, Los Angeles, W. S. Cranz and T. Robinson Bours, Nogales, A. J. Yeager, superintendent.

Copper in Oregon.

The Joseph Ball Copper Company has been organized in this city to operate claims on Green Mountain, Jackson county, Oregon, eighteen miles from Glendale station, on the Southern Pacific. There are thirty-two patented and nine unpatented. Some 500 feet of development, it is stated, has been done. Assays give total values as high as $194.08, $220.32 and $226.48.

Besides the minerals, the company claims as a secondary, but very valuable asset, large tracts of timber located on the land.

Chamber of Mines Members.

The Chamber of Mines has added the following persons and firms to its list of members: Chapman, Briscoe & Co., mining stocks; Western Door and Sash Company, Vaada Mines Promotion Company, W. W. Riedel, broker, Goldfield; F. O. Frazier, president of the Board of Trade, Rhyolite; Dana G. Putnam, M. E.; Okell Core Drill Company, R. F. Simoneau, real estate; the Owl Drug Company, Montgomery Brothers, jewelers; Kingsley, Moles & Collins Company, California Portland Cement Company, Old Settlers' Investment Company, Jones & Ryder Land Company, Richardson Brothers, J. V. Vickers, Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank, Erkenbrecher Syndicate, W. J. Doran and S. J. Smith Machinery Company. It will be seen that these include all lines of business.

CONSISTENCY OF PRESENT TARIFF.

BY WALTER J. BALLARD.

During the Presidential campaign of 1896, in the many speeches which he made from the vine-clad porch of his home in Ohio, William McKinley repeatedly said in substance that a full protective tariff such as the Republican party intended to enact, and which it did enact on July 27, 1897—our present tariff—would not only set running every silent factory wheel in the land—which it did—but it would also cause many more factories to be built—which it has.

Further, that it would keep them running, new and old—which it has done ever since, is still doing, and will continue to do, just so long as our always restless ones will keep or are made to keep, their hands off it. In that result the present tariff is consistent. Not only has the present tariff created the busy American factory, and caused the use yearly of thousands of millions of dollars' worth of our almost limitless natural resources, but it has also extended the area—the diversification—of our manufacturing to such an enormous extent that we are obliged to send abroad each year for hundreds of millions of dollars' worth of such raw materials as we do not produce ourselves or cannot produce in sufficient quantities in time for our enlarged use.

Compare the figures, as follows, of imports for use in manufacturing each fiscal year of the present tariff's existence, with those of the fiscal year (1897) last prior to its enactment:

1899	278,000,000
1900	380,000,000
1901	345,000,000
1902	409,000,000
1903	480,000,000
1904	442,000,000
1905	508,000,000
1906	591,000,000

Bear in mind that all the vast quantity of foreign raw materials has been the source of increased work and wages to nearly 7,000,000 American wage earners, and, at the same time, and very properly, a source of profit to the two to three million stockholders in our factories, nearly all of which are stock corporations. It is not just a few men who chiefly benefit by the present tariff, but millions of men and women. Remove American industrial profits from the field of American investment and the suffering would be almost as great to American investors as to American wage earners. In many cases it would be a double suffering as several hundred thousand American wage earners are also dividend-drawing stockholders in the concerns they draw wages from.

We have seen by the foregoing schedule that the present protective tariff has served us consistently for nine years (it will soon be ten years,) in that it has created an increased yearly import of manufacturer's materials to the extent of $314,000,000, or more than $6,000,000 a week for each week of 1906 fiscal year. Now let us see how our imports of manufactures ready for consumption have run during those years:

Year.	Imported manufactures.
1898	94,000,000
1899	110,000,000
1900	130,000,000
1901	135,000,000
1902	151,000,000
1903	169,000,000
1904	168,000,000
1905	167,000,000

The total of those imports for the nine years, 1898 to 1906, inclusive, is $1,320,000,000, an average of less than $148,000,000 a year, or $17,000,000 a year short of the last non-protective tariff fiscal year—1897. In that result the present protective tariff has again evidenced, and evidenced very strongly, its complete consistency.

It must also be borne in mind that during all these nine years, our people have had more money with which to buy such foreign goods as their fancy dictated. Much of the "manufactures imported" consists of goods of particular styles and cuts—hats, bonnets, and silks from Paris, for instance. All these are only a fraction, and a very small fraction, of the gigantic total of manufactures consumed by the American people, and it is on that gigantic consumption that the American wage earner, with his wife and children, depend for food, clothing, shelter, and education.

MISS ADELAIDE NICHOLS

PERIODS OF PAIN

While no woman is entirely free from periodic suffering, it does not seem to be the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely. Irregularities and pain are positive evidence that something is wrong which should be set right or it will lead to serious derangement of the feminine organism.

Thousands of women, have found relief from all periodic suffering by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from native roots and herbs, as it is the most thorough female regulator known to medical science.

It cures the condition which causes so much discomfort and robs that period of its terrors. Women who are troubled with painful or irregular functions should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences and be restored to health and strength by taking

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Miss Adelaide Nichols of 334 West 32nd Street, New York City, writes:—Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—"If women who suffer would only rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound their troubles would be quickly alleviated. I feel greatly indebted for the relief and health which has been brought to me by your inestimable remedy."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures Female Complaints such as Falling and Displacements, and Organic Diseases, Headache, General Debility, Indigestion, and invigorates the whole feminine system. For the derangements of the Kidneys of either sex Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is excellent.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to write Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised.

THREATEN DISESTABLISHMENT.

Commons Demand the Separation of Church and State for Benefit of All Concerned.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

LONDON, Feb. 28.—In the House of Commons Wednesday night a resolution in favor of the disestablishment and disendowment of the church in both England and Wales was adopted by a vote of 198 to 90. This resolution does not commit the government, but the debate on it was interesting on account of a statement made by Augustin Birrel, Chief Secretary for Ireland.

Birrell said he failed to see how the continuance of the established church could be justified. The church had done the state no good and the state had done the church nothing but harm. Personally, Birrell said, he believed disestablishment, for from harming the church as a spiritual body, would restore it to a position of spiritual authority throughout the land. The government's hands, however, were already too full to assume any responsibility in the matter.

This is the first time in its history that the House of Commons has adopted such a resolution. The only previous time a similar resolution was presented to a division was in May, 1877, and it was then rejected by a large majority.

POSSE SEEKS NEGRO BRUTE.

CRUEL ASSAULT PERPETRATED AT BARSTOW.

Unknown Black Man Crawls Into Tent House Occupied by Section Foreman Where He Forces Barley Sack Over Husband's Head and Pursues Wife Who Leaps Through Window.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A. M.]

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 28.—All Barstow is out on a man-hunt because of a startling crime committed at 1:30 o'clock this morning by an unknown negro who crawled into a tent house occupied by the family of M. R. Roy, section foreman, and made a desperate attempt to criminally assault the foreman's wife.

Mrs. Roy was awakened by a cold barrel of a revolver pressed against her head, the negro at the same time commanding silence. The fellow's voice aroused her husband, who gave battle, but the negro succeeded in forcing a barley sack over the husband's head. Mrs. Roy in the meantime leaped from a window. Disconcerted by this move the assailant loosened his grip on the husband and also took a flyer through the window. The negro rushed to a door calling loudly to confederates to fix the fleeing couple and several shots were exchanged.

A night watchman and Deputy Sheriff Smithson took the trail and followed it across the Santa Fé bridge where all trace of it was lost. Sheriff Ralphs and a posse have also taken up the hunt. Should the negro be found hemp awaits him if the fellow can be located before the sheriff lands him.

FUGITIVE IS ARRESTED.

After a chase for months, Lee Redwin, former deputy constable of Phoenix, Ariz., was captured this afternoon at Coffs, a desert station in this county, by Deputy Sheriff Williams of Gila Bend, where he had been conducting a store under the name of John Smith.

Redwin had been an official in good standing of Phoenix several years, but in November was arrested for extorting money on a bond. Pleading guilty he was fined and given 100 days in jail. Redwin was given the freedom of the Sheriff's office and a few days later Deputy Sheriff Williams came in from Gila Bend depositing for a few minutes in an office closet a valise containing $1175 in gold coin.

Returning for the valise the deputy found both the coin and Redwin missing, all trace of the culprit was lost until he was located today at Coffs as John Smith, a prosperous merchant. A tragic feature of Redwin's disappearance was the suicide of Sheriff Walther because he was unable to stand the criticism for allowing Redwin the freedom of the office.

CANDIDATE FOR MAYOR.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN BERNARDINO, Feb. 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Announcement was made tonight that A. M. Ham had consented to be a candidate for Mayor in April on an independent ticket. He has the support of influential leaders in both parties.

CAPTURES RARE SHARK.

Santa Barbara Fisherman Has an Exciting Adventure With Monster in Net.

SANTA BARBARA, Feb. 28.—A great shark of a species exceedingly rare in waters about here was captured yesterday by Batista Falconi, a fisherman. The monster is technically known as rhinaboa typicus.

When Falconi began to pull his nets off Rincon Point there was a tremendous disturbance and his twelve-ton fishing power launch Victoria began to drag her anchors and was being towed out to sea by some unknown force. The shark in its anxiety for plunder of the finny tribe detained in the fisherman's nets became entangled in the meshes, the latter catching its gills. Continued floundering of the shark must have been the means of enwrapping it in the rope lines of the nets and held it a prisoner. When the fishermen commenced their tussle with the beast, the entrapped shark naturally exerted every effort that it possessed, under its condition, to get away.

Away it went, with the launch, throwing up a forward sea like a battleship on a trial trip. Falconi estimates that the monster towed his craft for seven or eight miles to sea before it became fatigued. At the first opportunity, Falconi and the five other fishermen in his boat threw a couple of two-inch hawsers over the shark's head. The heavy ropes had hardly been made fast when the shark was off again. Falconi turned attention to his engines and got up power, then came the tug of war, but the leviathan by supreme effort managed to tow the boat in a sou'-sou'westerly direction for another five or six miles. But the thing was up with the monster, the boat was run close along side, the head of the shark being in easy reach, Falconi leaned over the side of the Victoria and plunged a long knife into the monster's gills, his arm following the knife to the arm-pit. The engines were put full speed astern, but still the sea monster was not to be subdued if in its power to prevent, and the shark shot ahead for another quarter of a mile, when one of the hawsers broke, flying back and inflicting an ugly blow upon one of Falconi's helpers.

After the struggle of a few minutes the fishermen had their capture and towed it to Santa Barbara. Falconi and his men fought the great specimen for over ten hours.

The shark measures fully forty-five feet. The snout is very short, broad and flat, with the mouth at its extremity, the gills are very wide and the eye small. The teeth are extremely small, of conical shape, and very numerous.

CONRAD-GEORGE.

The marriage of Miss Mary George and Francis P. Conrad was solemnized according to the Quaker's rite at noon today in Unity Hall. Neither clergyman or legal official participated, although the contracting couple procured a marriage license. It is believed that the customary marriage form will be solemnized later, as the statutes of the State do not recognize the legality of a contract marriage. Silver and white, the colors of the Quakers or Friends Society, were used in the decorations of the hall. The bride disregarded the conventional gown of the Quakers and wore a beautiful white gown of chiffon and carried orange blossoms. Dr. George A. White acted as best man, the bride was unattended. The groom is a relative of Ellwood Cooper, State Horticultural Commissioner, and has been a resident of this city for ten years.

EXTEND WATER SERVICE.

Ontario City Trustees Reaching Out South of the Southern Pacific Railroad.

ONTARIO, Feb. 28.—The City Trustees have decided to extend the present water system by putting in new mains below the Southern Pacific tracks, in order to give the residents of that section proper fire protection. A committee has been appointed whose duty it is to see to the proper placing of a number of fire hydrants in this locality. When the new pipes are laid several of the residents, who now have their private wells, will doubtless get their supply from the local water company.

The contract for the laying of the new sidewalk on the west side of Euclid avenue, between B and G streets, has been let to J. G. Beasley, the price being 11 cents per square foot. Besides the laying of the new sidewalk, this part of the avenue is to be further improved by pulling up many of the large gum trees which have become a nuisance, besides spoiling the sidewalk.

S. Mason has sold his five-acre orange orchard on East J street to L. Holden of North Dakota. The stated consideration is $7500.

R. Leahy has sold his property, consisting of seven-roomed house and barn and five acres of oranges, on the corner of Euclid avenue and G street, to Thomas Holden; stated consideration, $6000.

STRONG OPPOSITION TO WHARF IN NEWPORT BAY.

Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce Files Second Resolution in the Office of the Corps of Engineers in Los Angeles—Balboa Property Owners Also Object.

SANTA ANA, Feb. 28.—The indications are that the application of the George E. Hart Company for a permit to build two wharves in Newport Bay will be denied. The Chamber of Commerce today presented a second resolution to the office of the corps of engineers, U. S. A., in Los Angeles, setting forth that the 250-foot wharf on the Corona Del Mar side would make the channel impassable during low tides. Property owners at Balboa have protested against the wharf there on the ground that it will injure their property frontage on the bay. The Hart company asks for a wharf permit there at the foot of a street.

CLINCHER FOR BONDS.

The Huntington Beach School Board will go through the procedure of being taken into the Los Bolsas high school district a second time that there may be no question concerning the legality of the $60,000 high school bonds. A petition asking that the beach district be taken into the high school district was filed today with the Board of Supervisors. The need of a second petition is caused by the fact that Newport Beach managed to withdraw from the district by a Superior Court decision after the election to issue bonds was held.

ANTIS AFTER SIGNATURES.

Today five papers were started out by those opposed to submitting the saloon question to a vote at the coming election. The papers are protests against granting the petition of the saloon people, asking that the question be submitted. The purpose of the opposition to submission is to get half a thousand names to the papers between now and Monday night when the petition to submit will come before the City Council.

Much gayety at Coronado now.

FIRST FREIGHT BY TEHAUNTEPEC.

STEAMER ARIZONAN ARRIVES AT SAN DIEGO.

Brings the First Merchandise Coming from the Atlantic Coast Over That Isthmian Route for Pacific Coast and Hawaiian Island Ports. Arranging to Celebrate.

SAN DIEGO, Feb. 28.—The American-Hawaiian Steamship Company's Arizonan arrived here this morning, seven days from Salina Cruz, the Pacific Coast terminal of the Tehuantepec Railroad. She brought a general cargo of 6300 tons.

The arrival is notable from the fact that she brings the first freight from the Atlantic coast coming over the Tehuantepec road for Pacific Coast and Hawaiian Island ports, meaning the opening of a service of nine steamers with calls at each of the Pacific Coast ports every fifteen days, and landing freight from New York within thirty days of the time of sailing.

The officers of the ship report excellent freight-handling facilities at Salina Cruz and say that after a few trips the steamers will be discharged and loaded with dispatch. At present the work is done by inexperienced Indians and is necessarily slow.

The celebration of the opening of the service, under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce, has been postponed until a later day date, possibly upon the arrival of the Nebraska one week hence, the steamer having sailed from Salina Cruz today.

CORNER ROUNDER IS FINED.

Riverside Automobilist Cuts Across the Sidewalk and Severely Shocks Two Women.

RIVERSIDE, Feb. 28.—Because he drove his automobile on the sidewalk in rounding the corner of Vine and Sixth streets, instead of keeping in the street, Harry Kennedy was fined $25 this morning by Justice Stephenson. The warrant was sworn out by Mrs. Jay Godfrey, who, with her daughter, Miss Grace Godfrey, narrowly escaped being run over by the machine as it dashed around the corner. The car was a large one, containing a party of six.

Just in time to avert a disaster, Mrs. Godfrey rushed to the protection of a tree, and her daughter ran to the safe side of a fence. The circumstance occurred late in the evening, as the ladies were within half a block of their home. The escape was by so close a margin that both are suffering from the nervous shock.

RIVERSIDE BRIEFS.

G. D. Cunningham has received a telegram from Washington announcing his reappointment as postmaster of the Riverside office for the next four years.

Riverside will vote tomorrow on the new city charter framed by the Board of Freeholders. Friends and opponents of the charter have waged an active campaign, and the outcome is awaited with keen interest by both sides.

Good fellowship was the prevailing note at the banquet given by the Edison Electric Company to its employés of the Riverside district last evening in the Glenwood refectory. Every detail of the banquet was happily carried out, from the clever menu cards, decorated in pen and ink sketches, to the list of toasts which concluded the function. The banquet was given for the purpose of bringing the officers and employés of the company in closer touch with each other and promoting good feeling.

CHILE GROWERS JOIN.

Plan to Form an Organization in Orange County—The Purposes Stated.

ANAHEIM, Feb. 28.—The chile pepper growers of Orange county have appointed a committee of five to draft a constitution and by laws for a proposed association and the new organization will be formed in this city in a few days with at least twenty-five members. The object of the association will be to improve the quality of peppers grown, to possibly curtail the area devoted to the culture of this product and to better the prevailing condition of the market.

ORANGE, Feb. 28.—The Santiago Orange Growers' Association of Orange has just made settlements with the growers for the first January pool. For this pool, consisting of fifteen cars or 5591 boxes of oranges, the growers received $5747.23, or $1.03 per box. Nearly $23,000 was distributed by this association to the orange growers of this vicinity for the holiday and December shipments.

STOP RACE TRACK WORK.

"Lucky" Baldwin Suspends the Laying Out of Course, Pending Legislative Action.

MONROVIA, Feb. 28.—Work has been temporarily suspended on the Arcadia racecourse in which E. J. Lucky Baldwin is extensively interested. Suspension is caused by the bill now pending in the Legislature at Sacramento, which bears upon racing. If the bill is defeated, work will be resumed Monday; if it passes, it is not only likely to put a quietus on race-track building, but the $200,000 amusement company corporation recently organized is not likely to make the "White City" the amusement center its members hoped.

W. H. Payne, who has been seriously ill at Arcadia with inflammatory rheumatism, is slightly improved.

The new telephone exchange at Sierra Madre, under the management of W. E. Farman of this city, will be ready for business tomorrow. The residents of that city will now have free communication with Pasadena instead of Monrovia as heretofore.

The car shortage in this city and at Duarte has been somewhat relieved.

BURBANK.

BURBANK, Feb. 28.—The Nippomina Japanese Tract has just had installed on it another 150-horse-power engine with a seven-step centrifugal pump. In the last month over fifty acres have been set out to strawberries, and over ten miles of fluming runs over the place. In the last three months the Japs have erected five modern houses. Charles B. Fisher installed the plant and sunk the well. He is the business manager of the Japs.

P. S. McNutt of North Glendale has bought five acres of A. F. Cooper; consideration, $1500.

Mr. Zimmerman of Los Angeles has bought an acre on Fourth street and Angeline for $900. Mr. Zimmerman will erect a modern residence in the near future and will make Burbank his home.

POMONA.

POMONA, Feb. 28.—In his report to the directors of the Pomona Mutual Building and Loan Association, the secretary, C. I. Lorbeer, says that the organization has not lost a dollar or been forced to foreclose a mortgage in the period of its existence. The association has been organized for seventeen years and has erected over two hundred houses and aided in the building of many more.

The Landmarks Section of the Pomona Ebell met at the home of Mrs. C. I. Loud on Holt avenue this afternoon. Mrs. Loud spoke upon the subject, "Basketry, Its Art and Language." Mrs. F. D. Crank read a paper upon "California Musicians."

No trace has yet been found of the automobile belonging to E. E. Gillen and stolen from in front of the Fraternal Aid Theater on Tuesday evening. The officers have been notified.

Superior in every respect to the ordinary powders and substances of the commonly advertised Pills.

RADWAY & CO.—
For the past two years I was suffering from sour stomach and constipation. After eating I would have a sensation of heaviness in the stomach, foul like vomiting, pain and dizziness in the head, and then I would become nervous. I tried every thing that was recommended to me, I was almost in despair. At last a friend advised me to try Radway's Pills, which I did. And I am glad to say that they not only relieved me, but entirely cured me. Even after taking them only a few days a regularity of the bowels was established and the digestive symptoms ceased. Now I feel like a new person. S. S. TUCKER, Allentown, Pa.

Keep Your Nerve

It is nerve energy that runs the organs of your body. The storage battery is the nerve cells in the brain and spinal cord, and from this battery nerve force is sent out through the system of nerves. To keep the body healthy you must have plenty of nerve force; if you have not, the organs work imperfectly, the circulation is sluggish, digestion bad, appetite poor, kidneys inactive, and aches, pains and misery are the penalty.

You can keep the system strong with Dr. Miles' Nervine. It assists in generating nerve energy; it strengthens the nerves and makes the whole system strong and vigorous.

"I take pleasure in recommending Dr. Miles' Nervine to those suffering from nervous prostration, insomnia, and melancholy. After several months suffering from above diseases I tried this medicine and found immediate relief. It soothes and strengthens the nerves, chases away the gloomy and depressing thoughts and gives the sufferer renewed strength and hope. It is a superb nerve restorer."

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Potato prices have at last been lowered to their proper basis. Low bids were made on choice yesterday, and the generally overstocked market served to force figures down. The quotations should have been lowered several days ago in accordance with the actual situation. Three carloads of Colorado Pearl and Early Ohios and Minnesota Burbanks were sold on 'change yesterday at the same price as Wednesday. Idaho, Colorado, Wisconsin and Minnesota potatoes were reduced to 1.85 per cwt., making the decline 25 cents each on the sack. Reduced prices may not remain long on the present overstocked market is believed only temporary.

Butter continued scarce and firm.

Eggs were inclined to easiness. No changes took place. Egg stocks are accumulating on some floors.

Onions are easy. Lemons are inactive. Cali lemons are in oversupply. The market is over-run with large-sized oranges. There is no demand in the East for large oranges. Bananas are weaker at 4 per pound.

Garden truck continued to show a weak tendency. Strawberries are coming in more plentifully. Asparagus dropped to 12½@15 per lb. Celery is plentiful. Poultry of all kinds is in limited supply and in heavy demand.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

SHARES AND MONEY.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—There was an abrupt reversal of sentiment from that of yesterday in the stock market today, as there was on Tuesday from that of Monday. Today's sharp recoveries placed prices quite generally on a level with the best prices touched in the recovery on Tuesday. The completer uncertainty of the speculative sentiment is clearly defined in these numerous and abrupt changes in the course of prices. Today's recovery was as little accounted for by any news developments as have been the other movements of the week. Several items of news that might have received a discouraging interpretation were ignored. An important part will be allowed naturally to the covering operations of the bears in working a rally after so considerable a decline as had occurred. There was, besides, an appearance of support for the market and of accumulation of important accounts which determined the bears in buying to cover their shorts. Some influence was attributed to the adjournment of the Interstate Commerce Commission's hearing in this city, but opinions in the Wall street district of the bad effects on securities, threatened as a result of that hearing, were not altered, but rather emphasized by the later phases of the investigation. It therefore is believed to be impossible that the widespread publicity given to the hearing shall not awaken some distrust upon the part of investors and ordinary holders of securities with methods in use among the high financial powers revealed with the progress of the industry. Commission houses profess a conviction that the public cannot be induced to buy stocks while these revelations are fresh in mind. It is feared also that chances of enlisting foreign capital in issues of American companies would be impaired decidedly by the distrust aroused by the results of the investigation. Reports were published of a widespread strike threatened among railroad employees in the West and Northwest, but this seems to be ignored. Importance was given the highly favorable reports from the iron and steel trade and the great confidence expressed by authorities in that trade of the soundness of the conditions existing. The head of the United States Steel corporation affirmed that new orders were in excess of those coming in at this time last year, although showing some recession from last quarters average. This sustained condition in trade is calculated to go far in quieting the apprehensions of a contraction in general business owing to the great reliance placed upon the iron trade as an index of business conditions as a whole. Money was firmer today, both on call and on time. There was supposed to be some closing of loans following on preparation for the March settlements, which will be unusually large. The Bank of England's weekly return indicated that it is still in control of the London money market. Discounts were easier in Berlin. The Bank of France's return was weak, but sterling exchange at Paris rose. The profit-taking in the final hour was well absorbed and the market closed strong and active. Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value, $1,152,000. United States 2s, coupon, declined ½, while the 2's registered ½ on call.

Treasury Statement.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—Today's statement of the treasury balances in the general fund shows—Available cash balance, $250,227,640; gold coin and bullion, $115,642,165; gold certificates, $43,661,250.

WEATHER: Clear at 5 p.m.; wind southwest, velocity 12 miles.

The following windjammers have arrived at northern ports from San Pedro and have been chartered to load return cargoes of lumber: Schooners Advent and Aetnor, at South Bend; barkentine Koko Head, at Bellingham; barkentines Lahaina and Wrestler and schooners W. R. Hume and Americana, at Astoria; schooner W. H. Talbot, at Port Angeles; schooners Columbia and Fearless, at Eureka, and the schooner Sadie at the Umpqua River.

The steamer James S. Higgins, Capt. Higgins, cleared yesterday from Fort Bragg, and the schooner Fortuna sailed from Eureka, with 800 cargoes of lumber consigned to wholesalers at this port.

While being towed to the outer harbor late yesterday afternoon, the schooner Taurus, Capt. Norby, bound for Tacoma in ballast to load lumber, bumped against the dredger San Pedro, knocking a plank off the side of the schooner. She was docked until the damage had been repaired, sailing this afternoon for Gray's Harbor.

The steamer San Gabriel, Capt. Green, bound from this port for Eureka and the Umpqua River, has put into San Francisco with her machinery disabled. After repairs have been completed, she will proceed. The San Gabriel is owned by the Kerckhoff-Cuzner Mill and Lumber Company, and is a regular carrier to this port.

The grand jury at Astoria has returned a true bill against Capt. C. M. Forest, formerly master of schooner Annie Larsen, charging him with the murder, on December 15, of Gysbertus Visser, known as George Fisher, a member of the schooner's crew.

The schooner Blakeley is out two days from Port Townsend with a full cargo of lumber consigned to San Pedro wholesalers.

While returning from San Diego last night, the engines of the passenger steamer City of Long Beach broke down, and the vessel made its way into this port with difficulty.

GENERAL MARKETS.

GENERAL EASTERN MARKET.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

CHICAGO, Feb. 28.—The activity in wheat today was due largely to the absence of any important news. A report claiming that a large amount of wheat in certain provinces in Germany has been winter-killed, caused some uneasiness among shorts early, but later the rumor was denied. Cash sales were moderate receipts in the Northwest and official forecast for cold weather for the Southwest and an estimated decrease in this week's shipments from Argentina. These influences were offset by small clearances at the seaboard and an increased stock of wheat at Minneapolis. The market closed steady, after opened ½ higher at 75⅝. Sentiment in corn pit was inclined to the dull side and prices advanced moderately. The firmness was caused by a lack of offerings rather than any demand. Private interests and shorts were the chief buyers, while selling was mainly by longs. The market closed firm. May opened ¼ higher at 47¾; sold off to 47¼, advanced to 47¾ and closed at 47½@47¾ net, ⅛@⅜ higher. Oats declined after the opening of the market on selling by pit traders, but the loss was soon regained and prices held firm thereafter. Trading is drifting gradually toward the July option because of the congested condition of the May delivery. May opened unchanged to ¼ higher at 42 to 42¼, sold between 41¾ and 42¼ and closed 42@42¼, higher at 42½@42¾. Provisions were firm for the greater part of the day on a lively demand from shorts and local packers. The market eased off late in the day on realizing sales. The close was steady. May pork closed 2½ higher, lard was up 2½, and ribs were off 2½@5.

Cash quotations were as follows: Flour was dull; No. 3 spring wheat, 81@84; No. 2, 72@81; No. 2 red, 74½@75; No. 2 corn, 45¾; No. 2 yellow, 47; No. 2 white, 45¾@44; No. 2 white, 47½@48; No. 3, fair to choice malting barley, 62@64; No. 1 flax seed, 1.17½; No. 1 Northwestern, 1.24½; prime timothy seed, 4.55@4.60; clover, contract grades, 13.50; short ribs sides (loose,) 8.87½@9.00; mess pork, per bbl., 16.50@16.87½; lard, per 100 lbs., 9.80; short clear sides (boxed,) 9.62½@9.80; whisky, basis of high wines, 1.28.

New York Cotton Market.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO FRED DORR.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 28.—The cotton market continues to show an improvement in tone as prices get higher. Liverpool sent an indifferent set of cables this morning but the local market showed the strength of its position by creeping gradually higher and reaching a maximum advance of about 12 points on the active options before the middle of the afternoon. Mr. Price issued a circular calling attention to the stocks at uncounted interior towns which are reported considerably under last year, thus indicating a crop which Mr. Price places tentatively at 12,589,000 bales. Southern spot markets generally steady and exchanged to 1-16 higher. Port receipts 30,000 last year 7704.

Dick says the New York May option is the cheapest in the world. It can advance a cent and then only be on a parity with New Orleans and Liverpool.

Liverpool off a point and our market now due one point down around 9.46 for March and 9.61 for May.

Market opened better than due on Liverpool. Weld was a buyer and bid 9.57 for 10,000 May.

There is a good demand for cotton in local crowd.

Price is out with another bullish circular on cotton.

Out of about forty thousand notices issued March contracts Tuesday it is estimated that 20,000 bales were taken back by the original owners.

I. N. Solis says how does May cotton look now? The bears are a little more nervous, but the more they sell the more they will have to buy. The bears have sold about all they care to sell and they will tumble over each other to cover if those who quietly absorbed their offerings should decide to push way up.

Dick says our market is due to open one point higher this morning, around 9.47 for March and 9.63 for May. Liverpool spot cotton in fair demand one point higher at 6.14 on sales of 8000 bales including 7000 American. Imports 34,000 all American. There is no news feature of importance this morning. The situation shows strength in spot cotton and dry goods. Rain is indicated for Mississippi Valley and east gulf States today with rain or snow and colder over the Atlantic States tomorrow.

Following is range of prices today.

WHAT IS BETTER THAN A STRONG INDUSTRIAL?

We are laying the foundation for an industrial which will rank high with the best on the Pacific Coast.

Invest in a home industry, where large profits are sure to come. You may share in them.

We are rushing our factory to completion. Most of our machinery is here. Plans are being laid for doubling our initial capacity. We must have it. Orders for pumps continue to pile up. A mining man called today who wants forty pumps. We also received an order this week from the Sunset Road Oil Co. for two more large pumps, to be delivered as soon as we can make them. This speaks well for the one which they have been using for the past fourteen months, that is pumping 50 barrels of 11 gravity oil per hour to an elevation of 66 feet. (See Mr. Gordon's testimonial.)

Do not fail to make your reservation of stock at 50c per share before midnight, Saturday, March 2nd. Our books are positively closed at this time for 50c stock. The price will be $1.00 per share after this date. Your only possible way of securing stock at 50c will be by calling upon us, telephoning or wiring us, and making your reservation before that time for the amount that you desire. Office open Saturday night until midnight.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Potato prices have at last been lowered to their proper basis. Low bids were made on 'change yesterday, and the generally overstocked market served to force figures down. The quotations should have been lowered several days ago in accordance with the actual situation. Three carloads of Colorado Pearl and the same of Minnesota Burbanks were sold on 'change yesterday at the same prices as Wednesday. Idaho, Colorado, Wisconsin and Minnesota potatoes were reduced to 1.85 per cwt., selling decline of 10 cents each on the sack. Reduced prices may not remain long as the present overstocked market is believed only temporary.

Butter continued scarce and firm.

Eggs were inclined to easiness. No changes took place. Egg stocks are accumulating on some floors.

Grapefruit are easy. Lemons are inactive. Cali lemons are in oversupply. The market is over-run with large-sized oranges. There is no demand in the East for large oranges. Navels are weaker at 4 per pound.

Garden truck continued to show a weak tendency. Strawberries are coming in more plentifully. Asparagus dropped to 12½@15 per lb. yesterday. Poultry of all kinds is in limited supply and in heavy demand.

Halibut and lobsters are plentiful.

The receipts of produce as reported for yesterday's 'change are as follows: Eggs, 673 cases; butter, 15,448 lbs.; cheese, 24 lbs.; potatoes, 286 sacks; onions, 4 sacks; beans, 206 sacks; sweet potatoes, none.

ORDERS FEW AND FAR BETWEEN ON 'CHANGE.

ORDERS were at a premium Thursday on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange. Trading was very light and the call dragged monotonously throughout. With the exception of but two securities, the entire list sagged and shows fractional losses throughout.

Merchants' Trust again sold at par, two ten-share lots changing hands. The remainder of the bank list shows no change. Bonds remain about the same as heretofore, trading being recorded in Home first mortgages at 97¾@98½. The demand for this security seemed particularly strong, one bid for $50,000 worth being heard at 92. Pasadena "Homes" were in fair demand also, the bid reaching high at 84¾.

The oils were led by Olinda Land, which continued to sell readily at 18@18½. The stock suffered a reaction at the close when it was quoted at 18¼@18¾. Columbia declined several points on the bid, closing at 69¾@70¼. One trade at 72, buyer thirty, was all that was recorded. Associated closed at 38@41. Rice Ranch is showing a bullish tendency, closing at 2.01@2.05½. Union was wanted at 215, and was offered at 215.75.

Home common was the leader among the miscellaneous stocks, selling to the extent of 50 shares at 29.25. The preferred stock was stationary.

Trading on the mining call was fairly brisk. Johnnie Consolidated experienced a return to popular favor for a few minutes and sold easily at 15¾@15¾. Consolidated Mines was also a trader at prices similar to those ruling Wednesday. Clark Copper was handled to a considerable extent at prices varying from 38 to 40. Eldorado Cañon shows on the sheet with a fair amount of trading as also does California Hills, the latter at a price fully 1½ points below those ruling last week. Recla Consolidated also is on the sales sheet, a transaction of 100 shares being made at $1. Not many months ago this stock was bid for at $3.50 and $4 and was held in popular favor. This is the first sale in months.
